AMLIE GIVES UP BERTH ON ICC TO ESCAPE DEFEAT

Asks Roosevelt to Recall Name.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—[Special.]—Thomas R. Amlie, Wisconsin left wing extremist, whose selection by President Roosevelt as a member of the interstate commerce commission raised a storm of protest, today asked the President to withdraw his nomination.

Thomas R. Amlie.

Amlie's renunciation of the post came after it had been considered almost certain that his nomination would be blocked by the senate with consequent humiliation to himself and the President.

It was understood that the President would accede willingly to Amlie's wishes and recall the nomination. The official withdrawal is expected to be sent to the senate tomorrow.

May Name Benson.

There were reports tonight that Mr. Roosevelt would name the Farmer-Laborite, Elmer Benson, former governor of Minnesota and former senator, to the seat he had intended for Amlie.

A member of the La Follette Progressive party, Amlie served three terms in the house. Last fall he ran for the Progressive nomination for United States senator in Wisconsin and was defeated. He was known to his colleagues as an enthusiastic supporter of the President and had ideas that lay further to the left than even the New Deal.

He was regarded as a communist in everything but name. At committee hearings on his nomination, he admitted that he advocates a program of collectivism that differs from communism only as to the means by which it would be attained.

Opposition Grows.

Witnesses before the committee said Amlie predicted in 1933 that the capitalistic system in the United States would be overthrown by other than constitutional means. He has expressed the opinion in speeches and articles that capitalism cannot and should not be saved.

Opposition to his confirmation mounted to obviously decisive proportions as more was learned about the Wisconsin radical. Both Amlie and the President were urged to withdraw his nomination to save themselves embarrassment.

Already this session, Mr. Roosevelt has been defeated on a nomination by the senate. It rejected the nomination of Judge Floyd H. Roberts to be a federal judge for the western district of Virginia on the plea of the two senators from that state that the nomination was personally repugnant to them.

May Drop D. W. Smith.

In addition, confronted with sizable opposition to confirmation, Mr. Roosevelt has not submitted the renomination of Donald Wakefield Smith as a member of the National Labor Relations board. Smith was reappointed before the session of congress began. Informed quarters are of the opinion that the appointment will be canceled, and it is reported that former Representative David J. Lewis of Maryland will be given the place.

Aside from the Amlie, Smith and Roberts appointments, Mr. Roosevelt's nominations—including two to the Supreme court, two to the cabinet, and several other important government posts—have received confirmation.

Classical, Sweet and Swing Music Buried for Posterity

Atlanta, Ga., April 10.—(AP)—Classical music, sweet dance tunes, and swing music will be bedfellows for 6,000 years so they can be on hand in case folks have run out of things to argue about in the year 7937.

Oglethorp university announced today representative recordings of all three types of music had been placed in its "crypt of civilization," a vault designed to preserve artifacts of 1939.

Arturo Toscanini records were chosen to represent the highbrows, Richard Himber's discs to plead the cause of sweet music, Artie Shaw's tunes to show how swing is played.

J. M. SLATTERY IN LINE TO GET SEN. LEWIS' SEAT

Consider Schwartz for Commerce Post.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

A well defined report that James M. Slattery is the probable choice of Gov. Horner for appointment to succeed Senator James Hamilton Lewis, who died Sunday, came last night from Springfield. Slattery, who is regarded as the governor's closest adviser, is chairman of the Illinois commerce commission.

Another report said that Charles K. Schwartz, member of the state tax commission, has been offered Slattery's present post as head of the commerce commission.

Go to Capital with Horner.

Slattery and Schwartz are accounted the outstanding Horner leaders in Cook county. Slattery has had charge of political affairs and has managed the governor's political fortunes. Schwartz has handled patronage matters. Both accompanied the governor on his trip from Chicago to Springfield last evening and went with him to the executive mansion.

They are the two Cook county members of the so-called four man regency designated by Gov. Horner to help Acting Governor John Stelle administer the affairs of the state while Horner was an invalid in Florida. The two downstaters on the regency were S. L. Nudelman, director of finance, and F. Lynden Smith, director of public works and buildings.

Serves Until November, 1940.

The appointment of a new senator is expected to be made within two or three weeks. Under the law the governor appoints a successor, who will serve until the next congressional election in November, 1940. At that time a senator will be elected to fill the two year vacancy until the regular full term election for this seat takes place in 1942.

Slattery, an old political friend of the governor, has been close to Horner in his various battles. He is an attorney. Under Horner he has served as attorney for the Lincoln park board, attorney for the Chicago park board, and as head of the commerce commission. He was a boyhood friend of Mayor Kelly.

Sunday night Kelly and Slattery were alone together waiting to see Horner when first word came of Senator Lewis' death. Mayor Kelly took the news to the governor.

Both Support Mayor Kelly.

Slattery and Schwartz supported Kelly in the recent mayoralty campaign. Among members of the governor's official family it was said yesterday that Slattery might have almost anything within Horner's gift, but that the governor did not want to lose his almost daily companionship.

Several other names were mentioned in the day's gossip. Among them were those of United States District Judge Michael L. Igoe, who was the unsuccessful candidate against Senator Scott W. Lucas in the Democratic primary last year, and Attorney General John E. Cassidy. Others mentioned were State's Attorney Courtney and Col. A. A. Sprague.

It was assumed the appointee would come from Chicago. The governor has been a stickler for the old tradition of one senator from downstate and one from Cook. He expounded this last year as one argument in supporting Lucas, a downstater, against Igoe, a Chicagoan.

It was not seriously considered that the governor might resign and be appointed to the senate vacancy by Lieut. Gov. John Stelle, who would succeed to the governorship.

Intends to Finish Term.

Gov. Horner has often said: "The people elected me governor and I intend to finish my term."

At Springfield some of the statehouse lawyers said it was doubtful whether a governor could become senator, because the constitution says:

"Neither the governor, lieutenant governor, auditor of public accounts, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction, nor attorney general shall be eligible to any other office during the period for which he shall have been elected."

Other lawyers said this did not apply to offices under the federal government.

Sets Fire for Spite; 6 Dead, Dozen Injured

Six persons perished and more than a dozen others were injured early today when fire, of incendiary origin, broke out in a heavily tenanted rooming house at 2953 South Michigan avenue. Police later announced that William Warren, janitor of the building and a former inmate of the St. Charles Training School for Boys, started the fire for spite and was under arrest. All victims of the fire were colored.

The fire was discovered at the first floor entrance by two passersby, Albert and Mrs. Aretta Sayre, colored, 5835 Wabash avenue. They sounded an alarm. The flames spread quickly, however, from the first to the second and third floors, trapping dozens of sleeping roomers.

Fire Company No. 8 reached the scene first, and helped rescue fifteen or twenty men, women, and children. Aerial ladders were used effectively in the rescues. Other persons leaped from the second and third floors, and suffered injuries as a result.

Two Children Among Dead.

The dead—four who were burned on the third floor, and two who were suffocated on the second—had no chance to escape. Two of the dead were children. None of the six could be identified immediately. Two firemen were hurt fighting the flames. They were Allan V. Guger and Wingfield Moffett of Engine company No. 16.

Thirteen persons required medical aid at the Michael Reese or Mercy hospital, and one—Myrtle Moore, 13 years old—unwittingly helped trap Warren. The janitor, who is 21, boasted to a reporter that he had helped save the girl, and the reporter told firemen. They said Warren was lying because they had saved her. As a result police seized Warren and he soon confessed.

Sets Fire for Spite.

He said he started fires at the front and rear of the first floor hallway. His motive, he said, was to spite his employer because of what he considered low wages. The employer is the Rev. J. M. Stone, pastor of the colored Second Timothy Baptist church, 3333 Wabash avenue. Shortly before the rooming house fire was started, a small fire was started in the basement of the church where Warren formerly had roomed, and police suspect that fire as part of his work.

Police records show that Warren served 12 months in St. Charles for larceny a year or two ago, and three separate terms in the house of correction under the aliases of King Williams and William Sharp.

Among those taken to hospitals were John Moore, his wife, Alice, and their daughters, Johnnie Bee and Myrtle; William Love, his wife, Hattie, and their four children; Mitzie McKay, and Janet Cunningham. Moore, his wife and Johnnie Bee were hurt leaping from the third floor.

UNIONS OF ARGENTINA CALL 'SIT' TO SHOW ANTI-NAZI SOLIDARITY

BUENOS AIRES, April 10.—(AP)—The executive committee of the General Labor confederation, representing every unionized worker in Argentina, today ordered a fourteen hour stoppage of work next Saturday to demonstrate labor's solidarity with the government against infiltration of Nazi doctrines.

Labor leaders said 300,000 members of the confederation and an additional 200,000 nonunion workers are expected to participate in the demonstration. All union workers except those engaged in essential services were ordered to leave their jobs.

The labor action was called to show President Roberto M. Ortiz that labor supported solidly his announced intention to make a thorough investigation of alleged Nazi activities, committee spokesmen said.

APART 60 YEARS, SCHOOLMATES TO BE MARRIED

Sixty years ago Mrs. Anna Holloman and James Braschler attended the same school in South Holland. She married and went to Canada. Upon the death of her first husband, she married again and went to New Orleans. After the death of her second husband and when her eight children were grown, she returned to Cook county.

Meanwhile, Braschler's first and second wives had died. His four children had grown up. He was lonely, living at 12059 La Fayette avenue. Braschler renewed his acquaintance with Mrs. Holloman, who is living at 15328 9th avenue, Phoenix. Yesterday they made application for a marriage license. Mrs. Holloman said they would be married this week.

Charge Special with Dixmoor Election Plot

The county clerk's office may be forced to take a hand in Dixmoor's plans for a village election next Tuesday to scotch a reported plot by Village President Charles Special to keep his convicted "speed trap machine" in control of the village and its revenues.

This was disclosed yesterday by Assistant State's Attorney Richard Austin. He also charged that Special, despite the prison sentence of a year that hangs over him for operating a speed trap, has prevented the confirmation of Edward Seliga as police chief since the latter's appointment by the village board Feb. 28.

Dixmoor is a small community on the Dixie highway about six miles south of the city limits. Special was convicted with Former Police Magistrate Charles A. Braun and three former Dixmoor policemen.

Braun Seeks Old Post.

The election next Tuesday is for two commissioners and one police magistrate. Two of Special's henchmen are seeking reëlection as commissioners and Braun is seeking election to the magistrate's office which he resigned following his conviction.

Although the election is only a week distant, election clerks and judges have not yet been named by the village board. Special has prevented this, Austin said.

"Special's method is simple," Austin said. "Dixmoor is governed by Special and six commissioners. Three are anti-Special and three are pro-Special. Special has prevented the board from holding legal meetings by keeping his three henchmen away.

"It may be necessary for the county clerk's office to step in and name the election officials if the Dixmoor board doesn't act in time."

Two Slates Oppose Them.

Special's candidates—the two commissioners seeking reëlection and Ex-Magistrate Braun—are being opposed by a Citizens' and an Independent slate.

"Unless the good people of Dixmoor beat the Special ticket," said Austin, "we may have to bring ouster proceedings against Special and Braun and the village may be put to the expense of a new election."

The village has been without the services of a police chief since Seliga's appointment, Austin charged. Before Seliga can take office the board must approve his bond. It hasn't been able to do this since, Austin charged, because of Special's tactics in preventing a quorum.

Trusted Guard Admits Thefts Over Six Years

When a department manager found that goods were being stolen from the Montgomery Ward & Co. mail order building at 618 Chicago avenue it was John Jones who was called in to halt the thefts. John Jones was a trusted employé of eleven years' service—nine years as supervisor of night watchmen.

And so it was with astonishment that Jones' employers learned last night he had confessed that he is the thief. He told Detectives Thomas Lovell and James Dwyer that he has used his position in the last six years to steal goods with a wholesale value of $50,000.

Young Woman Also Involved.

Jones, who is 53 years old, took all the blame himself. But the police found that Mrs. Josephine Russo, 27 years old, with whom he has kept up a romance all those six years, is also involved. She confessed that she took orders from the company's catalog and that Jones filled them while pretending to guard the building.

An anonymous note proved Jones' undoing. It came to Capt. Thomas Harrison of the East Chicago avenue police last Saturday. Jones and Mrs. Russo, it said, were planning a theft at the mail order building on Sunday morning. Capt. Harrison sent Detectives Lovell, Dwyer, Harry Lyons, George Griffin, and Willard Keating to stand guard.

See Pair Take Package.

Early Sunday morning, they saw a man and woman drive up in a sedan and take a large package from a side door. The policemen took the license number and traced the car to Jones. They felt certain there was some mistake when they learned who Jones was, but decided to question him Sunday night. Yesterday he told them this story:

His wife died seven years ago. He was lonely. He met Mrs. Russo, who had separated from her husband. She told him, he said, that she was in financial distress. He began stealing and giving the stolen merchandise to her to dispose of.

She found it easy to do this. They found it would be easier still to take orders in advance. Jones would wander through the various departments, to which his position gave him free access, and steal the jewelry, the men's suits, and the women's dresses and lingerie, and stockings which the customers ordered.

Big Demand for Lingerie.

Lingerie and stockings were in greatest demand. When these goods were stolen in sufficient quantities to be noticed, Jones' employers would demand an investigation. Jones would be placed in charge. He would question every one, and the thefts would stop because he would quit stealing from the lingerie and hosiery departments and concentrate on other departments for a time.

The merchandise was sold at about half the catalog price. The customers called for it at Mrs. Russo's apartment at 1941 Chicago avenue, where she still lives with her sisters and her father. Jones visited her there often, almost always for Sunday dinner, but kept his own two rooms at 1465 Chicago avenue. Stolen goods worth several thousand dollars were found in the Russo apartment.

Jones had little money, although he estimated that he and Mrs. Russo had realized $35,000 from the sale of the merchandise. He said he could not account for his share of the profits. Acquaintances, however, said Jones was known as a Good Time Charlie in the taverns of the northwest side, spending money freely.

Holland Calls Troops

AMSTERDAM, April 10.—(AP)—The Netherlands tonight called up border troops for military duty because it saw a danger of war in the international situation. A royal decree brought the border battalions up to full strength.

An official statement, which emphasized that the measure was merely precautionary, said:

"By royal decree it is decided that the actual international situation is containing war danger, therefore border battalions on Monday were called under arms.

"This must not be considered a direct result of events of the last days, but that the general European situation makes a better border defense desirable for maintaining the policy of independence.

"Holland can now meet development of the situation with more easiness."

LONDON, April 10.—(AP)—Great Britain and France were reported tonight to have backed up an offer to guarantee Greece's freedom from possible Italian-German aggression by sending warships to waters off Corfu, strategic Greek port at the mouth of the Adriatic.

The British admiralty refused either to confirm or deny that warships were near the island port close to the southern tip of Albania, newly conquered by Italy.

The guarantee to Greece was said to have been accompanied by a similar offer to Turkey, which controls the Dardenelles, Black sea route to Rumania and soviet Russia.

Parliament Meets Thursday.

Prime Minister Chamberlain earlier summoned parliament to convene in extraordinary session Thursday because of Premier Mussolini's invasion of Albania. That conquest carried Italian troops across the Adriatic sea to a foothold in the Balkans.

Both the British and French navies appeared to be displaying unusual activity in the Mediterranean. It was an apparent attempt to impress on the Rome-Berlin axis powers the seriousness with which they regarded Italy's swift expansion.

All British ships left Italian ports. Their destinations were kept secret. The British Mediterranean fleet was converging on Malta, British naval base midway between Sicily and the North African coast. An emergency call was broadcast to all officers and seamen ashore ordering them to their ships. [Details on page 2.]

Size of Fleet Revealed.

Though disposition of Britain's warships and exact movements were kept secret it was known that Britain has five battleships, six cruisers, one aircraft carrier, 60 destroyers, 20 submarines, 30 torpedo boats, minelayers, and supply ships in her Mediterranean fleet.

Alarmed over Fascist expansion, Britain was reported to have told Italy that any attempt to seize the Island of Corfu would be an invitation to war.

Informed quarters in Athens said the Italian government had disclosed it would give Greece assurances that her territorial integrity would be respected.

Seek to Protect Nations.

The call for parliament ends the Easter holiday ahead of schedule, the first hurried termination of a recess since the Czecho-Slovak crisis last September. The houses of lords and commons were summoned to meet in order to express the government's disapproval of Italy's seizure of Albania and to discuss ways of protecting other nations considered as threatened.

While concern mounted over Italian and German ambitions in the Balkans, Britain pressed measures to form an eastern front against the Rome-Berlin axis in other quarters as well.

The cabinet was said to have instructed Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax to urge Foreign Minister Josef Beck of Poland to speed up negotiations with Hungary and Rumania for bringing those two countries into the British-French-Polish front against aggression.

It was at an urgent meeting of the cabinet—the first on a bank holiday since the world war—that the decision to summon parliament was made. Another extra cabinet meeting will be held Thursday before parliament convenes.

The cabinet was said to have devoted most of its session to consider Britain's strategic position in the Mediterranean since the Italian conquest of the Albanian kingdom.

See Lifeline Periled.

The committee for imperial defense was described as having reported to the cabinet that the British-French maritime lifeline through the Mediteranean to their colonial possessions would be seriously menaced if Italy were to gain control of Greece or Turkey.

This was said to have been responsible for the decision to give a guarantee to Greece and Turkey.

Although Chamberlain was expected to charge Italy had violated the British-Italian 1938 friendship agreement by invading Albania, it was believed the cabinet had decided not to denounce the treaty. The pact provided for maintenance of the present status in the Mediterranean.

The warning on Corfu was said to have been conveyed in a message by Chamberlain to Premier Mussolini, saying that Britain would "consider any attempt to seize Corfu as a casus belli [cause for war]."

Joint War Display Planned.

France, meanwhile, was reported in Paris to be considering a joint naval and military display with Britain to impress the gravity of their view of the Balkan situation on Italy and Germany.

At No. 10 Downing street a procession of cabinet ministers called on Chamberlain until late tonight.

After the cabinet meeting the prime minister cut short his lunch to see Clement R. Attlee, leader of the opposition in the house of commons. Then there was a meeting of ministers which included the inner cabinet of Foreign Secretary Halifax, Home Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare, Admiral Baron Chatfield, minister for coördination of defense, and Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir John Simon.

Stanhope Sees Chamberlain.

Later Chamberlain had a private session with Halifax and Sir Alexander Cadogan, permanent undersecretary of foreign affairs. Just before dinner Earl Stanhope, first lord of the admiralty, arrived for another conference.

Some observers interpreted the arrival of Lord Stanhope as support for a report that Chamberlain was considering some specific way to protect Greece and her strategically important islands.

While Chamberlain was busy with other ministers, Halifax, at the foreign office, saw the Greek minister, Charalambos Simopoulos. The representative of the Athens government had anxiously paraded in front of No. 10 Downing street waiting for the morning cabinet session to end.

The Rumanian minister, Viorel Tilea, and the Italian chargé d'affaires, Guido Crolla, also visited the foreign office.

SKIPPERS FIGHT PLAN TO DEEPEN ST. LAWRENCE

TORONTO, April 10.—(AP)—The Canadian Navigators' federation contended—in a brief made public today opposing the St. Lawrence deep waterways project—that improvement, not deepening, of the canal system would make it adequate to meet Canada's shipping needs for years to come.

The federation, composed of captains and other licensed officers of Great Lakes vessels, argued that the proposed seaway would be in the state of New York for twelve miles and Canada thus would surrender control of her "only practical water outlet to the sea." It made these other objections:

1. There is no possibility of large ocean vessels coming up the St. Lawrence to discharge passengers and cargoes.
2. Ocean-going tramps would be faced with an extra expense of $2,800, greater than the cost of transshipment.
3. A saving in transportation costs is doubtful.
4. The project arises from United States power needs.

The brief, forwarded to Ottawa, was supported by the National Association of Marine Engineers.

HITLER DOOMED AND KNOWS IT, SAYS DR. MANN

The fury which has marked the actions of Adolph Hitler in recent months comes from his growing realization that Nazism is doomed, Thomas Mann, famous author and lecturer, asserted last night. Mann, a voluntary exile from Nazi Germany, spoke in Orchestra hall under the auspices of the American Committee for Christian German Refugees.

"I am firmly convinced that catastrophe is bound to come in one form or another," Mann said. "We may be sure that the despoilers of Europe will not escape their fate. Their revolution will explode before our eyes."

ISLAND OF CORFU OF GREAT VALUE IN TIME OF WAR

Guards Entrance to Adriatic Sea.

Ancient Corfu, often considered the most beautiful of all Greek isles, is of strategic military importance in the modern world. This fact underlies British concern over rumors Italy may occupy it.

The island is about forty miles long and twenty wide at the broadest point. It lies, at the nearest point, only two miles off the southern tip of Albania, and guards the entrance to the Adriatic sea. Seventy miles to the west, across the Strait of Otranto, lies the heel of the Italian boot.

Between the island and the mainland are waters in which large vessels can lie safely, affording a natural base for warships and submarines. The Adriatic is important for control of the Balkans in event of war, and Corfu is important for control of the Adriatic.

As an example of the island's military importance it may be recalled that France temporarily occupied it Jan. 11, 1916. She did so to cover the retreat of the Serbian army which had been driven through Albania. Some 75,000 troops were protected there. The Greeks protested but did not resist.

ALLIES BALKED IN DRIVE TO LINE UP RUMANIANS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 10.—Negotiations to bring Rumania and Turkey into the French and British security system have run into obstacles. One of these is Poland's unwillingness to guarantee Rumanian frontiers unless Hungary does likewise. Another is Turkey's demand for further concessions from France in regard to the Alexandretta sanjak, Syrian district under French rule.

The French and British have decided to send another message to Burgos in hope of obtaining the withdrawal of Italian troops in Spain. The democracies are worried by reports that Generalissimo Francisco Franco is tied up in a secret military alliance with the Rome-Berlin axis and that fresh Italian troops have arrived in Spain.

JERUSALEM, April 10.—(AP)—Four British soldiers were killed and two wounded today when a land mine exploded under a military trolley northwest of the Lydda railway station, the main junction of Palestine railways between Jerusalem and Jaffa.

Board of Trade Member's Home Robbed of Jewelry

Max Nierman, 6933 Oglesby avenue, a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, reported to police yesterday that burglars entered his apartment early Monday morning and took a diamond pin valued at $500.

EXPECT IL DUCE TO NAME PRINCE ALBANIAN RULER

More Reservists Called; 1,000,000 in Army.

ROME, April 10.—(AP)—As Italian troops today completed occupation of Albania, diplomats speculated on the form of rule the country would be given.

The likelihood of Premier Mussolini's giving to Italy's King Victor Emmanuel the throne vacated by the fugitive King Zog faded in view of Italian assurances the British-Italian agreement on the Mediterranean would be respected.

This agreement, signed last year, provides for maintenance of the status quo as regards the sovereignty of territory along the Mediterranean. Diplomats said this would mean Albania would not be incorporated into the Italian empire.

For that reason Mussolini was widely expected to set up a so-called puppet king in Albania. The country might, however, be given an Italian king.

Duce Passes Up Flight.

Three princes of the House of Savoy were mentioned as possibilities—the duke of Aosta, the duke of Pistoia, and the duke of Bergamo, all cousins of King Victor. The duke of Aosta is the viceroy of Ethiopia.

A widely expected airplane dash to Tirana, Albanian capital, by Il Duce failed to materialize today. He remained in Rome and some diplomatic circles believed he stayed here to keep in close touch with the general European situation.

Italy has an estimated force of nearly 1,000,000 men under arms in positions from Spain to the eastern shores of the Aegean sea with the calling up of more than 350,000 reservists since the first of the year, it was authoritatively reported.

Troop reënforcements were reported sent to the Dodecanese Islands, Italian possessions in the Aegean southeast of Greece and just off the coast of Asia Minor, and to Libya, colony in North Africa.

Specialists in Service.

Foreign observers believed the calling to the colors of reservists, including the entire class of those born in 1912, was intended largely to keep the Italian army ready for any emergency.

Authoritative Italians described the action as a result of British efforts to line up the smaller nations of Europe in an anti-aggression bloc. It was said many of the reservists were to replace reënforcements recently sent to Libya and the Dodecanese group.

In addition to the class of 1912, diplomats heard that specialists of classes from 1899 to 1915 were in active service. Reserve officers also have been called to active service and air force reservists who failed to complete training for their pilots' licenses during regular service have been ordered to report for flying instruction.

Warns United States.

Italy's standing army on Jan. 1 was about 300,000 men. About 240,000 conscripts were called for regular service last month, and about 60,000 others were believed to have been added by calling up men previously exempted because of their size.

Americans were told by the authoritative Fascist editor, Virginio Gayda, to "mind their own business," threatening that Italy and Germany would meddle in American affairs unless the United States let them alone.

It is time, he said in an editorial in Il Giornale d'Italia, that American "threats" and "intrigues" came to an end. Gayda wrote mainly in reply to American newspaper comment on the occupation of Albania.

Tighten Grip on Albania.

TIRANA, April 10.—(AP)—Italy tightened her grip on Albania today with fresh movements of troops into the conquered kingdom, with inspired statements of Albanian acceptance of Fascism and a proclamation threatening martial law.

The Italian invasion, which began on Good Friday as a military operation, developed into a campaign to bring Albania's 1,000,000 population into full acceptance of Fascist rule.

Gen. Alfredo Guzzoni, commander of the Italian expeditionary force, warned of "inexorable martial law" against any one challenging the Italian occupation.

More troops were moving by air from Italy into Albania and back into mountain fastnesses to complete the conquest. Italian airplanes performed acrobatics over Tirana as officials of the Italian ministry of popular culture took charge of press and radio facilities.

Under Provisional Committee.

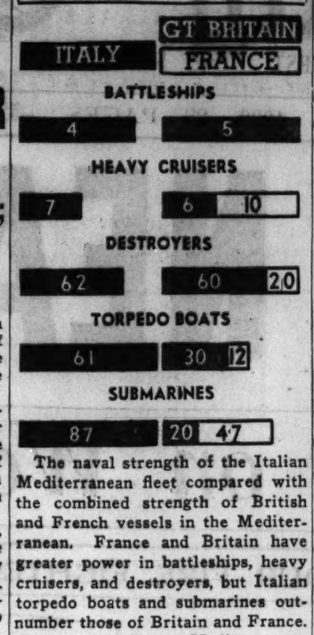
The eventual form of government still is to be announced, but for the present Tirana is under the provisional committee of Albanians who take orders from Gen. Guzzoni. The president of the provisional council, Zhafer Ipi, said in a broadcast which was relayed over all Italian radio stations:

"We have had Albanian independence for twenty-six years, but in the last fifteen years [under Zog, first as president and later as king] we have not been able to show the civilized world that we, who are in the heart of Europe, have been capable of governing ourselves."

Then he spoke of Premier Mussolini as having made "moral and material sacrifices for us" and appealed to him to "save the Albanian people."

Italian casualties of the occupation are variously estimated at from 50 to 200, and Albanian losses at about sixty.

Mediterranean Power



The naval strength of the Italian Mediterranean fleet compared with the combined strength of British and French vessels in the Mediterranean. France and Britain have greater power in battleships, heavy cruisers, and destroyers, but Italian torpedo boats and submarines outnumber those of Britain and France. Germany has no Mediterranean fleet.

EGYPTIANS FEAR ITALY WILL GRAB VALLEY OF NILE

[Copyright: 1939: By the New York Times.]

CAIRO, Egypt, April 10.—Demonstrations by the students of Al Azhar Theological university and the Egyptian University of Secular Studies against the Italian occupation of Albania are held indicative of the anti-Italian sentiment prevailing among Moslems here.

But while Italy is condemned for the Albanian occupation, respect and fear for Premier Benito Mussolini and the Rome-Berlin axis appears to be increasing tremendously among all classes of Egyptians.

The Egyptians, it is said, are beginning to doubt strongly that Britain is in a position to defend Egypt if the latter is attacked by the Italians. Some here are even reported convinced that the Valley of the Nile will become part of the new Italian empire in the near future.

NAZIS ON HOLIDAY UNAWARE OF STIR ABOUT ALBANIA

BERLIN, April 10.—(AP)—Germans promenaded under a warm Easter Monday sun or enjoyed outings in the country today, unaware for the most part of the intense diplomatic activity in other European capitals. Easter Monday found all businesses closed and there were no newspapers to inform Germans of the repercussions of Italian occupation of Albania.

With government offices closed, observers waited for the end of the holiday to see what course German diplomacy would take in the face of the furore created by Italy's action in Albania, Chancellor Hitler spent his holiday at Berchtesgaden.

The new Jugo-Slav minister to Berlin, Dr. Ivo Andrio, arrived and was greeted by a foreign office representative.

Turkish Press Alarmed by Threat to Balkans

[Copyright: 1939: By the New York Times.]

ISTANBUL, Turkey, April 10.—The Turkish press, hitherto restrained in its comments on the international situation, today freely expresses alarm. The leading newspapers point to the danger threatening all the Balkan countries and exhort them to unity and coöperation.

ENGLAND EQUIPS MALTA CIVILIANS WITH GAS MASKS

Americans Urged to Quit Island Naval Base.

VALETTA, Malta, April 10.—(AP)—Excitement mounted tonight in this island naval base, keystone of Britain's Mediterranean defense system, as extraordinary defense precautions were put into effect.

Gas masks were distributed to civilians.

All British officers and seamen ashore were called to report for duty by an emergency summons. The few American citizens residing in Malta were advised to leave. Families of many British naval and army officers departed for England.

Arrow locates Britain's naval base in Mediterranean.

The cause of the unusual precautions was not disclosed. However, Malta is astride the vital sea route between the eastern and western sections of the Mediterranean, where tension has arisen since Italy's seizure of Albania.

Island Bristles with Guns.

Bristling with guns, the rocky island is only 55 miles from the southern tip of Italian Sicily.

Ever since the 1935 crisis over Italy's invasion of Ethiopia, Britain has been putting tiny Malta into fighting trim. Huge supplies of munitions and food have been secreted underground to preserve it in case of a long siege.

Hidden guns, electrically controled sea mines and cleverly concealed suicide squads of machine gunners guard the island, which is a base for land, sea, and air forces. It has a civil population of 262,000. Valetta is the chief town and port. Malta is seventeen miles long and nine miles wide.wide. Most of Malta's harbor facilities, docks, and airdromes are concentrated at the southeastern corner. Its ring of forts is unimpressive to the casual observer, but below ground there are huge rooms and tunnels cut through solid rock.

Shellfire Breaks Windows.

Defenses are so arranged that Britain believes small groups of men could hold large areas of Malta's bays against anything except direct hits. The 9.2 guns mounted in Malta during the world war have been replaced by guns so large they shake windows 12 miles away when fired.

Off Malta's headlands are mine traps strung out like necklaces three or four miles to sea. From secret vantage points the mines can be fired at will.

5 Killed When Avalanche Buries Children's Lodge

BERNE, Switzerland, April 10.—(AP)—An valanche of rocks crashed today on a boarding house for children near the village of Flens, killing at least five persons. After six hours' rescue work, fears were expressed that twelve others of the twenty-eight in the building would be found dead.

GREEK HISTORY: WARS, INVASIONS AND SUBJUGATION

Nation Usually Unable to Rule Even Itself.

If Italy should seize Greece it would not be the first time. For hundreds of years the peninsula was ruled by Romans, Venetians, and Latin Franks. It also has been held at one time or another by Persians, Turks, Burgundians, Sicilians, and Spaniards.

Any attempt to present even a short résumé of Greek relations with neighbors impresses the searcher with an outstanding paradox: the intellectual greatness of the Greeks through all history, and at the same time their political weakness. They seldom have been able to govern even themselves, to say nothing of another people.

If the sixth century before Christ is to be taken as the first period of comparative Greek unity, then the first conquest of the Greeks would be that by the Persians in 545 B. C. and again in 494 B. C. In the middle of the fourth century B. C. they again were conquered, this time by the Macedonians.

Macedonians Mostly Greeks.

But if the Greeks are considered as a people rather than as a peninsula, the Macedonians were about as much Greek as the Dorians, Athenians, Illyrians, Aeolians, Spartans, and Ionians.

There was no question, however, about the Roman conquest in 197 B. C.

Macedonia, which then included Greece, was beaten and the Greeks "liberated." The Greeks became allies but to all practical intent subjects of Rome. This situation continued throughout the period of the Roman empire and again under Byzantine rule, although in 395 and 396 A. D. Alaric and his Visigoths overran the country.

In the fifth century A. D. Greece was invaded innumerable times by Vandal pirates, Ostrogoths, Huns, and Avars. From 581 to 995 it repeatedly was raided and invaded by the Slavonic tribes, Slovenes, Wends, Bulgars, and Vlachs. In 1084 the Sicilian Normans gained a foothold in the Ionian Islands and sacked Thebes and Corinth in 1145 and 1146.

Under Thumb of Venice.

After 1122 the country was much under the thumb of the Venetians, the great traders of the day. Foreign merchants and capitalists were largely in control and government was conspicuous principally by its absence.

In 1204 the country was invaded by Frankish barons and divided. During the occupation that followed the north was held until 1308 by the Epirote dynasty, then by the Grand Catalan company of Spaniards, was taken in 1350 by King Stephen Dushan of Servia, and in 1397 annexed by the Ottoman Turks.

The central portion was held by the Bungudian house de la Roche until 1311, when Spaniard mercenaries installed princes of the Sicilian house of Aragon. These in turn were ousted by the Peloponnese and the Turks got this area in 1415. The Peloponnese were seized by two French knights, Champlitte and Villehardouin, and ceded in 1259 to the restored Byzantine empire. Turkey got this part of Greece in 1460.

Turks Win It in War.

Venice captured most of the peninsula in 1687, only to lose it back to the Turks in 1718 after a war. The country, peopled by this scramble of racial eggs, finally achieved independence again in October of 1828, and added territory by means of the Balkan wars of 1912 and 1913. Its history throughout the world war was one of constantly changing governments and policies, although it finally fought on the side of the allies.

The last war of note that Greece fought was with Turkey, in 1922 and 1923. In 1924 it was a republic. In 1925 it became a constitutional monarchy, and now is a virtual dictatorship modeled along Fascist lines.

Is life this good to you?
If not, perhaps it can be. Let a Fidelity Income Plan representative explain why and how

TOO many men and women of moderate income give up too easily, when it comes to getting ahead financially.

And yet, if the money you earn seems to take wings too fast, all you may need is a simple, time-tested financial plan.

The Fidelity Income Plan offers that sort of help. It means setting aside just a very little money regularly—possibly money you now spend without remembering why or where.

For a home of your own and money to spare—for protection against unexpected emergencies—it takes but little sacrifice to build up a useful financial reserve for any purpose under the Fidelity Income Plan.

It's a plan that has been helping people to help themselves for over 28 years.

Be sure to see the Fidelity representative who may call on you to explain the plan. You assume no obligation by listening. Yet it may mark a turning point in your life to learn how a Fidelity Income Plan—suited to your needs and your earnings—may help you.

REDS THREATEN TO CRIPPLE U. S. SHIPPING IN WAR

Program of Sabotage and Strikes Disclosed.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—The American merchant marine, vital in of the navy in wartime, is in ave danger of suffering paralysis the outbreak of hostilities.

Because of the communist element ong the sailors the American mer- ant fleet cannot be depended upon the United States enters a Euro- an war. This is the opinion held authoritative sources close to the aritime situation along the eastern aboard.

Sabotage and strikes in the ship- ng industry are regarded as likely ents following on the heels of a claration of war. Since arms, men, d supplies would be transported in erchant vessels during wartime, the avity of the situation may be read- foreseen.

Key Positions Held by Reds.

Control of the American merchant arine has been a major objective of oscow as far back as 1925. Today y positions in the maritime unions sociated with John L. Lewis' Con- ess of Industrial Organizations are ld by the communists. A fierce ttle is being waged between the ds and anti-Reds among the rank id file membership.

With the rattling of sabers in for- gn capitals and war talk emanating om Washington, the communist ive has redoubled.

New York City, where 20,000 sea- en put into port daily, is the spear- ead. The waterfront bristles with ed propaganda. Agitators, many of em American born but Moscow ained, harangue the sailors at the harves. Communist literature floods afaring haunts and hiring halls.

Sailor Discloses Program.

The program was outlined to this rrespondent by a leader in the na- onal maritime union aboard one of he largest American ocean liners. his sailor said he did not actually old a membership card in the com- unist party but that he was sym- athetic toward its objectives and lt grateful toward the Reds for eir aid in organizing the C. I. O.

When war starts the communists ill attempt to seize the ships in rder to keep them from "the ascists," the sailor said. He could ot name the Fascists, but declared ey existed in this country. Pre- umably the program will not be car- ied out if this country lines up ith soviet Russia.

Special efforts will be directed to- ard gaining control of the oil tank- rs, since all United States warships nd most of the American merchant arine vessels are now oil burners. here are communists among the hipboard radio operators who will e expected to convey messages to he captains in line with the Red trategy.

Tactics Already Used in West.

The communists have already put uch tactics into practice on the Pa- ific coast, where the radical alien, Harry Bridges, is the C. I. O. boss of he longshoremen and warehouse- nen. There have been several cases n which the Bridges men tied up argoes of scrap iron and other raw naterials of war because they were onsigned to Japan and to Gen. Fran- isco Franco's Nationalist forces in Spain.

The program parallels the attempts of the German government during he world war. Bribes were offered ongshoremen on the eastern seacoast n return for scuttling the cargoes in- tended for the allies. In that case the longshoremen turned down the offers and exposed the plot.

The National Maritime union is headed by Joseph Curran, who told the senate commerce committee last year that he was not a communist, but thought the communists had done much "for the workers in the indus- tries of the country."

Grows Through Violence.

Nucleus for the N. M. U. was the group which seceded from the Inter- national Seamen's union, an Ameri- can Federation of Labor affiliate, in 1934. But the maritime union achieved its growth through a series of bloody waterfront strikes in which the com- munists supplied the talent for the rioting and violence.

There was, for example, the case of the Algic in which 14 sailors were convicted of mutiny in Baltimore. The Algic was a government owned ship which met with trouble in July, 1937, when the crew refused to sail unless the officers joined the Engi- neers' Beneficial association and Mas- ters, Mates and Pilots association, affiliated with the C. I. O.

After the vessel finally sailed, the southward voyage was marked by more sitdowns, desertions, one slay- ing, and one drowning in an attempt to jump ship. At Montevideo the crew joined a stevedore strike.

Cite Administration Aid.

American Federation of Labor offi- cials were convinced the C. I. O. communist drive in the blue water industry was aided and abetted at every turn by the Roosevelt admin- istration through the use of the National Labor Relations board. They point to the fact that Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins has refused to deport the alien radical leader, Bridges, as further proof that the present régime is on the side of the C. I. O.

In their drive the communists and the C. I. O. are finding they are sowing seeds in fertile ground, for the sailors are a discontented, roving lot.

However, there is a faction—as in the Automobile Workers' union—at- tempting to stem the tide of Red in- filtration. This group is headed by Jerome King, national secretary treas- urer of the N. M. U.

Other Phases Involved.

There are, of course, other phases to the question of how the merchant marine would carry on in the event of war. Joseph R. Sheehan, president of the American President Lines, pointed out recently the United States handles only 26 per cent of its water borne commerce on the seas.

Sheehan recalled the skyrocketing costs of transportation that followed the withdrawal of foreign tonnage at the outbreak of the world war and described the serious need of a mer- chant auxiliary which is "almost as necessary to national defense as the navy."

"The navy could function to not more than 60 per cent of its efficiency without an adequate merchant marine to handle supplies, ammunition, etc.," said Sheehan.

Japanese ships carry nearly 70 per cent of the commerce of Japan. The Norwegians carry 62 per cent of their own commerce, Great Britain, 60 per cent; Germany, 58 per cent; Italy, 46 per cent, and France, 39 per cent.

Premier Mussolini was reported yesterday to have considered three princes of Savoy, the ruling house of Italy, as candidates for the throne of Albania. WILL COUNTY EX-TREASURER FREED ON BOND

Herbert R. Jones, former treasurer of Will county, who is under indict- ment for forgery in connection with a $600,000 shortage of public funds, was released from the Will county jail yesterday under bond of $12,000. Circuit Judge Claude N. Saum, sit- ting in Joliet, approved reduction of the bond from $15,000 and accepted real estate and securities totaling $30,500 for the reduced bail.

The bond was provided by Jones' wife and her relatives. He has been in jail three weeks. Attorney Robert W. Martin, representing Jones, has requested a change of venue from the court of Circuit Judge Edwin L. Wil- son, but Judge Wilson has not yet acted on the request.

Ben Jones, Herbert's uncle, who was Will county treasurer from 1918 to 1922, also is under indictment on the same charge. He posted bond of $10,000 at the time of his arrest. Her- bert served as county treasurer from 1930 to 1934.

PLEADS GUILTY TO VIOLATION OF WAGE, HOUR LAW

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Nathaniel Breath, vice president of the Picardy Mills, Inc., glove manu- facturers in Brooklyn, pleaded guilty today in federal court to violation of the federal wages and hours law, the first such criminal proceeding in the New York area. Judge Robert A. Inch imposed a fine of $3,000 on each count, but suspended payment of the fines on four counts. Breath promised to raise employés' pay.

Worker for Mayor Hussey in Forest Park Is Slugged

Jack Berman, 31 years old, 219 Cir- cle avenue, Forest Park, was slugged and seriously injured last night by three hoodlums in what police said was a campaign assault. Berman is a worker for Mayor Charles Hussey of Forest Park, who is running for re- election next Tuesday. Berman was on his way home from a Hussey meet- ing when the three men stopped him at Burchardt court and Warren ave- nue in the suburb. They punched and jumped on him, fracturing four ribs and causing a brain concussion.

GREECE DECLARES IT WILL FIGHT TO DEFEND FREEDOM

Premier Says Protective Steps Have Been Taken.

ATHENS, April 10.—(AP)—Premier Gen. John Metaxas, disturbed by the presence of Italian troops on Greece's frontier since the Fascist Good Friday con- quest of Albania, assured the Greek people to- day his govern- ment was deter- mined to defend the nation's in- dependence.

Premier Metaxas.

"In order to remove all dis- quiet from Greek public opinion," a government broadcast mes- sage said, "the Greek govern- ment declares that it has all elements so as to be in a position to give the Greek people assurances that Greek independence and integrity are fully secured. The Greek people may quietly continue peaceful works with full confidence that the government is on vigil for Greece's safety and honor."

Italians Land on Islands.

Informed quarters predicted a Greek newspaper would publish an Italian government statement tomorrow giv- ing express assurances to Greece, and guaranteeing the absolute integrity of Greece's territory.

A source of anxiety for Greece were reports at Piraeus [Athens' seaport] of recent landings of Italian troops and large consignments of munitions on all islands of Italy's Dodecanese group, in the Aegean sea, particularly on Rhodes, the largest.

It was reported there are more than 45,000 Italian soldiers on Rhodes and from 800 to 1,500 men on each of the other twelve islands of the group. There was reported to be special ac- tivity on the island of Leros which was fortified as an air and submarine base after Italy's campaign in Ethi- opia.

Italians occupied the islands dur- ing the Tripolitan war with Turkey and continued to occupy them under the 1912 Lausanne treaty. Turkey ceded the islands to Italy with full rights in August, 1924.

King Zog at Volo.

Albania's refugee royal family was expected tonight to resume its flight to Egypt shortly because it may be- come politically embarrassing if it were to remain in Greece.

King Zog took his family to Volo, on the Aegean coast, on the way to the Greek summer resort, Portaria, where his 23 year old queen, Ger- aldine, can recover from the ordeal of her flight from Tirana, the capital of Albania, two days after the birth of her son.

With the king and queen were Crown Prince Skander, now 5 days old, and the king's three sisters, Princesses Myseyen, Ruhije and Max- hide, who visited America last year.

Queen Geraldine, daughter of an American mother and Hungarian nobleman father, was reported to have suffered intensely from physical and mental shock in the fourteen hour flight in a makeshift ambulance over a tortuous mountain road.

Greek authorities were understood to have agreed to permit the queen to remain in this country until she has recovered sufficiently to travel without endangering her health.

After being reunited with King Zog at Florina, Greece, on Saturday, Queen Geraldine and the baby were placed in a special railroad car at- tached to a regular train and moved to the outskirts of Saloniki yesterday. From there the royal refugees went to Larissa, where they spent last night in the car on a railroad siding.

PRESIDENT BACK; CAPITAL UNEASY AT HIS WAR TALK

Neutrality Hearings in Both Houses.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 10.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt returned to the capital to- day after a twelve day vacation in the south. He found a congress agitated over a new neutrality policy and in- creasingly alarmed concern- ing the Presi- dent's own ex- pressions of fear concerning the possibility of the United States being involved in war.

Cordell Hull.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull conferred with the President immediately upon his arrival. He told newspaper men afterward that the European situation was keeping business men hope- lessly alarmed about the future.

As a result of the tension, Hull declared, capital was leaving Europe by the billions of dollars and pur- chasing power there was drying up rapidly. This has affected the prices of goods bought and sold throughout the world, he said, and all nations were harmed.

Silent on Protest to Italy.

Hull said he had brought the Presi- dent up to date on European develop- ments. He had nothing to say with regard to sending a formal protest to Italy over the seizure of Albania.

Foreign affairs committees in both senate and house will hold hearings tomorrow on neutrality act sugges- tions. Congressional leaders will seek from the President any solution he may have to offer concerning the controversial problem.

There was much private discussion among legislators today about Mr. Roosevelt's ominous words of parting to a gathering at Warm Springs, Ga., yesterday.

"I'll be back in the fall if we don't have a war," the President told a crowd. This remark was given em- phasis by his farewell words to a Warm Springs official in which he promised to return next Thanksgiving "with provisos."

Fear Putting U. S. in War.

The consensus was that these two remarks were uttered deliberately by the President as part of his campaign to convince the nation that the United States cannot help being involved in a foreign conflict.

The house foreign affairs commit- tee, opening hearings tomorrow on neutrality legislation, will listen to a wide variety of suggestions from congressmen who have introduced neutrality bills.

Acting Chairman Sol Bloom [D., N. Y.], has invited Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to testify before the com- mittee when he reaches the United States late this week.

2 Story House Collapses; Thefts of Beams Blamed

An abandoned two story frame house at 1802 Chicago avenue col- lapsed last night. No one was in it at the time. Police said the lower supporting structure had been weak- ened by the theft of planking and beams by neighborhood boys.

63 ACCUSED BOOKIES FREED.

Sixty-three men accused of operating hand- books were freed by Judge Francis Borrelli in the State street court yesterday. He ruled that the police had no authority to make arrests since they had no warants.

WHIPPING URGED TO END ESCAPES AT ST. CHARLES

Former Head of School Tells His Success.

BY GEORGE TAGGE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Maj. William J. Butler of Spring- field, a former superintendent of the St. Charles training school for boys today told how he had ended numer- ous escapes by use of a strap. He testified before the legislative com- mittee investigating conditions in the institution. Butler's blunt advocacy of strapping as a means of controling unruly inmates startled the commit- tee. Some members were shocked. Others said he was not entirely wrong because coddling of criminals has gone too far in Illinois.

"I went to St. Charles school as a trouble shooter in 1927, when escapes were averaging forty to sixty a month," Butler said. "There were 800 boys there instead of 600 as now, and 160 employés instead of about 200. The situation was bad. I de- cided to be firm, fair, and strict."

Few Repeat Offenses.

Butler, a National Guard officer, said that when he took charge of the school he announced to the boys that there would be no more non- sense. He began to give whippings for infractions, using a sole leather thong with a wood handle. Of the 330 boys he whipped once only 39 had to be punished a second time, and only five a third time, he said. After he had whipped 200 he called all of the youths together and asked them whether they wanted to go back to the old system of no physical punishment.

"There was a shout like a football cheer," Butler said. "They yelled, 'Give us our lickings and another chance, Major.'"

Butler said escapes were eliminated and many of the boys' parents com- mended him.

Ousted After a Year.

"How long do you suppose you would last if the women's and reform organizations heard you were whip- ping boys?" asked Senator Peter P. Kielminski [D., Chicago].

"They turned me out after I'd been there one year," Butler said. "In reform institutions where there is no corporal punishment you have brutality—under cover."

When the superintendent is or- dered not to punish the youths he delegates the task to cottage fathers, Butler said. When the cottage fa- thers are ordered to quit they turn the job of preserving order over to bullies, usually the biggest and strongest inmates, he said. In this way seven boys were killed in the fifteen years prior to 1927.

A subcommittee was appointed to investigate this charge of brutality.

Carol Inspects Troops Holding Coveted Areas

BUCHAREST, April 10.—(AP)—King Carol, Crown Prince Mihai and sev- eral cabinet ministers today inspected troops in the Dobruja region, which revisionists of Bulgaria wish to an- nex. The king's visit to the terri- tory, which lies along the Black sea on Bulgaria's northeastern border, fol- lowed an inspection of Rumanian troops on the Hungarian border last week.

Slain Gunman's Widow Held as a Bank Robber

Kansas City, Mo., April 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Stella Dickson, blond widow of Benny Dickson, gunman slain by fed- eral agents in St. Louis, waived re- moval to Sioux Falls, S. D., on a bank robbery charge today. The slight blonde girl, who is 17 years old, ap- peared before United States Commis- sioner Charles H. Thompson with her mother. The young woman is charged with the $17,500 robbery of the Brookings, S. D., branch of the Northwest Security National bank on Oct. 31, 1938. She was unable to raise $25,000 bond and was remanded to federal agents.

Ready Cash in a Savings Account

Ready money in a bank is a source of permanent satisfaction. Its value is increased by its avail- ability; considerable savings can be made by purchases for cash at opportune times. It has proved its worth on countless occasions, lightened burdens in times of emergency and opened doors to worth-while opportunities.

The value of a cash reserve is more and more apparent. Build your savings account in this con- venient bank, whose record of stability extends over seventy-five years from its founding in 1863, and have ready money when you need it.

INTERCHANGE WHIMSICAL

By CALEB

RENEWED proofs that one never escapes his past—that virtue is its own reward—that handsome is as handsome does—and other saws—every now and then assume humorous form in our correspondence. Often, too, a certain historical significance . . . like the letter from Evanston, recently received, enclosing a receipted bill.

The bill in question attested sale of four pairs of men's socks, and payment therefor of one dollar. The date was November 3, 1879, and the establishment concerned was Field, Leiter & Co. The accompanying letter, however, carried a definite tone of complaint, couched in the following terms:

"Relying on the reputation of your concern, I rather feel that I am entitled to some form of adjustment on this purchase, as after daily use for sixty years they are beginning to show some slight indication of wear . . . At the time I purchased these sox, I was assured by your salesman that they would wear me a lifetime; but from present indications your salesman misrepresented their wearing qualities.

"It had been my fond hope," the writer concluded, "to pass these sox on to my sons, and I had so stipulated in my last will and testament—but it looks as though I am going to outlive the sox, and spoil the reputation of Field, Leiter & Company."

In our reply, referring to "the guarantee given by our salesman," we pointed out a distinct fallacy in this complainant's assumptions. "We judge that he" (the salesman) "had in mind the Biblical threescore years and ten; therefore, the sox must last another ten years to fulfill his promise. . . . It is barely possible that they will give this service, in which event you would be entitled to no adjustment.

However, we do not wish to place ourselves in the position of splitting hairs in any controversy so serious as this one, and are therefore sending you four pairs of new sox in size 11. We hope our action will serve to revive your confidence in our merchandise, and to reinstate us in your good opinion." . . .

Whimsical, indubitably. Yet such incidents cause us to reflect on the longevity and worth of that business intangible called Reputation—which, in the case of Field's, is now in its eighty-seventh year of existence.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CHAFED, ANGRY SKIN

REP. SABATH PUT ON FAVORED LIST BY COMMUNISTS

Daily Worker Approves Spending Stand.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 10.—[Special.]—Another Illinois Democrat in the house has been given the semi-official indorsement of the communist party of America, it was disclosed today.

A. J. Sabath.

He is Representative Adolph J. Sabath of the 5th congressional district, Chicago. He joins Representative Kent E. Keller of the 25th district in downstate Illinois as one of the small bloc in congress whose actions have gained the approval of the communist party.

Sabath, who is dean of the house by virtue of more than 32 years of continuous service and who is chairman of the rules committee, won the approbation of the communist party because of his attempts to influence the house in favor of the full 150 million dollar appropriation for the Works Progress administration.

Lauded in Daily Worker.

In articles describing the progress of the WPA appropriation through the house, the Daily Worker, official organ of the communist party, referred to Sabath in laudatory terms for his opposition to the 50 million dollar slash in the WPA fund which was finally given house approval.

Sabath's name was usually linked in the Daily Worker articles with that of Representative Vito Marcantonio, only American Labor party member in the house, who was elected as a member from New York City with communist party support. Sabath and Marcantonio were frequently quoted in the stories as issuing dual statements in regard to the WPA fight, condemning those who favored a lower figure than 150 million dollars.

Adam Lapin, Washington correspondent of the Daily Worker, paid high tribute to Sabath's qualities as a statesman.

"Mr. Sabath has shown the right attitude in the WPA fight," he said. "It is a pity that more members did not join him in the fight against Tory members for an adequate appropriation for the downtrodden of the country. The communist party is always glad to support members of congress who oppose the capitalistic influences in the United States which are seeking to deprive the underprivileged of the right to work."

Keller's Statement Follows Lapin's.

Lapin is the author of a pamphlet, circulated by the communist party, which criticized the Dies committee on ur-American activities. Some time after its publication, Representative Keller inserted in the Congressional Record a statement of criticism of the same committee which bore a striking similarity to the Lapin article. These similarities were called to the attention of the rules committee by Chairman Martin Dies [D., Tex.] of the committee. Dies commented that Keller's statement appeared to have been based upon Lapin's article.

Keller, who describes himself as an "aggressive progressive," denied that he had seen the Lapin pamphlet when he wrote his statement. He declared that the use of similar phrases and the presentation of facts in the same order was a coincidence.

SLAIN BANDIT'S PAL GETS YEAR TO LIFE IN ROBBERY

Lloyd Mickle, 38 years old, a paroled convict from New York, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Denis J. Normoyle of the Criminal court to one year to life in the penitentiary for robbery with a gun.

Mickle and John Boker, also a parolee from New York, were shot by Policeman Anthony Thursen during the robbery of a liquor store at 74 West Madison street March 7. Baker died of his wounds.

Just before the liquor robbery the pair had taken $62 in the robbery of a shoe store at 20 North Dearborn street. They bagged the manager, Wayne C. Jinkins, and trussed him with his own trousers. This was the crime for which Mickle was sentenced. Since 1907 he has served prison terms in Ohio, Missouri, Iowa, and New York, from which he was paroled last Oct. 6.

May Give Up Son

Mrs. Mary Pucinelli, age 23, and son Thomas, 2, in court yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Pucinelli, 23 years old, told Judge Oscar Nelson yesterday that she will have to offer her son Thomas, 2 years old, for adoption unless the boy's father pays something for his support. The father, Felix Pucinelli, a chef, was ordered to pay $5 a week for Thomas' support when Mrs. Pucinelli obtained a divorce a year ago. Her attorney, Samuel Starr, said that Pucinelli has paid nothing and is now $250 in arrears. Judge Nelson ordered that Pucinelli appear before him Friday with an explanation of his failure to pay.

BERGDOLL READY TO RETURN AND SERVE SENTENCE

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Grover C. Bergdoll, convicted world war draft dodger, who has lived in Germany for nineteen years to keep from serving a five year sentence in a United States military prison, wants to come home.

Grover C. Bergdoll.

Mrs. Bertha Bergdoll told her husband's desire when she arrived here today with four of their children. She said Bergdoll will start for the United States as soon as possible, but he wanted her and the children settled before he entered prison, which might complicate their entry.

How Bergdoll may return to the United States is something of a puzzle. The state department contends Bergdoll has lost his citizenship and adds that if he were a citizen he would not need the passport for which his attorney, Harry Weinberger, has applied. If Bergdoll attempts to land, the department said, his case would be up to immigration officials.

Weinberger insists Bergdoll is a citizen by reason of his birth in Philadelphia and that his conviction by a court martial in 1920 for draft evasion does not impair his status as a citizen. Weinberger contends Bergdoll lost only some of his rights of citizenship, such as the right to vote and hold office.

Full citizenship rights have been restored to all other convicted draft dodgers, including Bergdoll's brother, Irwin, by order of President Roosevelt.

Because Bergdoll escaped from two army sergeants and fled from the country after his conviction no amnesty has been granted to him and President Roosevelt has refused repeatedly in the last five years to grant pardon pleas made by Bergdoll's wife and mother, Mrs. Emma Bergdoll.

Bergdoll's wife said today she will remain in the United States because they want their English speaking children to grow up to be Americans. She was eager to get to Philadelphia where their fifth and youngest child has been living with Mrs. Bergdoll's sister.

Mrs. Bergdoll would not talk about her native Germany and said her husband would have something to say upon his return.

Isn't it time to Kick Over the Traces?

ACCORDING TO THE NEWSPAPERS, it's been a long, tough winter. Blizzards . . . the budget . . . politics . . . taxes . . . and the Flu.

But, hang it all, man—your Tax Report is in . . . and it's Spring outside!

In just 15 minutes you can whisk every worry from your mind.

Just sit in this new Nash. It has more fun and excitement and spring madness packed into its singing lines than you've felt in your hands for years.

Feel that cushion flatten out behind you as you shift into high! There's a special kind of engine up in front that knows your every whim—can idle you silently down a moonlit road—or whisk you to a dot on the skyline. Then wait—for suddenly a *Fourth Speed Forward sends you flashing into a new range of performance you never felt before!

You can't keep it from passing others on the road, or showing off in the hills!

And when you ride, listen. Listen to silence. No tell-tale vibration or unpleasant wind-whine disturbs your newfound peace of mind. Only when you look outside do you know how fast you're going, how rough the road is.

Yes—go ahead . . . take a deep breath! For even the air is different in a Nash . . . fresh as an ocean breeze, filtered of road dust . . . and, thanks to the "Weather Eye"*, you'll never have to drive in a topcoat again.

Just let those miles keep rippling off behind your wheels . . . until you know what you felt like back in those carefree days of '29!

Then you'll realize why we had to put a full-size convertible bed inside . . . for once you start driving a Nash, you never know when to stop!

• • •

Yes . . . there ought to be a charge for driving a new Nash, because it makes you feel so good.

But this experience is yours to command, at any Nash showroom.

And it can be yours every day in your life, for the cost of a commonplace car!

Fact is, there are ten Nash models priced next to the lowest . . . holders of the Gilmore-Yosemite economy record in their class, with 21.25 miles to the gallon—and built the usual Nash way to go and go and GO!

Come on down . . . and get a new look at life through a Nash windshield.

STATE FUNERAL FOR LEWIS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Services to Be Conducted in Senate Chamber.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 10.—[Special.]—A state funeral will be held in the chamber of the United States senate at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday for Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois.

Senator Lewis died last night of coronary thrombosis following an attack of asthma. His death occurred in Garfield hospital a few hours after his return to Washington from Chicago.

The senate tomorrow will adopt a resolution by Senator Scott W. Lucas [D., Ill.] inviting President Roosevelt, members of the cabinet, the Supreme court, members of the house, the diplomatic corps, and ranking officers of the army, navy, and marine corps to the funeral. The White House announced, however, that Mr. Roosevelt would not attend.

No White House Explanation.

The White House did not explain why Mr. Roosevelt would not be present at the funeral of one of his most vigorous defenders. With the exception of a few differences on foreign policy, Senator Lewis was a consistent supporter of the President.

Mr. Roosevelt went to Illinois to attend the funeral of Speaker Henry T. Rainey and to Tennessee to attend the funeral of Speaker Joseph W. Byrnes. He attended the state funeral of Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, who, as Democratic leader, literally sacrificed his life in a futile fight for the court packing bill. Mr. Roosevelt, however, did not go to the Robinson funeral and burial in Arkansas.

It was announced that all members of the Supreme court, with the possible exception of Chief Justice Hughes, who is recovering from an illness, would attend Senator Lewis' funeral.

Arlington Burial Abandoned.

Although in giving him a state funeral the senate will accord Senator Lewis an honor bestowed only a few times in its history, one of his last wishes could not be fulfilled. That was to be buried in Arlington National cemetery.

First the war department cited regulations which made Senator Lewis ineligible for burial in Arlington, although he served in the Spanish-American war with the rank of colonel. His service was with the National Guard from the state of Washington, and he was never mustered into the regular army.

Arrangements were being made to pass a joint resolution authorizing his burial in Arlington and this could have been done without objection, but it was learned that such a plan would conflict with another wish expressed by Senator Lewis. According to Mrs. Lewis, he did not want to be buried below the ground and there is no mausoleum in Arlington. The place of burial had not been decided tonight, but it will be in a private mausoleum in Washington or in nearby Virginia, the state of Senator Lewis' birth.

Senate in Adjournment.

The senate adjourned without transacting any business today as a mark of respect to Senator Lewis. Vice President John N. Garner appointed a committee of sixteen senators, with Senator Lucas as chairman, to make arrangements for the state funeral and to represent the senate at the burial service.

Senator Lucas, in a brief tribute at today's session, praised his departed colleague as "a citizen, soldier, and statesman," who had "devoted his life to promoting the basic and fundamental principles of this republic."

Senator Alben W. Barkley [D., Ky.], the Democratic leader, said it would be impossible to replace Lewis in the senate.

Barkley recalled that Senator Lewis, who was the Democratic whip, was the last senator to be elected by the Illinois legislature [1912] before the 17th amendment, providing for popular senatorial elections, became effective.

G. O. P. SELECTS A. M. CRAMPTON FOR HIGH COURT

Quincy, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Judge Albert M. Crampton of the city court in Moline was nominated this afternoon as the Republican candidate for the 4th district Supreme court seat from which Justice Warren H. Orr is retiring.

Albert M. Crampton.

The nomination was made without opposition on the first ballot at a convention of delegates from the fourteen county districts here. Party harmony was stressed throughout the meeting, which was attended by about 500 delegates and party followers.

Judge Crampton is 39 years old and is the father of four children. Admitted to the bar in 1923, he was first elected to the Moline city bench in 1931 and was reëlected in 1937. The young judge will be opposed by a Democratic candidate, to be nominated Wednesday, at the June 5 judicial elections.

Beam Named to Represent City at Lewis' Funeral

Congressman Harry P. Beam [D., Ill.] was appointed yesterday by Mayor Edward J. Kelly to represent the city of Chicago at funeral services in Washington tomorrow for Senator James Hamilton Lewis. The mayor explained that neither he nor the aldermen will be able to attend the services because inauguration ceremonies for the newly elected city officials are to be held tomorrow.

5 G. O. P. JUDGES UPSET PLANS BY COALITION PLEA

Confuse Party Leaders by Joint Agreement.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Five Republican judges of the Superior court yesterday confused the leaders of the Republican county organization by declaring that in the June election they hope for coalition, a program that would place them in the Democratic column.

With only one negative vote, the Republican county central committee last Thursday voted against coalition and in favor of putting up a complete Republican ticket. The sentiment expressed was strongly in favor of giving the voters a choice between two complete slates instead of bringing about the election of all the nominees on one slate through a bipartisan agreement.

Eight Judges Questioned.

Under further instructions from the committee, Chairman Edward F. Moore sent a letter to each of the eight Republicans now on the Circuit bench whose terms expire this year. The letter was sent to find out how many of the eight would run on a Republican ticket if one is put up.

Five of the eight judges met yesterday in the chambers of Judge David F. Matchett in the Appellate court. Those present were Judge Matchett and Judges William V. Brothers, Hugo M. Friend, Stanley H. Klarkowski, and Kickham Scanlan. Their meeting was intended to be secret, but it became known that as a group they had authorized Judge Matchett to write a joint reply to Chairman Moore.

The text of the letter, which was mailed instead of being sent by messenger, was not made public.

Five Urge Coalition.

The five judges, it was said, told Chairman Moore that they trust that the Republican organization will join in a coalition to secure retention of meritorious sitting judges without regard to their party affiliation.

The three sitting judges who did not attend the conference were Judges Michael Feinberg, George Fred Rush, and Daniel P. Trude. Judge Feinberg and Judge Trude had jury cases which held them in their courtrooms.

It has been rumored that all eight Republicans would like to avoid the strain of a contested campaign and particularly the campaign assessments that would come out of their own pockets. Since the salary of the office for six years is $90,000, assessments in the past have averaged about $3,500. Other expenses would raise the cost of a contested campaign to between $5,000 and $10,000 for each candidate.

Slate Committee Meets.

The county judicial convention, which consists of the members of the county central committee, recessed last Thursday until 3 p. m. today to give a slate committee an opportunity to look over the material available for a straight Republican ticket. That committee was in session at the La Salle hotel at the same time the five judges were in conference in Judge Matchett's chambers.

Lacking the information in the Matchett letter, the slate committee confined its actual business to the preparation of a list of outstanding lawyers who have expressed a willingness to run on a Republican ticket. The committee stopped there because, although the sentiment apparently favored the separate action program, it was the opinion that the convention will have to take another recess to await the action of the Democratic convention.

If all eight Republican incumbents accept nomination at the hands of the Democrats, the Republicans will face the new question whether they will nominate only twelve candidates for the twenty Circuit court places to be filled in June. In addition to those twenty, there are five vacancies on the Superior bench and there are rumors that the Democratic organization plans to try to hurry a bill through the legislature creating six more judgeships in the Superior court.

CROWD CHEERS HORNER RETURN TO SPRINGFIELD

Governor Lauds Stelle and Other Aids.

BY PERCY WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Gov. Henry Horner, with Lieut. Gov. John Stelle at his side, rode through a cheering crowd to the executive mansion tonight, after an absence of more than four months.

Springfield turned to welcome the governor when he arrived by train from Chicago. The crowd packed close to the car door and applauded as the governor, thin from his long illness but bright eyed, entered his automobile.

Clasps Many Hands.

The car was parked close to the train, but the governor must have clasped fifty hands during his short journey to it. Waiting for him in the automobile were Stelle, F. Lynden Smith, director of public works, and Arthur P. O'Brien, his secretary. The governor, his nurse, Miss Anne Lou Boozer, and his traveling secretary, John T. Casey, completed the party.

The car moved slowly through the crowd to the street and thence to the mansion where an informal reception was held. First to greet him was his colored butler, Clarence. Barking and jumping behind Clarence was "Bobbie," the governor's lively little fox terrier.

Poses for Pictures.

In a line inside the mansion door was the Horner cabinet. He greeted each department head and then retired to his study where he posed for photographs with Mr. Stelle.

"Every one has done an excellent job during my absence," the governor said, "particularly Lieut. Gov. Stelle and the other state officials. They acted as I would have had I been here. I'm tremendously grateful.

The governor went early to bed. He has orders to work on official matters only one hour each day. As hi strain bore him to Springfield and legislators stopped by his compartment to shake hands the governor said he intended to obey that order.

Three Convicted of Vote Frauds in 1937 Enter Jail

Three election officials of the 47th precinct of the 20th ward yesterday began serving sentences in the County jail after carrying futile appeals to the Illinois Supreme court. The men were sentenced in July, 1937, by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki for vote frauds. They are Max Freedman, 1318 Hyde Park boulevard, and Jack Werner, 1821 South Harding avenue, who were sentenced to one year each, and Henry Lieberman, 807 Maxwell street, who got six months.

LEAP FROM Y. M. C. A. HELD SUICIDAL.

A coroner's jury yesterday found that Frank W. Swift, 48 years old, who jumped to his death Saturday from the fifth floor of the Y. M. C. A. at 1000 Grove street, Evanston, had committed suicide while temporarily insane.

EVANSTON HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS LEARN TO WALK; IT ISN'T CHILD'S PLAY

Every one can walk, sit down, and put on a coat. But 150 girls of the home economics classes at the Evanston Township High school learned yesterday how to do all those things charmingly.

Miss Martha Jackson of the Vera Jane School of Fashion Modeling put a bowl on the girls' heads and taught them to walk with such poise that it wouldn't fall off. She showed them how to sit down without looking pigeon-toed. When she left, they knew that the way to put on a coat is to place an arm in a sleeve, pull that side of the coat up as it's to be worn, and then attend to the other side, rather than to stick both arms in at once and raise them.

For graceful hands, she recommended practicing with a pencil between the fingers. Miss Madeline Brumbaugh, head of the home economics department, and Instructor Molly Pritchard said the training was part of the course.

$6,000,000 BONDS ASKED FOR MORE PARK PROJECTS

A bill authorizing the Chicago park district to issue $6,000,000 bonds for improvements and new small park development will be introduced in the senate in Springfield today. Senator Harold G. Ward said he would present the measure at the request of Robert J. Dunn, park board president.

Dunham said the need for more small parks was reported last year by a citizens' committee. The committee also recommended that the park shore line should be improved. In addition, he said, the WPA projects now under way in the parks will cease if the bond issue is not granted. There are 20,500 WPA workers on the jobs.

Dunham said the bond issue would not increase the tax rate because $6,000,000 in outstanding bonds were retired March 1 and $6,000,000 more will be retired next March.

Gibson City, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—John N. Taener, 90 years old, died here last night.

HORNER CONFERS WITH MAYOR ON RELIEF FINANCES

Gov. Horner, Mayor Kelly, and State Senator Harold G. Ward, the mayor's legislative spokesman, conferred on the problem of Chicago relief finances yesterday in the Congress hotel.

"The governor said he will do anything he can to help," said Mayor Kelly after the meeting.

Today Senator Ward will confer in Springfield with Samuel A. Nudelman, state director of finance, on details of bills to be introduced in the legislature. A measure to provide an additional $900,000 of state money for Chicago relief during May and June will be the first to be considered, Ward said. Present legislation provides $3,900,000 for April, but only $3,000,000 a month for May and June.

U. S. OPENS TRIAL OF PARKER, AID IN FAKE MONEY CASE

Bares Map Locating Cache of Bogus Bills.

Opening statements were made to a jury in Judge Charles E. Woodward's federal court yesterday in the trial of Frank J. Parker, airplane bootlegger, and August Englehardt. They are charged with possessing counterfeit money. Testimony will start today and will concern the $17,880 of bogus money found buried in three fruit jars on the Tam O'Shanter golf course, near Niles.

Frank J. Parker.

Attorney A. Bradley Eben, for the government, told the jury that Parker and Englehardt, who was in a federal prison in California when indicted and returned to Chicago a week ago for trial, had conspired to possess, sell, and exchange a large quantity of counterfeit money. Early in 1938, the prosecutor said, Englehardt wrote to Parker, telling him of the burial place of the bogus money and inclosing a map showing where to dig.

Mr. Eben said federal agents learned of the location of the fake money from an informer and then arrested Parker. This occurred only a few weeks after Parker and George [Bugs] Moran, old time gang leader, were acquitted in a separate case in a state Criminal court of a charge of plotting to counterfeit and pass a half million dollars worth of American Express money orders.

The prosecutor said that Parker had obtained $100,000 in counterfeit bills from "Count" Victor Lustig, who is now serving twenty years in Alcatraz prison for counterfeiting. Lustig turned out more than $2,000,000 in twenty dollar bills. A part of that batch is still missing, it was said.

Attorney James Burke, representing Parker, told the jury neither Parker nor Englehardt had anything to do with the counterfeit money. He said Parker lives at 1618 Jonquil terrace, and that Englehardt used to be his janitor. Parker owns the building, he said, and is engaged in the brewing and mining business.

VOTE TO INDICT SUMMIT BRIDE AS EMBEZZLER

Former Village Treasury Clerk to Give Up.

A young bride was reported to have been named yesterday by the grand jury in true bills charging embezzlement of $1,738 from the village of Summit. She formerly was employed as a clerk in the village treasurer's office. The young woman is Mrs. Josephine Hodelka Nylen, 26 years old, of 7526 West 59th street, Summit. She was married recently.

Her attorney, James M. Burke, said yesterday he would surrender Mrs. Nylen as soon as he could arrange bond. She has been missing for a month. Burke said Mrs. Nylen had told him she knew nothing of any shortage in village accounts.

Find Deficit of $11,748.

Last December a deficit of $11,748 was discovered when the First National Bank of Lemont sought unsuccessfully to redeem several thousand dollars' worth of special assessment bonds. Mrs. Nylen had been clerk for Charles L. Jenesen, the village treasurer, from 1933 until June, 1937, when a new treasurer was elected. Jenesen, in testimony yesterday before the grand jury, said that Mrs. Nylen was the sole collector for his office.

According to Assistant State's Attorney Alex Napoli, two true bills accuse Mrs. Nylen of the specific embezzlement of a check for $722 and two others amounting to $1,016.

Involves Two Church Checks.

John Burns, auditor for the state's attorney's office, told the jury that the first check was forwarded from the office of County Clerk Michael J. Flynn for the redemption of special assessments.

The other checks were sent by the Catholic bishop of Chicago to cover assessments against two Summit churches, St. Joseph's and St. Blase's.

Burns said the checks were deposited in the bank, but were not credited on the proper assessments. Instead they were credited against a shortage on other assessments. Prosecutor Napoli charged the shortage occurred when Mrs. Nylen pocketed collections which were made in cash.

Gets 60 Days for Attempt to Mulct Insurance Man

Morton Ullery, 33 years old, was sentenced yesterday to sixty days in the county jail by Judge James J. Wilkerson of the United States District court. Ullery, who formerly lived in Washington, D. C., pleaded guilty to the attempted extortion of a former employer, Truman Redfield, vice president of the Mutual Benefit Health and Accident association, 220 South State street.

WITNESS SOUGHT; WOMAN'S DEATH STILL MYSTERY

Police yesterday sought a mysterious witness who may be able to solve the strange death of Mrs. Frieda Procunier, 53 years old, 1020 Wellington avenue. Her bruised body was found Sunday morning at the bottom of a stairway at 3010 Sheffield avenue.

Police believe Mrs. Procunier was killed when she fell down the stairs during a struggle with a thief who stole her purse. The purse was found yesterday morning on the roof of a shed behind 1214 Oakdale avenue.

Her son, Walter, 28 years old, 9016 Escanaba avenue, had been drinking with his mother and left a tavern with her shortly before she was killed.

Soon afterward he was found in her home. There were bloodstains on his clothing. Police said he was too drunk to give an account of what had happened. He will be held for the inquest tomorrow.

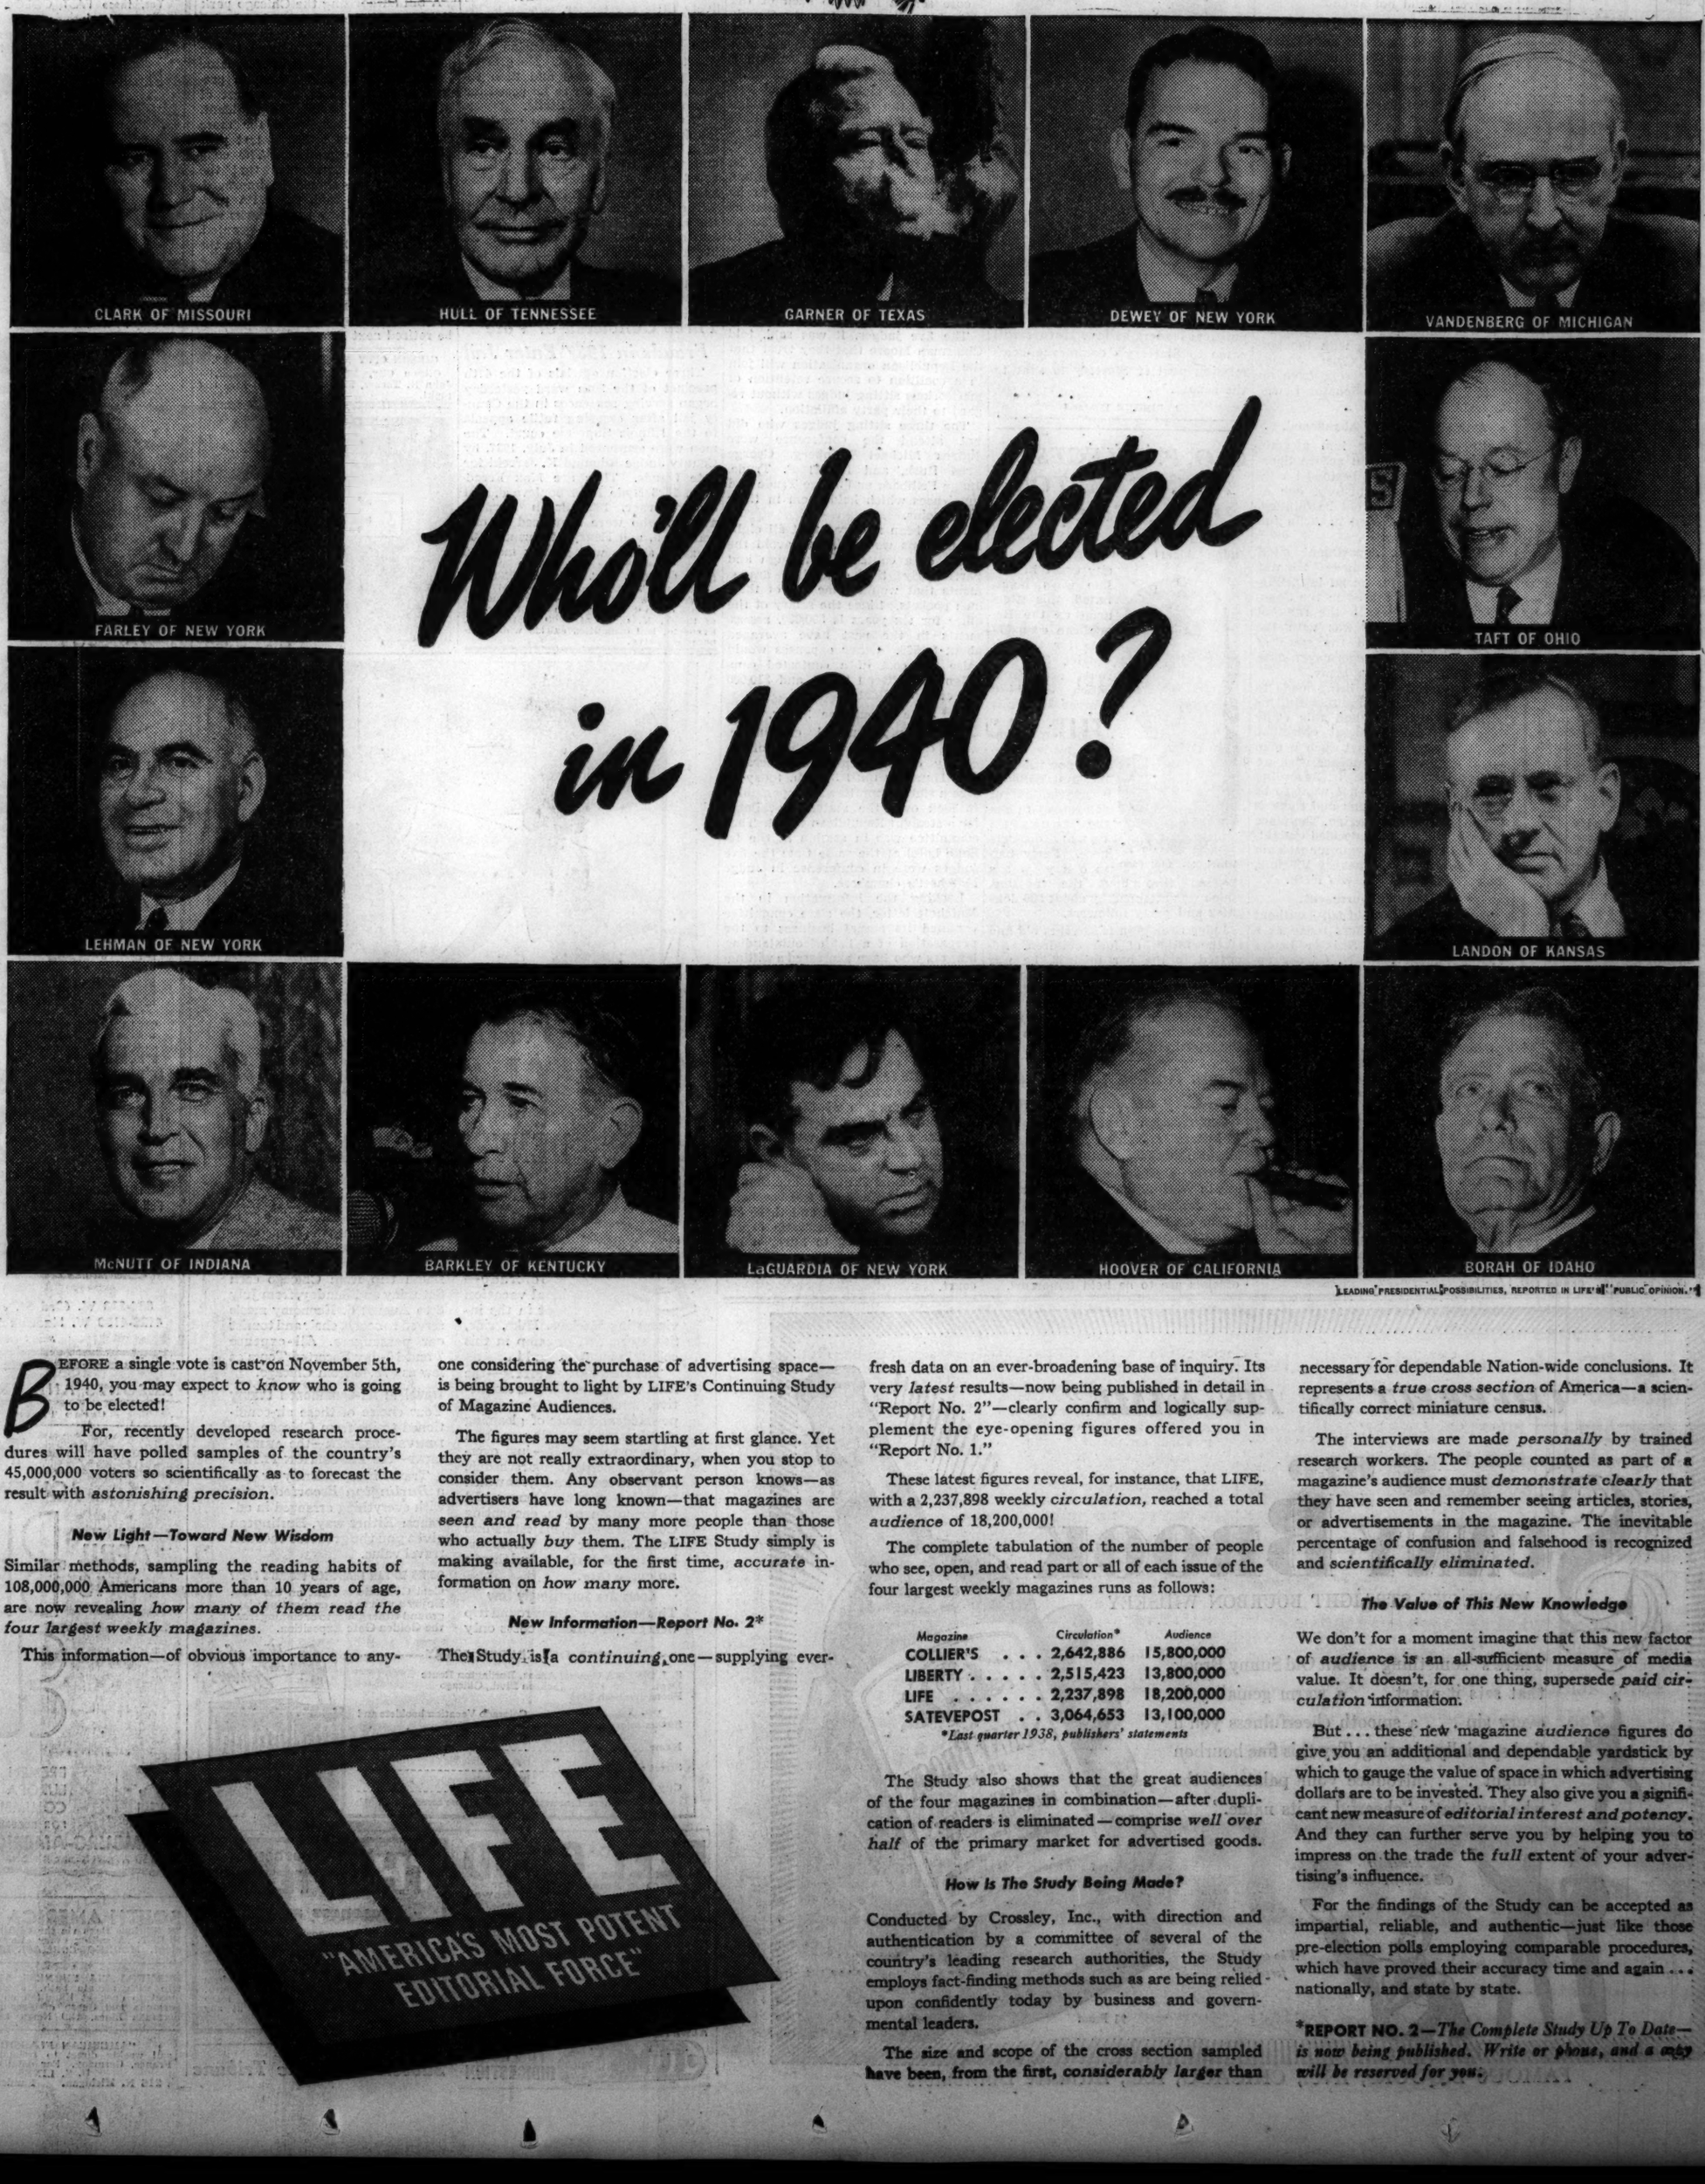
ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE



BEFORE a single vote is cast on November 5th, 1940, you may expect to know who is going to be elected!

For, recently developed research procedures will have polled samples of the country's 45,000,000 voters so scientifically as to forecast the result with astonishing precision.

New Light—Toward New Wisdom

Similar methods, sampling the reading habits of 108,000,000 Americans more than 10 years of age, are now revealing how many of them read the four largest weekly magazines.

This information—of obvious importance to anyone considering the purchase of advertising space—is being brought to light by LIFE's Continuing Study of Magazine Audiences.

The figures may seem startling at first glance. Yet they are not really extraordinary, when you stop to consider them. Any observant person knows—as advertisers have long known—that magazines are seen and read by many more people than those who actually buy them. The LIFE Study simply is making available, for the first time, accurate information on how many more.

New Information—Report No. 2*

The Study is a continuing one—supplying ever-fresh data on an ever-broadening base of inquiry. Its very latest results—now being published in detail in "Report No. 2"—clearly confirm and logically supplement the eye-opening figures offered you in "Report No. 1."

These latest figures reveal, for instance, that LIFE, with a 2,237,898 weekly circulation, reached a total audience of 18,200,000!

The complete tabulation of the number of people who see, open, and read part or all of each issue of the four largest weekly magazines runs as follows:

Magazine	Circulation*	Audience
COLLIER'S	2,642,886	15,800,000
LIBERTY	2,515,423	13,800,000
LIFE	2,237,898	18,200,000
SATEVEPOST	3,064,653	13,100,000

*Last quarter 1938, publishers' statements

The Study also shows that the great audiences of the four magazines in combination—after duplication of readers is eliminated—comprise well over half of the primary market for advertised goods.

How Is The Study Being Made?

Conducted by Crossley, Inc., with direction and authentication by a committee of several of the country's leading research authorities, the Study employs fact-finding methods such as are being relied upon confidently today by business and governmental leaders.

The size and scope of the cross section sampled have been, from the first, considerably larger than necessary for dependable Nation-wide conclusions. It represents a true cross section of America—a scientifically correct miniature census.

The interviews are made personally by trained research workers. The people counted as part of a magazine's audience must demonstrate clearly that they have seen and remember seeing articles, stories, or advertisements in the magazine. The inevitable percentage of confusion and falsehood is recognized and scientifically eliminated.

The Value of This New Knowledge

We don't for a moment imagine that this new factor of audience is an all-sufficient measure of media value. It doesn't, for one thing, supersede paid circulation information.

But . . . these new magazine audience figures do give you an additional and dependable yardstick by which to gauge the value of space in which advertising dollars are to be invested. They also give you a significant new measure of editorial interest and potency. And they can further serve you by helping you to impress on the trade the full extent of your advertising's influence.

For the findings of the Study can be accepted as impartial, reliable, and authentic—just like those pre-election polls employing comparable procedures, which have proved their accuracy time and again . . . nationally, and state by state.

REPORT NO. 2—The Complete Study Up To Date—is now being published. Write or phone, and a copy will be reserved for you.

TORRIO AND AIDS TO LEARN THEIR FATE TOMORROW

Change Pleas to Guilty in U. S. Income Tax Trial.

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Johnny Torrio, former partner of Al Capone and an underworld power for three decades, will be sentenced with two associates Wednesday on charges of evading federal income tax payments.

Johnny Torrio.

Trial of the three in federal court here came to an abrupt end today when they changed their pleas to guilty. Two others on trial with them, both regarded as minor figures, were released on bail pending a retrial.

Torrio and his two co-defendants face sentences of 12 years and total fines of $30,000 each on their pleas of guilty. The three counts in the indictment charged a conspiracy to evade income tax payments of $86,000 for the years 1933, 1934, and 1935. Sentence will be passed by Judge John W. Clancy, who presided at the trial.

Explains Change in Plea.

As he was led from the courtroom by United States marshals, Torrio was asked why he changed his plea to guilty.

"Mrs. Torrio told me to do it," said Torrio politely, with a grin.

"Perhaps because the evidence was getting a bit heavy?" it was suggested.

"Mrs. Torrio told me to do it," he repeated, "but she told me not to talk about it. You can say that I'm going to be a good boy from now on."

The defendants who entered the plea with Torrio were William Slockbower, his brother-in-law, and James La Penna. The others were Louis V. La Cava, former Torrio-Capone lieutenant, and John D'Agostina of Atlantic City.

Jury for Conviction.

After the jury had been excused the seven men and five women who comprised it took an informal poll and voted unanimously for the conviction of all five defendants on the basis of the evidence adduced by Federal Prosecutor Seymour Klein and his associates. It had been predicted the trial, which was in its tenth day, would continue for at least another month. The government had called only thirty-four of its seventy-five witnesses.

When court convened it was evident something unusual was impending. Max D. Steuer, counsel for Torrio, Slockbower, and La Cava, did not appear. Judge Clancy called the court to order and Henry Klein, assistant defense attorney, stepped forward.

"Your honor, at this time the defendants, John Torrio and William Slockbower, wish to withdraw their plea of not guilty and enter a plea of guilty," he announced.

A murmur swept the court room. The defendants sat moodily expressionless.

Judge Questions Trio.

Counsel for La Penna then entered a plea of guilty for his client and Judge Clancy directed the three men to come before the bench. He asked them individually if they desired to enter the pleas. Torrio, a man greatly feared in the underworld of his day, lowered his head and whispered inaudibly. The voices of the others were stronger.

Then a mistrial was declared. The defendants quickly left the court room by a rear entrance. Those who pleaded guilty will remain in cells until they are returned for sentencing.

Prosecutor Klein, who had worked on the case for three years with William Makepeace, his principal assistant, said that the pleas spoke for themselves.

Torrio, by his plea, was brought to book on the same charge that cut short the criminal career of Al Capone and sent him to Alcatraz.

Once Power in Chicago.

Torrio is generally credited with taking Capone to Chicago, where Capone split with him to organize his own criminal enterprises. The battles they waged formed a bloody page in the history of Cook county until Capone got the upper hand and ran his erstwhile sponsor out of Chicago.

The government charged that Torrio reported a gross income of $18,000 and paid a tax of $1,013 for 1933, when his income was $145,262 and the amount of his payment should have been $51,865. The amounts he dodged for the ensuing two years brought the total to $86,000, it was charged. Once before, when he owed $300,000, he was permitted to settle with the treasury department by paying $100,000. However, when that deal came under investigation, the agent who had approved it, William T. Boyd, committed suicide.

The government's contention at the trial was that Torrio derived his income in the years cited primarily from bootlegging and then sought to conceal his investments and stock holdings through false entries in the books of Prendergast-Davies, Ltd., a liquor distributing concern in which he had a heavy interest. The other defendants were accused of conspiring with him to that end.

Park Stolen Car in Wrong Place

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

These three young men had no difficulty in stealing a car in Chicago, but they were arrested in Milwaukee when they parked it in a no parking zone—in front of the juvenile detention home there. Left to right, they are James J. Anton, Thomas Wilson, and John Foy.

Run Low on Gas

Stealing the automobile was easy, James Anton and his two pals assured Lieut. John Kelly, head of the state's attorney's office stolen auto detail. The trouble started when they parked it.

The three young men were turned over yesterday to Lieut. Kelly by the Milwaukee police, who arrested them last Friday as they were on their way to Superior, Wis., in a stolen car. They are Anton, 24 years old, who lives at 11127 Langley avenue; Thomas Wilson, 18, of 11104 South State street, and John Foy, 19, of 2 East 114th place.

By the time they reached Milwaukee the gasoline was almost gone. For twenty minutes they drove around without finding a parking spot. Then Anton saw a fine one in front of a big building.

An hour later they returned to the car. They—but let them tell their own story: "There were cops all around it," they told Lieut. Kelly. "We had left the car in a "no parking" zone right in front of the juvenile detention home."

AWAIT SCHOOL VOTE CANVASS IN MERRIAM RACE

The personnel of the elementary school board in district No. 75, Evanston, will not be decided until a canvass of last Saturday's votes is completed. One hundred and twenty-four persons wrote in the name of Thornton W. Merriam, director of religious education at Northwestern university, in various fashions. Some left out his middle initial, others prefixed it with the title of "Dr.," many used his first two initials, and some misspelled his name, one making it "Morrison."

Three members of the board have been declared elected. They are Hugh W. McCulloch, 736 votes, president; Dr. Marcus Hobart, 523, and Hugh W. MacLean, 481. The question remaining is whether Merriam, with 445 votes allowed him and 124 disqualified, or Maurice Webster, 462, gets the remaining seat. All the candidates but Merriam were on a coalition caucus slate. Merriam was run on a write-in campaign by the Council for Democratic Action.

A canvass of the votes will be held by the old school board under direction of McCulloch.

FINE STRIKE PICKET ANNOYER.

Nels Severton, 33 years old, who was arrested Sunday for annoying union pickets in front of a tavern at 4003 Armitage avenue, was fined $1 and $2 costs yesterday by Judge LeRoy Hackett of the Shakespeare avenue court. Severton lives at 1848 North Springfield avenue.

JUDGE INDICTED IN BROOKLYN ON BRIBERY CHARGE

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—George W. Martin, senior judge of the Kings county court where he has presided for 19 years, was indicted today on charges of bribery and accepting an unlawful fee of $1,000 for dismissing an abortion charge against a Brooklyn physician, two nurses, and the physician's housekeeper.

The indictment, containing two felony counts, was handed up by the extraordinary grand jury that has been investigating charges of official corruption and the administration of criminal justice in Brooklyn since Nov. 18, under the guidance of John Harlan Amen, special assistant attorney general.

Judge Martin has been prominent in Brooklyn Democratic circles for a number of years.

MARION BARD'S WEDDING BARED BY DIVORCE SUIT

Adultery Is Charged by Highland Park Wife.

The secret marriage of Miss Marion Bard, 22 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis N. Bard of Highland Park, was disclosed yesterday through a divorce suit filed in Lake county Circuit court. The suit, which charges her husband, James H. McMahon Jr., with adultery, was filed Saturday after the official closing hour of the Lake county clerk's office.

Mr. Bard is the president of the Barco Manufacturing company, 1801 Winnemac avenue, maker of railway supplies. The Bards announced the engagement of their daughter to young McMahon at a party in their home shortly after midnight on Jan. 1, 1938.

Married in November, 1938.

No date was set for the wedding and Highland Park residents were unaware last night that there had been one. Mrs. McMahon's bill, however, said that she married McMahon in Jeffersonville, Ind., on Nov. 4, 1938, and lived with him as his wife until last Jan. 27.

The divorce bill was prepared by Attorney E. H. Cassels of Chicago and was mailed to Waukegan. A Waukegan attorney filed the bill some time after noon Saturday.

Charged with Infidelity.

The bill stated that McMahon committed adultery with an unnamed woman in Chicago on March 25 and again on March 30. Mrs. McMahon, according to the bill, knows of various other times when her husband was guilty of infidelity.

Mrs. Bard said her daughter had returned to the family home at 459 Egandale road, Highland Park, but that she has been away for the last few days. Mrs. Bard added that McMahon is a salesman for a Chicago concern, but that she did not know his address. He is the son of Mrs. J. H. McMahon of Bronxville, N. Y.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S EUROPEAN FRONT.

The landing of Italian soldiers on Albanian soil was followed almost immediately by an official blast from the American state department. Mr. Hull issued a statement, with the approval of Mr. Roosevelt, declaring that the forceful and violent invasion of Albania was an additional threat to the peace of the world. Mr. Roosevelt, then at Warm Springs, indorsed the statement and said that it spoke for itself. Thus our government demonstrates to the people of the country that it will permit no episode in Europe to go unnoticed and will neglect no opportunity to take a hand in the rapidly developing troubles of a continent of marching men.

As usual, the United States government, which is supposed to be studying its neutrality carefully, is out in front of Great Britain and France in its condemnation of the practices of the dictator states. Apparently all Great Britain did at the time was to ask Mussolini if the action in Albania could be considered a violation of the Italo-British agreement regarding the status quo in the Mediterranean. Italy has made no agreement with the United States, consequently none was broken. The development in Albania is as far removed from American concern as anything possibly could be. No one could perceive how the tightening of an Italian protectorate over this little kingdom could in any way jeopardize the interests of the United States even if it did cause the flight of the queen whose mother was an American.

It cannot fail to alarm peaceable Americans to discover that their government rushes to the front of every conflict in Europe. At Mr. Roosevelt's conference with the senate military affairs committee he revealed that he regards himself as the destined savior of European civilization. He has appeared intolerant of congressional precautions and prudence. He rejects criticism as unjustifiable interference with the great work he has been called upon to accomplish for the human race.

These are disturbing symptoms. They make remarkably futile the confused efforts of congress to find a formula of neutrality which will keep the United States out of the general war believed to be impending. If Mr. Roosevelt is determined to have a part in it the neutrality legislation is a farce, and the consequence of American policy will be a tragedy. Public opinion will be forced to conclude that Mr. Roosevelt is not reluctant to send an American army again to Europe, otherwise he would not continually break down the conventions of neutrality and would not so consistently take a high hand in European controversies which do not concern this country. This would be explainable if, as alleged, he has reached a definite agreement with France and Great Britain and has assured them that they may again rely on American aid when they go to war.

Such an assurance in itself might do a great deal to bring about a war which otherwise Great Britain and France would be unwilling to undertake. The official American statements give great encouragement to the French and British, and seem to be calculated to prepare the American people for an acceptance of participation in the war if it comes. Americans are continually warned by their government that they will be involved in the struggle. As propaganda, if it is such, it is leading people to expect what Mr. Roosevelt may have prepared for them, thus wearing down their resistance and disciplining them for what they are to regard as inevitable. The procedure is amazing and shocking.

Ordinarily, a government mindful of its trusteeship and its responsibilities endeavors conscientiously to avoid what is avoidable and to preserve the people from the horrors of conflicts they need not enter. Such is the highest duty of a government, but Mr. Roosevelt pursues the opposite course. He seems to be determined to throw American armies into Europe, Africa, and Asia.

It may be that Mr. Roosevelt would see in a war the certainty of his own renomination for a third term. He might also see in it the opportunity to establish under war mobilization the full measure of autocratic control of the nation's productivity which would realize his new order of society and give him the remade United States of America, in which democracy would completely disappear. This would be the realization of an ambition often expressed, and it cannot be excluded from Mr. Roosevelt's private calculations. The world is dealing with strange men these days, and Americans cannot be certain that there is not one in the White House.

ANOTHER COURT APPOINTEE.

Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, having been appointed a judge of a United States District court, took his departure from the house of representatives as an occasion for making the kind of a speech that might have been expected of him. The congressman was never conventional in his ideas about money, government finance, or economics.

"The amount of the debt owed by the government need cause no concern," said he, "because there is an asset for every liability." The country, by his reasoning, could spend without limit in excess of revenues, but no one would be the worse off because the people own the debt which the government owed. He did not explain what went wrong in the German, Italian, French, and Austrian inflations. In the end the governments in each of these countries owed trillions, but the people who possessed the instruments of debt owned only worthless pieces of paper.

The congressman has been most widely celebrated as the advocate of the rubber dollar. As regularly as congress met, Goldsborough would appear with a bill directing the treasury to change the size of the dollar each month, according to an index of commodity prices. And on every possible occasion he would make a speech setting forth the happy condition which would prevail when his bill became the law. When amidst deep despair in 1932 the house of representatives passed his bill, a run on the dollar was started, which, however, was checked when the senate killed the bill. His scheme was eventually tried late in 1933 and early 1934 without specific legislation. It failed to deliver as he thought it would, was abandoned, and has been characterized as misguided by President Roosevelt.

This is the type of man President Roosevelt thinks is suitable for the federal bench.

SITDOWN DAMAGES.

The verdict awarded the Apex Hosiery company of Philadelphia for damages it suffered at the hands of C. I. O. sitdown strikers is a logical sequel to the United States Supreme court's finding in the Fansteel case that the sitdown is illegal.

The Apex sitdown was a particularly atrocious one. There is substantial evidence, indorsed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Philadelphia, that a large majority of the plant's employés were not interested in the C. I. O. union.

The union, nevertheless, demanded a closed shop contract from the management. The seizure of the plant was not made from within by its own employés. A mob of thousands of persons, led by the union president, appeared outside the plant. In the face of this mob threat employés were dismissed. The union organizer then led members of the mob in storming the plant, beating executives and maintenance workers who had remained inside, and installing the sitdown crew.

The plant was seized on May 6, 1937. Not until June 23 did the lawless minority give up possession in response to a federal court order, which they first defied. During their occupancy they smashed thousands of dollars' worth of valuable machinery, destroyed office records, and, of course, prevented the operation of the business.

It is doubtful whether the public, even now, realizes the full use to which the C. I. O. put the sitdown strike, with the aid and connivance of the present attorney general, the secretary of labor, Postmaster General Farley, and the partisan National Labor Relations board. The sitdown coerced the employer to recognize the union, but it first coerced his employés to join the C. I. O.

The sitdowners in the Apex plant numbered 256, out of a working force of between 2,500 and 2,600, and many of those who helped seize and hold the plants were not Apex employés, but C. I. O. shock troops recruited from other unions. This use of shock troops was standard tactics in the C. I. O. They were employed in many of the automobile strikes in Michigan.

Having seized the plant by the action of a lawless minority, the C. I. O. leaders represented to the unorganized employés who were barred from their jobs that they must join the union to get back to work. Repeatedly it was shown that big increases in membership came during a sitdown, not before it. Instead of applying to the owners of the plant for a job, employés had to apply to those who had taken illegal possession of it.

In the Apex case the verdict of the state court runs against the union, but not its individual members. Many years ago the Danbury hatters' case, in which damages were awarded for a boycott, showed that while it was possible to collect damages from individual unionists, the procedure was regarded by the public as so harsh as to make martyrs of the union members. Whether the company will be able to collect any substantial part of its $711,000 verdict from the union is dubious.

The company, however, still has a claim pending against the local governments in Philadelphia which refused to preserve order. The claim is based upon a statute which holds them responsible for damage resulting from riot. The hazard that the taxpayers of the city face in this suit should be a warning to all voters. Pusillanimous officials who conspire with violent minorities for what appears at the moment to be a political advantage can cost the taxpayers a great deal of money.

GOV. HORNER'S RETURN.

Gov. Horner was glad to get back to Illinois. The people of Illinois in their turn rejoice at his recovery from a serious illness and wish him many years of life. AMERICAN INTERESTS FORGOTTEN.

[Detroit Free Press.]

The recent visit of the Brazilian foreign minister to Washington seems to have been profitable—for Brazil, at any rate.

When he returned to Rio de Janeiro, Senhor Aranha announced that he had obtained credits in this country that would "enormously" stimulate production in Brazil.

And he mentioned the willingness of the Export-Import bank to finance exports from Brazil up to $50,000,000 as a great step toward increasing trade between his country and the United States.

"The willingness of the American government to cooperate in Brazil's agricultural development might enable Brazil," Senhor Aranha declared, "to make annual sales to the United States of as much as $50,000,000."

That's fine for Brazil, but where do American farmers come in?

Coffee and rubber and a number of other products from Brazil are not produced in the United States and, therefore, their importation into this country does not affect our own agricultural producers.

Certain other imports from Brazil compete directly or indirectly with American grown products.

Already Brazil has the long end of one of Secretary Hull's free-trade agreements.

And now the government in Washington is offering to finance the exportation of products of Brazilian agriculture to the United States, where they will take the place of products of American agriculture.

At the same time it is appropriating more than a billion dollars this year to keep American farmers out of the poorhouse!

The President and the secretary of state seem to forget that their solicitude should be, first and last, for the welfare of their own country.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

A SENATOR RIDES NO MORE.

Good-by, Jim Ham. You have been a picturesque rider in the Chicago cavalcade and the Washington merry-go-round for two generations, but at last you have dipped down into the dark valley, to be seen and smiled at nevermore. You were a character who added a touch of fantasy to the civic scene, but if the hog butchers, and steelmakers, and merchants regarded you as Harlequin let them take a look at the long list of titles of office in your cursus honorem and ask themselves if all this did not require gifts of a high order.

You were always an actor—always playing to an imaginary audience, with courtly bows and elaborate phrases. But it is difficult to say what rôles you assigned to yourself as you stage-managed your career—whether it was Mercutio, swaggering through his rhetoric in honor of Queen Mab, or Cyrano, flaunting his white plume of wit and gallantry. Shall we think of you as a cavalier of King Charles, strangely enlisted on the other side of the political fence, or an incroyable of the French revolution, dressing democracy with dandyism?

At your last election we doubted if you would survive your term of office. During the last two years, whenever you came to the Club on returns from Washington, greeting every unremembered Tom, Dick, and Harry with a courtesy both free and formal, you seemed to be in the fading twilight of old age, although still Jim Ham at heart.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, this city will miss you. From your birthplace in Virginia you brought something that Democrats too often forget or disdain: Manners.

And steeped himself in law,
But Billy never bothered to,
As everybody saw.
They took the Bar and Dick stood high—
Among the very best;
But Billy—well, he just got by
Along with all the rest.
Most twenty years have passed since then
And Dick earns fifty per;
I saw him on the street again
And asked him how things were.
Said Dick to me, "It goes to show,
And gives me quite a wrench,
What Billy didn't need to know
'Cause Billy's—on the Bench!"

Scene: An inn in Paris, 1780. Characters, Benjamin Franklin, commissioner of the American republic, and Edward Gibbon, historian of "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire." The following notes were exchanged:

"Mr. Franklin, who has just learned of Mr. Gibbon's presence under the same roof, hopes that he may have the pleasure of his company at dinner."

"Mr. Gibbon, much as he admires Mr. Franklin as a man and a philosopher, cannot in loyalty to his king have any conversation with a rebel."

"Mr. Gibbon's expression of admiration of Mr. Franklin as a man and philosopher is hereby acknowledged. Mr. Franklin wishes to express his own admiration of Mr. Gibbon as a historian. When Mr. Gibbon comes to write of the decline and fall of the British empire Mr. Franklin will be happy to furnish him with the ample materials now in his possession."

BLUE WATER BALLAD.

I want to go back a-cruising
Singing a vagabond song—
I want a trip
On the same old ship
With the self-same crew along!

I don't much care where they head her
Nor what star they steer her by—
Just so it is far
From the moaning bar
And under a tropic sky!

For I have the heart of a sailor
And the soul of a mermaid, too—
And I'm longing for
Some southern shore
Where the water's warm and blue.

And there may be a lad a-waiting
At the port we anchor in—
It'll break my heart
When we have to part
But the seas will always win!

For the land can never hold me
No matter how lush the shore—
For I'd steal away
At dawn some day
To sail off on the ship once more!

How Old Is "the Loop"?

While perusing an ancient tome in the town library I found a passage suggesting that almost a decade before Charley Yerkes hung up his Union Elevated railway contemporary natives referred to the business section of our metropolis as "the loop."

Wherefore and how come? Was the word in common use in the '80s as it is today? Or did it only figure in the lingo of hoss-car pilots and cable railway gripmen, where the strap-rail tracks of four systems circled in a wondrous mess in the center of old Chicago? Driver the Bicycle Boy.

The Growing Fame of Agatite Street.

Why has no one asked about the Agatite Street Chamber Music society, which meets almost in the shadow of that dome [4-1-'39], to taste of honey dew and drink the milk of paradise; or at any rate to play Beethoven, Brahms, Dvorak, etc.

The humorists who burlesque the common cold in phonetic spelling, turning "spring" into "sprig," etc., never get a laugh out of us.

RED BLOOD CELLS ON THE RAMPAGE.

ONE of the most remarkable powers of the body is its ability to keep the production and destruction of blood elements within proper bounds. When we realize that in health the proportion of red cells in the circulating medium varies but slightly throughout life, we can understand that there must be a very delicate controling mechanism which will not allow deviation from this standard. It is estimated that there are approximately a trillion red cells formed each day, and, therefore, if the ratio is to be kept constant, a like number must perish.

Most of us are familiar with the malady in which there is a marked decrease in the red count—namely, anemia. On the other hand, occasionally there may be far too many. This disease is not as common as anemia. Physicians give it a long name—polycythemia—meaning "many cells in the blood." The condition was first described by Louis Henry Vaquez in 1892 and was popularized in this country by William Osler. For this reason it is often known as Vaquez-Osler's disease. It is an ailment of middle life or later and a family tendency appears to exist.

Sometimes the difficulty is merely temporary—for example, if a large amount of fluid is lost through vomiting, diarrhea, or excessive perspiration, the red cells may be in relatively high concentration. This situation, however, is of secondary importance and is remedied promptly as soon as the fluids of the body can be restored. An increase may be experienced by persons subjected to changes of altitude, as in traveling over a high mountain or going up in an airplane. This rise is not, as a rule, great, but may be as much as 10 to 20 per cent. As soon as the individual returns to lower ground the blood becomes normal.

Unfortunately, there is a chronic disease, the cause of which is entirely unknown. Among the early symptoms are weakness, fatigue, headache, dizziness, and actual fainting attacks. Now and then mild mental symptoms are observed. There is extreme irritability, some depression, and rather definite neuralgia-like pains. Minor digestive disturbances and numbness, burning, or tingling sensations in the fingers are also complained of. It can be seen, therefore, that the manifestations are vague and indefinite and may be ascribed to many unrelated disorders.

The appearance of the patient, however, is quite characteristic. The complexion is usually brick red and there is often a bluish red color to the lips and mucous membrane lining the mouth. This coloration is accentuated during extremes of weather. There is an old saying that the polycythemic individual is as blue as indigo during the winter and red as a rose in the summer.

On examination the only abnormality noted is an enlargement of the spleen. The diagnosis, however, is made by the persistently elevated red cell count. Instead of the average number the total may mount as much as 40 to 100 per cent and a range of 8 or 9 million per cubic millimeter is not at all unusual. As a rule, the derangement continues for many years in chronic form and many procedures may be adopted for the relief of symptoms.

The most significant motive for desiring to bring down the percentage is that with such a high balance there is a resultant slowing of the circulation through the vessels and—occasionally—spontaneous clotting within the channels. This may be quite a serious complication especially if the coagulation occurs in some vital duct, for example, one leading to the head or to one of the extremities.

Frequent bleedings and the application of X-ray or radium all over the body are the types of treatment employed. Perhaps more efficient than either is a drug called phenylhydrazine [or acetylphenylhydrazine]. This compound actually causes degeneration of the red cells and, if carefully administered, will annihilate just enough to keep the ratio within normal limits. However, it is quite apparent that the preparation must be given under the watchful eye of a skilled physician, as too many may be destroyed if the dose is excessive.

INFECTED FINGERS.

M. A. writes: My fingers around the nails have a tendency to swell every now and then. Pus forms under the skin which never comes to a head, but recedes after a while. I am in the restaurant business and it is necessary to keep my hands in water.

1. Does this make the condition worse?
2. How can I remedy the situation?

REPLY.

1. It may. You have a chronic infection in the tissues surrounding the nails.
2. Keep the fingers clean, avoid hangnails, and wear rubber gloves. An occasional manicure will help.

YOU ARE RIGHT.

T. W. writes: I understand that the shock treatment is not of much value in those cases of dementia precox that have persisted for a long time. Is it ever tried with these patients?

REPLY.

This is true. The treatment has been tried with those who have been afflicted with this disease for years, but the results are far less satisfactory. The possibility of a successful outcome diminishes as the duration of the ailment lengthens.

DON'T RUSH THE TREATMENTS.

S. F. writes: After using a sun lamp steadily for two months I have not been able to tan my skin, which remains red. What would you suggest?

REPLY.

You are probably receiving too much ultra violet. In other words, you are burning the skin. Reduce the dose [time] or increase the distance from the lamp. It requires patience to make good leather.

MOTION SICKNESS.

A. M. writes: I am planning a long trip this summer. Will you please write an article on what to do to avoid a nauseated feeling while riding? I am sure that many others are affected as I am.

REPLY.

Suggestions helpful to those who suffer from motion sickness have been incorporated into leaflet form. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for this material.

IT IS NOT.

Mrs. V. writes: Is it true that the tall, thin person has a more rapid pulse than the short, fat one?

REPLY.

Not at all.

FROM ACROSS THE SEA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON.—The formation of a British foreign legion similar to the colorful and hard fighting body of French troops is being urged in Britain as a partial solution of the refugee problem.

It is estimated that there are a million homeless men drifting around Europe, many of them still young enough for a place on the firing line. Many of the older ones have had training in a number of branches of military service.

Some 20,000 refugees who would be eligible to join a foreign legion are said to be in Britain today. They are men of every race and rank and represent every shade of political thought. Many of them are anxious to be of some use to the country, a country in which most of the professions are overcrowded. Some hope to strike a blow at former oppressors.

With Britain forced to send more and more battalions of British regulars overseas to police the empire, it is pointed out that the refugees offer a source of manpower that, if used, would permit the regulars to remain on duty at home.

France has garrisoned her empire with 15,000 alien soldiers. Her foreign legion, raised one hundred years ago by King Louis Philippe, contains nine battalions of infantry and a regiment of cavalry. Today the whole of the cavalry regiment wears the cordon of the Croix de Guerre. And the entire legion has a reputation for fighting ability second to none.

Foreign legionnaires played a prominent part in the Spanish civil war. The Spanish foreign legion fought valiantly for Franco, and on the other side the international brigade is given credit for saving Madrid in the early days of the war. Both of these organizations proved so valuable that they became shock battalions for use where the going was roughest.

Britain herself used corps of foreigners in the world war. On the western front White Russians, Polish legionnaires, and Czecho-Slovak volunteers fought alongside the French and British. In the near east legions of Arabs and Jewish volunteers were commended in the dispatches of British generals.

It is argued that in an emergency the refugees probably would be conscripted and it would be better to train them now.

Britain has had foreign legions before, and not so very long ago.

In 1855 Queen Victoria inspected a foreign legion composed of German and Hungarian political refugees and a few Swiss. It was intended for action in the Crimea.

In 1795 Britain used several regiments of French royalists, refugees from the French revolution. They were stationed on the Island of Jersey, off the British coast, and later were embodied in an expedition to invade France.

What is now one of Britain's finest corps, the 60th King's Royal rifles, began life as the Royal American regiment. It was composed of German and Swiss volunteers and was used to guard the frontiers of the North American colonies from the Indians.

Wellington's army in the Peninsular war contained a king's German legion, and it is suggested that this be revived. Recruits would come from refugees from Hitler's Germany.

A Dutch brigade guarded the Isle of Wight and the Channel Islands against a threatened invasion by Napoleon between 1799 and 1802. And there were Hanoverians at Gibraltar through the siege between 1779 and 1783. They were partly responsible for Gibraltar being British today.

If a legion should be formed now of refugees the recruits would have an opportunity to carve out a career, which is denied to many in present circumstances. They could rise to noncommissioned rank, and some could become officers. With their pay their could support their relatives.

Thus, it is declared, the legion would help solve the refugee problem without displacing any Englishman from his job and without adding to the nation's financial burden.

It would also, its advocates claim, aid in solving the problem of imperial defense.

MISINFORMED.

Chicago, April 7.—[Legal Friend of the People,]—1. When lawyers go into the department where wills are filed can they help themselves and take out with them any wills they wish to look over or use, leaving no record of who took them?

2. Is no signature required?

3. I thought there was a four-way check on all legal papers.

4. The department says that more than 5,000 wills are missing from their files.

5. Don't you think the heads of this department should be responsible for missing wills?

6. Don't you think they should notify these 5,000 citizens of their loss?

7. Does not the county or state pay the heads of this department for looking after and recording all business carried on?

8. I understand when there is no will it gives the lawyers more work and that is why there are so many missing.

A party I know was asked to sign her name on a blank, which she did, and [9] later received $1,000 from a $3,800 estate.

10. I thought Illinois had a set of laws on this.

M. L. L.

1. Yes, in the sense that wills are available for public inspection. No, in the sense that taking them from the clerk's office is not permitted.

2. A receipt must be signed by any person calling for a file.

3. We do not understand what you mean by a "four way check."

4. We do not understand what you mean by "the department."

5. See 4.

6. In general, wills are not filed until after the death of the testator. Hence your question does not make sense.

7. See 4.

8. This is not true. In general, the probate of an intestate estate is simpler than the probate of a testate estate.

TO MAKE THE WORLD SAFE FOR THE NEW DEAL.

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—The two big problems of the New Deal are: First, to conquer the unemployment problem, and second, to elect a Democratic President and congress in 1940.

If we were at war that would solve both problems. Is it possible Mr. Roosevelt seeks that solution? We had no business in the last war, nor in the next mess in Europe, but I fear our President doesn't think so.

ST. LOUISAN.

FOR THE CHIROPODISTS.

Chicago, April 7.—Several years ago Dr. Dudley J. Morton of Columbia university wrote a book about feet in which he expounded several new theories. More recently he has published another for the layman, called "Oh Doctor! My Feet!"

During the past few weeks your syndicated writer, Antoinette Donnelly, discovered this book and through the columns of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE has publicized it—with the recommendation that all foot sufferers consult their physician. By subtle innuendo she has implied that the chiropodist is not a "professional" or proper person to consult when the patient is afflicted with foot ailments.

Many hospitals now have chiropodists on their staff, especially in their diabetic clinics, since the diabetic patient requires special attention. The function of the chiropodist here is to reduce the incidence of local infection and diabetic gangrene which usually makes its first appearance in the pedal extremities. Many an amputation is avoided because of his service in this department alone.

A competent, ethical chiropodist is always on the alert for such conditions in practice, and when he suspects systemic disease he immediately refers the case to the patient's own family physician.

Foot ailments are usually of a mechanical nature and require a special type of treatment as unrelated to general medicine as is dental treatment. The chiropodist, in addition to his training and education in diagnosis and treatment of all local foot ailments, must have special equipment to diagnose and treat such ailments: i. e. X-ray unit for diagnostic purposes, short wave, infra-red, galvanic generators, and so on, for therapeutic purposes. He must be trained in aseptic surgical technique. His knowledge of physics and mechanics must be thorough, especially as they apply to human locomotion and postures.

The writer readily admits that the chiropody profession is cursed with quacks and charlatans, who are aided and abetted by the newspaper fraternity. But he is convinced that the ratio is not greater in this department of the healing service than in medicine and dentistry. Organized chiropody is at this time making heroic efforts to eliminate the unethical practitioner from its ranks.

IN QUIET OAK PARK.

Oak Park, Ill., April 2.—Found! A new nominee for the title of public nuisance No. 1. The thoughtless female who disposes of empty tin cans with complete sound effects. First, one hears a screen or storm door kicked open with a foot or knee. This is followed by the sharp clicking of hard heels on a wood porch, accompanied by the slamming of the unmanned door. Now the cover is removed from the container and society's menace drops the tin bombs from a convenient height—mind you, no bending! Then the lid is tossed in the general direction of the receptacle and once again noisy heels pound their way across the stage. Another nerve wracking bang of the door and the unthinking woman has again endeared herself to her neighbors.

WE EXPECT TROUBLE IN BRIGGSVILLE.

Briggsville, Wis., April 1.—An advertisment in this morning's paper asks: "Would you buy a spring hat blindfolded?" And boldly it gives the answer, right on page 18: "Of course not."

Gosh! I thought all the hats worn today were bought that way! Er—excuse me, my mistake!

F. B. K.

O LEARNED JUDGE.

Chicago, April 6.—Your editorial on the Juvenile court and the presiding judge, the costs of maintenance with the results achieved, furnish a problem worthy of thorough discussion.

In crime prevention, curtly stated, the Juvenile court is the "stitch in time which saves nine"; however, from the tone of Mrs. Ludlow's letter in the Voice of the People column today, it appears more like "too many cooks spoil the broth."

The presiding judge, presumably, being a man of learning, wisdom, and virtue, and an understanding of human nature, with a passion to insure to every unfortunate a just and a fair trial and full and open hearing, does not need the advice of trained social workers nor the advice of trained psychiatrists and psychologists, but renders his decision on the evidence given in an open hearing in an open court based solely on the evidence and the law; a judgment which is humane as well as correctional on the one side and protective of the safety of others on the other side. A judgment that protects both the rights of the unfortunate and the public.

When Mrs. Ludlow says that the Juvenile court judge has at his disposal the advice of the social workers, psychiatrists, and psychologists, she underestimates those qualities so essential to the presiding judge.

If we are to have a court where juvenile offenders are brought for reclamation, let it be a real people's court, presided over by a judge regarded as the father of community who will not be swayed by over feminine influence in which every culprit is regarded as a darling ever so innocent; otherwise let us return to the good old-fashioned dad's way, who knew how to reclaim for society the bad boy with his primitive but very effective methods, thereby saving the taxpayers the enormous expense of maintaining an institution falling in its purpose.

JOSEPH LUZUM.

HE DOESN'T LIKE "BRATS."

Chicago, April 1.—Well, now the time has again arrived when the "poor little children" will be destroying our freshly seeded lawns, stepping upon the young plants and flowers, running over our gardens, breaking windows, and what not.

Yet one dare not saying anything to them, for if you do some of these "poor little children" may tell their parents that you struck them, and beware if you are brought before the judge. He may tell you that you should or ought to remember that you were once a boy, too, besides plastering you with a nice stiff fine.

There is no excuse whatever for these brats to ruin another's property; the blame should be placed where it belongs and that is upon the parents. No well bred child will do these things, but when the parents themselves are ill bred, what can be done to stop this nuisance?

HUTCHINS SAYS HE WILL REMAIN U. C. PRESIDENT

Returns to City Indicating He Won't Head SEC.

Robert M. Hutchins returned to Chicago last evening after a holiday in the south. He announced that he intends to remain president of the University of Chicago. He indicated he will not become chairman of the Federal Securities and Exchange commission as was reported when he recently conferred for two days with President Roosevelt in Warm Springs, Ga.

"The President has made the statement that my visits to Warm Springs were purely social," said Hutchins last night. "If the President chooses to disclose what took place in the conferences it is his privilege but not mine."

Refuses to Confirm Offer.

One report has been that Hutchins, when offered the SEC job by the President, said he would take it for one year. Hutchins, it is understood, told the President he would have no trouble in getting a leave of absence from the university for that length of time. To this suggestion the President is reported to have said that he would not care to have Hutchins take the post under those circumstances.

"I won't admit that there was any suggestion of an appointment," Hutchins said when asked about the truth of this story. "I simply won't discuss it."

According to those who know Hutchins well, the refusal to give up his university chair is characteristic. They say that while he has New Deal leanings and an inclination to dabble in governmental affairs, he has been careful always to keep one foot firmly planted at the university.

Unrest Marks Régime.

Throughout his ten year régime there have been constant rumors of promotions, changes, and governmental appointments for Hutchins and of general unrest at the university, but he has remained on the Midway. Hutchins has been most unwilling, it is said, to trade his security there for the uncertainties of politics.

President Roosevelt, it is understood, would have wanted him to resign from the university. It is reported, also, that Hutchins probably would have been asked by the board of trustees of the university to resign even if he had accepted the SEC post for one year only. It is known that some of the trustees have become provoked over the mass of conflicting reports constantly flying about their president.

For several years there has been one group in the university faculty that has been eager to have him "promoted upstairs." But as rumored changes failed to materialize, several of the faculty members accepted professorships at other universities. One of the leaders was Prof. Harry D. Gideonse, economist, who went to Columbia last year because of differences with Hutchins.

Resent Educational Control.

Hutchins' insistence that as president he must exercise a certain amount of influence over the educational activities of the university in addition to administering its business affairs accounts for this feeling. A number of faculty members who have remained at the university openly oppose him on these policies.

Although Hutchins has been in educational work all his life, he also has served in public office. He was chairman of the original regional labor board for Chicago for about a year after its establishment in 1933. In 1934, he was reported to be in line for a post as head of the national labor relations board. He also conferred with the President then.

Held Stock Exchange Post.

That same year it was rumored he was about to be appointed head of the agency to force compliance with the NRA. Later he was mentioned as a possibility for a cabinet post as "secretary of education." Nothing came of the rumors, however, and Hutchins stayed in Chicago.

Last September Hutchins accepted an appointment as one of three representatives of the public on the New York Stock exchange. He resigned three months later because the other members of the board of governors refused to delve more deeply into the Richard Whitney scandal. It is said he was particularly anxious to get the SEC appointment because of this experience.

Hutchins, only 40 years old, has become widely known through his speeches and writings. He has never mentioned that he had any political ambitions, but he is known to be gratified when, now and then, his name is suggested as a good man for a vice presidential candidate on the Democratic ticket. At the moment, however, he isn't talking politics.

Death a Mystery

LOIS PATRICIA TRYON.

Mount Morris, N. Y., April 10.—[Special.]—Lois Patricia Tryon, 19 years old, a high school senior and winner of a Lake Conesus beauty contest last summer, whose dismembered body was found along the Lackawanna railroad tracks, was slain by being thrown under the wheels of a speeding train to conceal evidence of rape, authorities believed tonight.

Miss Tryon, daughter of Thorne G. Tryon, well-to-do Leicester farmer, left her home Thursday afternoon to buy candy at nearby Creigsville. Friends saw her walking along a road which parallels the railroad tracks, at a point where an assailant might easily have lurked. Her body was found by a motorist the next day at Teed's Corners, a considerable distance from the regular crossing.

DR. SNYDER TELLS HIS HOPES FOR NORTHWESTERN

Technology Institute Is Biggest Task.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Dr. Franklyn Bliss Snyder, who will become the eleventh president of Northwestern university next Sept. 1, yesterday told his hopes for the university's future. He returned to his desk as vice president and dean of faculties for the first time since it was announced last week that he had been selected to succeed President Walter Dill Scott.

For the next five years, Dr. Snyder said, his chief task will be to establish Northwestern's institute of technology, made possible by the recent gift of $6,700,000 from the Walter P. Murphy Foundation. In this, and in strengthening the faculty, he hopes to accomplish something sound and stimulating in the educational world.

Calls Task a Big One.

"The job is so big," he said, "that I am going to spend a long time just shaking down into it. In the technological school we shall aim high. We shall extend the method of coöperative training, devoting part of the time to study and part to practical work. This will be a five year course and we are going to be careful in admissions.

"We hope to cut down the mortality rate among students. The first year or two probably will be like the freshman year at a liberal arts college, with emphasis on mathematics and science."

Gives Administrative Views.

Dr. Snyder is 55 years old, quick moving, vigorous, a lover of books and of outdoor sports. He has been associated with the university for thirty years as an instructor and professor of English and is the author of college texts in literature and of two works on Robert Burns. He stated his basic ideas on university administration as follows:

"The primary function of a university is to foster humane culture, with culture interpreted as meaning the well rounded intellectual and spiritual development of the human being. Second, a university must be of immediate and practical service to the community which supports it. And third, it must do all it can to encourage research—the discovery of new truth or the reinterpretation of old truths."

Dr. Snyder has just returned from a visit to Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. It is from Jefferson that he takes this definition of the meaning of a university, written at the founding of the University of Virginia:

"The institution will be based on the illimitable freedom of the human mind. For here we are not afraid to follow the truth wherever it may lead, nor to tolerate any error, so long as reason is left free to combat it."

With all the swift changes and demands of modern life there are certain values that are eternal and it is with these, Dr. Snyder thinks, that the university is primarily concerned.

"If the task of a university were to equip its students to adjust carburetors, or to furnish them with formulas for settling sit-down strikes, or to give them the last word on theories of investment, then we might perhaps be justified in devoting most of our energies to the problems of today," he said.

"But if the task of a university is to send out its graduates equipped with those spiritual and intellectual qualities which will enable them to react to the basic experiences of human life with courage and honor and some degree of happiness, then our program should be concerned primarily with the unchanging facts and values of human life.

ANTI-SPEED TRAP LAW RULED OUT BY INDIANA JUDGE

South Bend, Ind., April 10—[Special.]—Indiana's anti-speed trap law was ruled invalid by Superior Judge J. Elmer Peak today in the first test of the measure since its enactment last Feburary. The judge termed it special legislation and said it interfered with constables in the discharge of their duties.

The law prohibited the arrest of motorists by constables without a warant and outlawed the use of John Doe warants in trafic violations. It had the effect of stopping constables from making any arrests in connection with the operation of motor vehicles.

The case concerned the arrest a month ago of Merl Davis of New Carlisle for driving with improper lights on his truck. He protested that his arrest by Constable Herbert K. Clements of German township was illegal under the new law. An association of constables and justices of the peace in northern Indiana forced the case to a test.

Stray Shot Hits Brakeman on Train in Evanston

H. J. Elder, 35 years old, a brakeman on a North Western railway suburban train, was wounded in the arm last night by a stray bullet as he was standing at the rear platform of the last coach. The train was passing Dempster street in Evanston at the time. Elder left the train at Wilmette for medical aid and then went to his home at 806 Foxdale avenue, Winnetka.

TRAILER TRUCK RIPS OUT SIDE OF STREET CAR

A dozen passengers were shaken up last evening when a trailer truck sidewiped a street car in front of 2637 Harrison street. Part of the side of the street car was ripped out. When the truck driver did not stop, Patrick Ruane, 4705 West End avenue, the motorman, commandeered an automobile and halted him several blocks away. The driver, Andrew Szutenbach, 5756 South Elizabeth street, later was arrested. He told police he had swerved to avoid an automobile and did not know his trailer had struck the trolley car.

KILLED AS AUTO SKIDS AND HITS POLE IN INDIANA

John Cunningham, 26 years old, of Gary, was killed yesterday when an automobile in which he was riding skidded on state highway 130, two miles west of Valparaiso, Ind., and struck a pole. Robert Francis, 32, also of Gary, who driving, was slightly hurt.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 245 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 189 were killed in Chicago, where 5,036 were injured in the same period.

20 DAYS REMAIN TO GET LICENSE AS AUTO DRIVER

Springfield, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Only 20 days remain to obtain a drivers' license before the statutory deadline of May 1. After that date it will be illegal for any Illinois resident to operate a motor car without his individual driver's license or, in appropriate instances, a chauffeur's license.

Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes this afternoon said that approximately 1,500,000 driver's licenses have been issued by his office since the law was enacted last June. There are still 1,000,000 drivers who have yet to apply for their licenses.

From these figures it was evident there will be thousands lacking their permits on May 1. Whether the police will enforce the requirement promptly is speculative. There's a precedent—note the 1938 plates still on the street—for delinquency in enforcement of automobile regulations.

Waukegan Motorist Gets 6 Months for Wild Driving

John Steward, 39 years old, of 33 North County street, Waukegan, a plasterer, was sentenced yesterday to six months in the Vandalia state prison farm by County Judge Perry L. Persons of Waukegan, on a charge of driving while drunk. Police said that Steward had been placed on probation for the same offense in November, 1935, and that he had never made the final call to formally end his year's probation.

Take 10,000,000 teaspoons of baking powder

WE'LL TELL YOU WHERE IT GOES EACH WEEK

NEW YORK CITY grocers should sell some 3000 tons of baking powder this year. But don't assume that all housewives in all sections of the city will buy the same amount.

The Times Market Research Department's recent study of baking powder sales shows where baking powder sells more rapidly . . . and more profitably . . . in New York City. These are the facts:

A typical grocery store in a high-income neighborhood sells nearly twice as much baking powder each week as a store in a low-income neighborhood . . . and over 50% more than an outlet in a medium-income neighborhood.

Other Times market studies of widely used commodities bear out this same principle. They show that advertised goods, regardless of price, sell faster where incomes are higher. When merchandise sells quickly in large volume, the road is open to better profits.

High-income families are plentiful enough in New York to form a major volume market. And, as many advertisers have discovered, they constitute the most easily reached and profitably sold "mass" market in the city.

The advertising influence of The New York Times is concentrated among these high-income families . . . and among the best of the average-income group. That makes The Times your logical foundation medium for any advertising campaign designed to build profitable volume in New York.

Anne Winston, Miss Wilson Brides Today

BY JUDITH CASS.

EVERY ONE was so glad that the rain held off until after Easter that no one minded it much yesterday. A number of families are hoping for sunny weather today, however, especially the Farwell Winston and Morris Karl Wilson families, for they are preparing for weddings this afternoon. "Happy is the bride the sun shines on" is an old saying.

Both weddings are to be held at 4 o'clock. The ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Anne Winston and Carleton Ellis Jr. of Toledo, O., will be read by the Rev. Herbert W. Prince at Fairlawn, the Lake Forest home of the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Robert G. McGann, and Mr. McGann.

Miss Winston will be attended by her younger sisters, Dudley and Lucia. Bertram Ellis will be his brother's best man. A number of relatives have come from away to enlarge the group of relatives and close friends that will be present for the ceremony and reception following. On the bride's side are her father's cousins, Mrs. Chatfield Whitman of Boston, Wayne Chatfield Taylor of Washington, and Mrs. Winston's brother-in-law and sister, the Philip Nolands of Louisville. Mrs. Reginald De Koven of New York, who is Mrs. McGann's sister, may be present.

The senior Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Ellis of Montclair also are here, and so are the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. John Ordway of New York and Mrs. Edward Heyt of Newark. Mrs. James H. Douglas Jr., aunt of the bride, is entertaining at luncheon today for the out of town guests.

Mr. Ellis is taking his bride to Honolulu on their wedding trip. They will make their home in Toledo. The Rev. Mr. Prince is rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest.

Lynde-Wilson Nuptials at Home

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Wilson to Samuel Adams Lynde II. will take place in her parents' Winnetka home. Only relatives and intimate friends will be present for the ceremony, but a larger reception will follow. The Rev. Samuel Harkness of the Winnetka Congregational church will officiate.

Miss Wilson will be attended by her elder sister, Mrs. Roger Sherman, whose wedding dress she will wear, and by her cousin, Miss Olivia Little. Jack Odell will be best man. Ushering will be Mr. Sherman, Francis Fabian Jr., Eugene O'Brien, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Wendell Clough of Toledo.

Following a wedding trip south Mr. Lynde and his bride will be at home in Milwaukee. He is to teach at the Milwaukee Country Day school.

Miss Wilson's uncle, Hugh R. Wilson, ambassador to Germany, will be among the wedding guests.

Reveal Engagement of Charlotte O'Brien

At a family dinner Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. O'Brien announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte, to Daniel J. Lawlor, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lawlor of Fullerton parkway. The wedding will take place next September, probably in Highland Park, where the O'Briens live. The family has been in town this winter, but is moving from the near north side back to the north shore on May 1.

Miss O'Brien, who was the pretty bride of the Fashion Group's smart style show last week at the Drake hotel, was educated at Trinity college in Washington, D. C. Mr. Lawlor is a graduate of Georgetown university and is engaged in business in Chicago.

Dinner Party to Precede Grace Moore Concert

The Arch Shaws and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Shaw, were no sooner back in their Winnetka homes from a lengthy stay at Chandler, Ariz., than they began planning a dinner party for next Monday night. They will give it at the Casino and then will take their guests to the Civic Opera house to occupy two boxes at Grace Moore's concert.

The concert is for the benefit of the Chicago Nursery and Half-Orphan asylum, of which both Mrs. Shaws are members of the board of managers. The younger Mrs. Shaw is general chairman of the committee that has planned the benefit. Her mother, Mrs. Charles Garfield King, has taken a box, but she is giving it to her son, Garfield King.

Mrs. Thomas C. Dennehy Jr. and Mrs. William B. McIlvaine Jr. will have a joint dinner for their box parties that night. Among their guests will be the John Payne Kelloggs, who are just back from Vancouver, where they are building a new home. This does not mean that they will give up their Lake Forest residence; only that they will have a place of their own when they go west for the summers, as they often do.

John H. Olivers Parents of Son

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Oliver are being congratulated on the birth of a son on Saturday at the Presbyterian hospital. The baby has been named Mark for his paternal grandfather, the late Mark Oliver of Riverside. Nancy Leigh Oliver, who is 5, heard the exciting news in Florida, where

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

For the elegant woman, whose tastes in perfume incline toward the subtle, there is a fascinating new scent just imported. It is one of the most exquisite fragrances launched in years, different from all others and far more lasting than many.

We've been yearning for months for a perfume that would have two qualities that seem to us increasingly hard to find. First, we'd like, just for a change, to come on a perfume that wouldn't remind us of any other. Second, we'd like, also for a change, a perfume that we could be dead certain of lasting for more than an hour or so. And, of course, our ideal scent would have to be unusually beautiful.

Maybe it was all those sacrifices we made during Lent. Anyway, our prayers have been answered. One of the really great perfume houses has imported a new fragrance that fills our particular bill in every respect.

It's unique in its scent. It can't be classified as any particular kind of perfume. Even the experts have been confounded in trying to describe or identify it. To some, it's floral; others say it has a smoky quality; still others say that the secret of its lovely distinction is a faint fragrance comparable to that of fine leather. They're all a little right and a little wrong. It is, certainly, a haunting, dreamy kind of fragrance, but it's stimulating, too. Don't ask us how this can be. It just is. Men are crazy about it, as are women who like elegant, subtle scents.

You can't tell a thing about it at the first sniff. It's as it dries and after it dries that it comes into its mysterious, full blown beauty. We decided, after it had been on an hour that it was one of the finds of the year. Before that we were dubious about it. And every willing experimenter has had the same experience.

We could go into raptures about the way it lasts. Neither time nor soap and water dimmed its beauty for an entire day! It's a fascinating, FINE perfume if ever we found one.

Designer Says Simple Attire Always Best

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"The really best dressed women never make the best dressed list. They are too well dressed to be that spectacular."

This grain of comfort to those of you who failed to win the annual spring nomination comes from a famous commercial designer, Joseph B. Platt.

Here are some tips on dressing smartly from a man who knows feminine apparel, because he has designed it from the inner layer out, and who gives you the commercial craftsman's and the artist's point of view on what you should pick from the whole bewildering array and why.

Your dress should be as housing for your body, with the details of seaming, trimming, and structural lines no more apparent than the beams, rafters, foundation blocks and nails which go to make a beautiful building. It should be subordinate to you, and this goes whether you are a raving, tearing beauty or a trifle on the plain side. Dress should be used to build up a part of yourself, never to submerge or overshadow any part of you. And that goes particularly for hats.

Every bracelet, button, clip, belt, or Aztec skull wrought in silver should be worn with intention, he says, just as every dash, dot, and shaded line in an artist's drawing is put there to convey a meaning and create a symbol. When a woman who knows what she's about puts a chunk of antique silver around her neck or waist, the effect is smart. When she doesn't, its likely to be dowdy, according to this masculine observer.

If you will listen to his warning, you remember that every bright belt buckle, row of contrasting buttons, vivid sash or bright flip of a handkerchief peeping out of a pocket is a glaring line, and that many women mortgage their homesteads to buy clothes with no lines visible. This simplicity, and don't let the word deceive you, is what dress designers burn the midnight oil to achieve and die like soldiers to guard, if fashion pirates come near their windows.

As a final tip to you, he urges you to remember that you have an industrial problem in yourself when you plan your wardrobe, because you have to sell yourself to somebody, whether it's your family or your business associates.

The Stage

In order to avoid a conflict of openings with Gertrude Lawrence in "Skylark," Walter Huston has gallantly agreed to set forward by a day the première of "Knickerbocker Holiday." The final schedule is as follows: "Knickerbocker Holiday," Sunday evening, April 23, at the Grand Opera house; "Skylark," Monday evening, April 24, at the Harris theater. Because of the change in schedule the first Wednesday matinée of "Knickerbocker Holiday" will be omitted, though those on May 3 and 10 will be retained.

"Big Blow," the federal theater production at the Great Northern theater, will close Sunday, April 23. A Yiddish version of Clifford Odets' "Awake and Sing" will follow it into the same house Friday, April 28.

Easter Parade Made Different by New Styles

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Definite results of an early and serious shopping excitement were more than apparent in the Easter parade. Despite the chilly weather, spring colors and spring clothes, as different from last year's models as are the new hats from last year's hats, proved that fashions are important.

For instance, the smartest coats were of the new fitted streamline variety, waistlines were accented by belts and full skirts. Shoulders were squared, not extreme, but enough to accentuate the rest of the silhouette. Colored tweeds were worn as dramatic contrasts, for one color top coats and short fur jackets were the most popular tops for suit, dress, or ensemble.

Prints are perennial charmers that seemingly no woman can resist. Big brimmed straw hats are scheduled for a successful season ahead—if these first showings foreshadow the rest of the year. Little girl streamers fluttering down the back, in white and black as well as colors, give the wide straw hats a new smartness and also make them good alternate selections for the be-veiled creations already beginning to weaken in favor.

White accessories stood out all over the parading throngs—crisp white gloves, all kinds of narrow white collars, white hats and clouds of white veiling. Even the corsages were of white flowers. White with navy first, white with black second, and white with copper brown third.

Gold color and chartreuse green were surprisingly popular. Entire costumes, with telling accents of black or navy blue, looked fresh and springlike, other smart outfits used either of these colors with more of the dark shades. Hats, gloves, blouses, and under dresses were especially effective in this chartreuse green shade, taking a small lead over gold and the rest of the pastels.

Good Morning!

A battle of the sexes wages hotly on the State-Lake's screen.

The tale sings of a vurr', vurr' wicked gangsters' "mouthpiece" who is disbarred because of his nefarious practices.

After which he becomes a menace in a wood pile, so to speak; the master mind benind the activities of a firm of lawyers who do his bidding and use as their blind an earnest, brilliant, and beautiful young woman lawyer.

Joan Carroll is, for a long time, in ignorance re the foul uses to which her personality and eloquence are being put. . . . Then—she falls in love with an up and coming young district attorney—and light starts to break across her horizon.

She aligns herself with the causes of right and—see picture for further data.

This film is excellently cast. Gail Patrick and Otto Kruger are glamorous and able in the leading rôles. Helen MacKellar does a beautiful bit as secretary to the disbaree and all other players fit well the grooves of their parts.

The piece sports considerable suspense and was well directed.

See you tomorrow.

Carla Bradley Makes Bow in Modern Dance

BY CECIL SMITH.

Carla Bradley, Chicago dancer, gave her debut recital at the Arts club last evening. In the last seasons of opera at Ravinia Miss Bradley was a member of Ruth Page's corps de ballet. Since then she has decided to abandon ballet in favor of a more modern style. Last evening's recital was both her first solo appearance in Chicago and her first account of her new approach.

Miss Bradley possesses the assets of an unusually lovely face, a lithe, graceful figure, and a natural ease of movement. She is able to carry out her artistic intentions effortlessly and with attractive spontaneity.

Yet most modern dancers would, I am sure, disclaim kinship with these artistic intentions. Her dancing is in the main too soft, and has not enough of the impact and sharpness of accent and design after which the modern dance strives. Her thematic material lacks punch, and she has no great flair for building a composition toward a climax.

Each piece is too much of a jerry-built structure of eye pictures connected by just enough movement to get from one to the next. In this regard her style follows the method of ballet, but being highly subjective has not the integrity of style and technique of ballet. Her dancing is not modern, for it does not aim at an unbroken flow of movement, nor does it derive strength and power from a recognition of the inexorable pull of gravity. She needs to submit her work to a great deal of external, impersonal criticism in order to learn to turn it from self-expression into wholly mature, communicative art.

The audience responded appreciatively to her charm, and indicated by its applause that it regarded her with warmth. Milton Wiggenhorn accompanied extremely competently.

Almanach de Gotha, 1939.

The 1939 edition of the Almanach de Gotha, famous record of European genealogy, is out, and although copies have not yet been received in Chicago, a recent issue of L'Illustration points out that the entire Austrian section, including the nine century old house of Hapsburg, has been omitted. The space formerly devoted to Austria has been given to the German reich.

• • •

The entire genealogy of both the Spanish and French noble houses is included. Although the volume was made up last November, it lists Madrid as the capital of Spain, and recognizes the government of Franco, passing over the president of the late republic. The civil war is referred to as the war between Nationalist Spain and the "soviet government of Barcelona."

The incident illustrates the Butterworth particular brand of dry humor. As it happened Mr. Butterworth was on his way to the Blackhawk, where he was besieged by autograph hunters.

Embryo Playwright.

The least promising letter received by Thoda Cocroft, director of the Coach House theater, as a result of the Marjorie Montgomery Baker $250 cash offer for the best comedy to be put on by the theater during the summer of 1939 reads:

"I have a song about a baby which would make a good play. If you are interested I can send you the song."

When Mrs. James Shakman, member of the Women's Symphony orchestra board, was on the west coast recently for the fair she went shopping for an old silver candle snuffer as a gift for a friend who lights her house entirely with candles. When she inquired for one in one of San Francisco's best shops the saleswoman looked so puzzled that Mrs. Shakman described a candle snuffer as best she could. A look of understanding broke over the saleswoman's face as she finished her description.

"Of course! What you want is a brandy sniffer," she said.

Transfer Pattern Decorates Cases for Purse Items

Etchers of City Have Delightful Annual Exhibit

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The twenty-ninth annual exhibition by the Chicago Society of Etchers has opened in the Roullier galleries, Fine Arts building. It is a delightful exhibit, varied in subject matter and constant in technique. Each print is admirable, some for one reason, some for another, many on every score.

As one walks slowly through the exhibit a few etchings clamor for recognition. For instance, the brilliant wave by Kerr Eby, "The Devil's Back." This, by the way, was awarded the Mrs. Frank G. Logan purchase prize. It is a most unusual and beautiful example of etching and aquatint, done with power and feeling.

The "Six Little Goats," by Thomas S. Handforth, is gay and springlike. One can hardly help smiling at them and with them as they caper and butt each other over the hillside. In more serious vein is the lovely study of two women, "The Bathers," by Alexander Mastro-Valerio. Another equally lovely print is the unusual "Silence," by Doel Reed, a beautiful composition. Swinging one to renewed gayety is the amusing "Insurance Man," by Blanche McVeigh, a Negro group, excellently done. The "Puppet Show, Back Stage," by Hubert Morley is intriguing. Morris Henry Hobbs has an engaging drypoint, "Clothes Pole Alley, New Orleans," with a very attractive group of mammy, little girl, and stray kitten in the foreground.

Elizabeth Orton Jones, who is a great favorite with a large public for the charm, and beauty, and humor of her work, shows "Sewing Circle," an enchanting picture of a group of little girls sitting on the floor cutting out and sewing dolls' clothes. It is in color and any one fond of children will yearn to take it home. It was awarded the Charles Muller prize.

"Cotton Bolls," by Bertha E. Jaques, is as beautiful a drypoint as this gifted etcher has ever given us. Stanley Anderson in "The Wheelwright" shows a characteristic interior with figures as smoothly handled as is all his work. It won the Anonymous Donor prize. The beautiful "Reflections at Finchingfield," by John Taylor Arms, received the Chicago Society of Etchers prize. The Mrs. William B. Storey prize went to "Korean Dancing Girl," by Cyrus LeRoy Baldridge.

The Blind Side

SYNOPSIS.

Ross Craddock's father turned Craddock House into flats and installed his old maid cousins, Mary and Lucy Craddock, in a flat apiece, on either side of the one occupied by Ross. After Mary's death Lucy prepared to take a trip, despite an order from Ross to vacate her flat because she objects to his attentions to her foolish young niece, Mavis Grey. Their cousin, Peter Renshaw, is staying in Mary's flat while he settles her estate. Lucy gives her cousin, Lee Fenton, permission to use her flat while she is away. Lee is in love with Peter. Rush, the porter, mutters belligerently to Lee against Ross. Mrs. Green, the charwoman, says she is ill and asks Lee for a drink of brandy. That evening Peter prevents Bobby Foster, Mavis' suitor, from making a scene in a night club where Mavis is with Ross. Peter is awakened in the night by a crash. He sees Mavis running from Ross' flat and Ross cut and bleeding. Mavis had thrown a decanter at him. Peter lets Mavis stay the rest of the night in his flat. Later he is again awakened and sees Mavis again coming from Ross' flat. She says she went to retrieve her purse. Lee awakens from a nightmare to find herself covered with blood. Her bloody footprints lead from Ross' door. Lee knows she walks in her sleep. In terror she washes away the blood stains and goes to tell Peter. Ross' valet arrives and finds Ross has been shot and killed. An old maid tenant tells how she saw Mavis coming from Ross' flat twice. Rush turns over to the police a cigaret case he found belonging to Bobby Foster. Lucy, who didn't go away after all, admits coming to Craddock House after 2 a. m. and seeing a figure hurrying out the door and going up to find Ross murdered. She fled after finding Mavis' compact. Lucy tells that Ross was married years before to an actress, that he was never divorced, and had lately stopped paying her. Bobby Foster disappears and he is charged with the murder. Mavis also disappears. Ross' ex-wife is found in Birmingham and she has an alibi for the time of the murder. Bobby Foster calls Peter and begs for a loan. Peter persuades him to give himself up. While Peter is with the inspector Mrs. Green calls. She says there is something she withheld because of fear. The inspector tells her to come right over.

INSTALMENT XXXVIII.

A SUSPECTED ABDUCTION.

Peter got home and was met by Lee on the landing.

"Peter, I thought you were never coming. The Pet Lamb has been ringing up from Scotland Yard—twice."

Peter felt cold about the feet. He said, "What did he want?" and Lee pulled him into the hall and shut the door. Even then she spoke in a whisper.

"He wanted to know whether Rush was at home—Rush, Peter. And when I said no, he always had Saturday afternoon and evening off—you know he goes to see Ellen and her husband, and a sort of cousin person comes in to sit with Mrs. Rush—the Lamb asked when he would be in, and I said half past ten because he always puts Mrs. Rush to bed then. And then he wanted to know whether you had got back."

"When was this?"

"About twenty minutes ago. And he said please would I go down and get him Ellen's address from Mrs. Rush, so I did. And about five minutes ago he rang up again and wanted to know whether you had come in."

"I can't imagine what he wants—I was with him an hour ago. But I know what I want, and that's a long, cold drink. Also I want to talk to Lucinda—presently, when I feel strong enough. O, I suppose I had better get old Lamb over first."

Lee stood waiting whilst he rang up and was put through. She waited for Peter to speak, but after he had given his name and said, "I hear you rang me up," all the talk seemed to be coming from the other end of the line. She saw Peter's eyebrows go up, and at last she heard him say, "Yes, I suppose it took me about an hour. I sat in the park for a bit."

There was another interval. Then Peter said pleasantly, "One isn't always thinking about an alibi, you know." He jabbed the receiver back upon its hook, turned a pale, determined countenance on Lee and said:

"Lamb really has gone off the deep end. He seems to think that [a] Rush, [b] I, or [c] Rush and I, have abducted Mrs. Green."

Lee stared back. It must be a joke, but she began to feel frightened. She said, "Why?" and Peter came and put an arm round her waist.

"An elopement with Mrs. Green sounds grim, doesn't it?"

"Is it a joke? I—I don't like it very much."

"No, it's not a joke. He's quite serious. You see, when I was with him Mrs. Green rang up. She said she'd got something to tell—about Ross' murder—and old Lamb told her to come right along and spill the beans. She was speaking from Charing Cross an hour and a half ago. It couldn't possibly have taken her more than ten minutes to get to Scotland Yard, but she never turned up. After about half an hour or so he sent a minion down to where she lives. The minion had just rung up, and there's no sign of her either at the house where she lodges or at the local pub which, I gather, sees a good deal of her in her off time.

"Lamb says she was all set to come and see him, and if she didn't come, why didn't she? And he's got an answer all ready, because she told him she was afraid of being done in. And by whom? Answer quite pat again, because she told him that too. By Rush, and by me. So if Mrs. Green has by any chance come to a sticky end, Lamb will probably do his best to hang us both."

Lee pushed him away.

"I wish you wouldn't say things like that!"

"Well, Rush may have an alibi, but I haven't. I went and mooned in the park, and there I hatched a perfectly monstrous idea, and I want to talk to Lucinda about it, so come along."

Lucy Craddock looked up as they came in.

"Do you know, I think I was almost asleep."

Peter brought a footstool and sat down upon it. Lee went over to the window and stood there staring out.

"Lucinda, do you think you could come over all reminiscent and chatty?"

Lucy Craddock fluttered.

"My dear boy—of course—if there is anything you want to know—"

Peter hugged his knees.

"There is. I want to have a nice heart-to-heart gossip about Aggie Crouch—Rosalia La Fay—Ross' wife. I want you to spread yourself."

"But, my dear, I know so little. Mary and I were naturally most interested, but poor John was so much upset that he only told us the barest facts, and his wife refused to talk about it at all."

"Now, Lucinda, don't tell me that you and Mary just sat down under that. After all the lady was a public character. Do you mean to tell me that you didn't go out into the highways and byways and—well, glean?"

Lucy Craddock bridled.

"O, my dear boy, that sounds as if we were two inquisitive old maids!"

"Why shouldn't one be inquisitive? I am, desperately, about Aggie—Rosalie—Craddock. What did you find out?"

"Very little," said Lucy in a regretful voice. "Mary thought if we went to the theatrical agencies—but we didn't know their names of course, so we—we—well, my dear boy, we employed some one."

Peter's eyes danced for a moment.

"A detective? O, Lucinda!"

Lucy blushed.

"O, no, indeed—a private inquiry agent—discretion guaranteed—really quite a gentlemanly man. And all he found out was that she had a sister married to a corn-chandler in Hoxton, and that there was nothing against either of their characters—which of course was very disappointing."

Peter roared with laughter.

"Lucinda, you're a jewel!"

"O but—my dear boy—I didn't mean that at all. I mean—well, of course one wouldn't have wanted her to have done anything dreadful, but of course after all that trouble and expense—well, you know what I mean."

"Perfectly," said Peter. "And was that all?"

"Except the photographs," said Lucy Craddock in an abstracted voice. "Now I wonder whether dear Mary kept the photographs."

"I should think," said Peter out of a bitter experience, "that Mary always kept everything."

"They were in a yellow cardboard box, tied up with the ribbon from a most beautiful box of chocolates which John gave us for Christmas that year. I remember Mary wouldn't put them in the chocolate box because she said it was too good for pictures of Aggie Crouch, so she used it for her handkerchiefs."

Peter's pulses jumped.

"The bulging yellow box—In the bottom of the wardrobe?"

Lucy nodded.

"Yes, that's where they'll be, if she kept them—and she always kept everything."

"I don't want to spank or punish my little girl. But how can I get her to obey?"

For some time we have been devoting articles to the subject of obedience. We answered questions such as, "Do we want obedience?" and "Why do we want obedience?" "What is obedience?" and "What should a mother feel, as well as do, in order to obtain obedience from her children?"

Many of the answers had to do with bedrock, some with surface details, or, shall we say, techniques? There are a few more suggestions, entirely practical ones, that I want to make today as our last word, for the present, on this subject of obedience.

[a] You need not use a cross or stern voice and manner to obtain obedience. You're not a commanding officer, you're your child's friend simply trying to gain his coöperation in accomplishing certain things that have to be done. If you speak in this latter way, you invest the many routines of your little boy's or girl's life with pleasantness, and presto! they are accomplished. His life is so largely made up of these necessary acts that they must be presented as things to enjoy.

[b] Let your approval shine on your child when a difficult point has been won.

[c] Here's another suggestion. If you really enjoy your child, I mean his companionship as a person, and the interesting, ever-changingness of him, the way to obedience is smoothed as if by magic.

[d] Another bit of advice is to have a sense of fun, of play, of humor always on tap. A laughting, cheerful, light-hearted mother can get anywhere with a child, if, of course, she is provided with a fine store of common sense, for, besides being a playmate, she has to be guide and guardian.

[e] This is worth mentioning, too: If you do meet with resistance, don't immediately fly up in the air mentally and think, "O! Disobedience! The beginning of defiance! Instead, allow a little more time for the idea to sink in, or explain, or do a little glamourizing of the next thing to be done, or just tell a story or make a little game of what's afoot. Above all, don't be dully businesslike about the many physical details of a young child's life.

Does all this and, in fact, the advice of this series of articles, seem like a lot of trouble? It isn't half as much trouble as disobedience would be. And be sure that soon your child will learn the habit of obeying. You've lubricated the wheels of everyday existence, and life moves along very smoothly and happily for you both.

The Winner

Congratulations, lovely lady! You've won a victory from that drawn-looking girl you were a month ago—heartbroken about your unattractive tired-out complexion. Then one lucky day you decided to try Dioxogen Cream, the only face cream that releases active oxygen right onto your skin . . .

You use this wonderful cleansing and toning cream to cleanse off your make-up. Wipe away. Then apply a little more Dioxogen Cream and leave it on a few minutes. Soon you feel its active oxygen breaking free on your skin—so refreshing and stimulating. Like a tonic on your skin! You've just given that nice face of yours an oxygen beauty pick-up. Your skin feels better! And looks better!

Try a month of tonic beauty pick-ups with Dioxogen Cream—in the evening—and before you go to bed. You'll see the radiance of a clear fresh skin reflected in the sparkle of men's eyes. Dioxogen Cream costs no more than ordinary cold cream. Get a jar at your drug store today. For a generous trial size send 10 cents to "Dioxogen Cream," 13 Fourth Ave., New York City.

School Conference to Seek Further Cut in Truancy

How can truancy be stopped? That will be the subject of a meeting between Superintendent of Schools Johnson, school officials, and board members Thursday morning. Dr. Johnson said yesterday that Chicago has less of a truancy problem than other large cities, but added that it can be decreased. "We want to find out the causes of all truancies and take steps to correct them," he said.

Notre Dame Club to Mark Universal Night Monday

The Chicago Club of the University of Notre Dame will meet for the annual universal Notre Dame night at the Knickerbocker hotel next Monday night. The speakers will be Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, near Omaha, Neb.; Harry Stuhldreher, director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin, and Arch Ward, sports editor of THE TRIBUNE.

52,259 Litter Lawn of White House at Annual Easter Party

Washington, D. C., April 10.—(AP)—The Easter egg rolling brought 52,259 children and adults to the private grounds of the White House today.

Bands played. A magician did tricks. Crowds gathered about a Punch and Judy show. Everywhere, there were children and eggs—eggs crunched underfoot, smeared on young faces, sailing between stately old White House trees and rolling down slopes.

Thousands spread their lunches on the ground. President Roosevelt appeared on the White House portico, waved and said, that he wished he could "be down there with you." Mrs. Roosevelt appeared four times during the pleasant sunny day.

The roll has been an annual event at the White House except for the world war years, since 1878.

Outside the White House gates, some children were doing a flourishing business. Since adults were not admitted until 3 o'clock unless accompanied by their children, the youngsters successfully demanded from a dime to a dollar for taking grownups in.

While the thousands frolicked on the lawn, Mrs. Roosevelt entertained 20 sons and daughters of her friends at a children's party inside the White House. Led by 6 year old Diane Hopkins, daughter of Secretary of Commerce Hopkins, the small guests came out on a portico to watch the almost unbelievable picture on the lawn.

Other official statistics for the day: Children receiving first aid for abrasions, 10; women fainting, 20; children lost, 78 [all safely restored to their parents]; workmen called to clean up when the guests left, 25.

The Housewife

If your living room needs a few touches of color why not treat it to some of those artistic and exotic hand-made objects from Persia? We saw the other day some shallow bowls and dishes and plates in a deep, vibrant green tone that fairly sang. You can't find this same color in any other wares.

Then, there are the stunning, hammered and chased Persian copper bowls and jugs and trays. These have the appearance of being hundreds of years old. There are, too, ceramic objects: Beautifully colored figures of court minstrels and poets and antlered deer. There are boxes for cigarets and ash trays, and tall cups without handles that used to be used to drink buttermilk. All are the sort of things artists love to paint. And the prices are most reasonable.

"Must" for Your Wardrobe

WOMAN'S AND MISS' FROCK.

Almost a "must" for your spring and early summer wardrobe is this modified version of the perennially popular shirtwaist frock. It is ideal for school and business girls, and may be worn for both active and spectator sports.

At the left the artist has sketched a version in striped material. The bodice uses the stripes vertically, and the skirt employs them on the diagonal. The binding on the neckline and the cuffs on the short tailored sleeves use the stripes in still other positions. With the fabric doing most of the honors, little trimming is needed, but buttons arranged in novel formation and a contrasting belt may be added for finish.

Polka dots give a youthful effect to the other version, with its Peter Pan collar and twin pockets that are buttoned to match the buttons on the closing. A self-fabric belt may be used. Plain colors and prints may be used for either of these versions, too.

Style No. 3416 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, and 20, and 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 3½ yards of 39 inch material.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central Station, NEW YORK CITY, inclosing 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly.

The Girl Who Belittles Is Unpopular One

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright, 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Some of those young women who write us that they can attract an escort for an occasion or two and then are dropped, might look into a suggestion offered by one popular man in the public eye. He hints that girls often are dropped because they are belittlers. He hears them belittling another girl, or a man, or men in general. A "dead-end street" for the girls who travel it, is the gentleman's verdict.

It's Singer Lanny Ross from whom we hear the suggestion that you should be a builder-upper, never a belittler, if you want to create that warm feeling about you that influences friends in your behalf.

The girl who can give credit where credit is due is a sought after companion he observes, out of a widely traveled experience, and a much fêted one. Such girls can be depended upon to cheer and make others comfortable.

The belittler, our authority observes, is a one-eyed creature, can't see beyond her own critical little nose. She short changes herself in consequence.

When a man, to be specific, comments on the exceptional good looks of a passing woman, or of another woman in the social gathering, his fair companion would be wiser to agree with said man, and agree with him enthusiastically even though her personal opinion differs from his. When she says, instead: "I don't think so at all. Her eyes are too small, her dress dated, her hat's a mess," she is quickly relegated to the sour grape sisterhood against whom the man is instinctively prejudiced. Her young man concludes that she is an envious minx and also that she thinks he has no taste or judgment about women's appearance. A fatal blow, this latter, to masculine pride, you know, girls.

Now, if the girl has the good sense to agree with him, or even goes him one better in enthusiastic praise, he is right there to tell his fair one that the other may be attractive, but she can't compare to present company.

Mr. Ross is even more specific in connection with the belittler. The greatest irritant he names as the guest who makes disparaging remarks about the party while homeward bound. After partaking of the host's or hostess' hospitality, good taste decrees that no disparaging remarks should be expressed. One can always stay away from a party if one does not like the person entertaining.

WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Bilger of Hinsdale announce the marriage last Saturday of their daughter, Ernestine, to George H. Stellman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stellman of Chicago. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of relatives and close friends. The Rev. Wilfrid A. Rowell, pastor of the Union church, Hinsdale, and Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, dean of the Rockefeller Memorial chapel of the University of Chicago, officiated.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage next Saturday of Miss Irene Levis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Levis of Forest Hills, N. Y., to Hugh Badger Siddall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Siddall of Evanston. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening, Bishop George Craig Stewart officiating. A reception will follow at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Announcement is made of the marriage last Saturday of Anzonette Vincent Nicholas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley Vincent Nicholas of New York, formerly of Evanston, to John Townsen Lees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lees of Bethlehem, Pa.

Mrs. E. W. Childs of Hinsdale announces the marriage on Jan. 23 of her daughter, Alberta, to G. H. Shefelbine of Bolivia, South America. The ceremony took place in Chicago and Mr. Shefelbine returned immediately to South America. His bride will join him in Bolivia early this summer.

Deborah Club Will Give Party at State Hospital

The Deborah Woman's club will give a party tomorrow for the 1,200 patients at the Chicago State Hospital for the Insane. An orchestra will play and each patient will receive fruit, candy, and tobacco. Many radios have been installed in various wards of the hospital by members of the Deborah club. Mrs. Ludwig Siegel is chairman.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Harlan of Atlantic, Ia., formerly of Kenilworth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethelbel, to Roy E. Knauer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Knauer of Kenilworth. The announcement was made at a cocktail party at the home of Miss Harlan's sister, Mrs. Theodore Wickman, in Wilmette. The wedding will take place early in June.

Everybody enjoys the "Dutch lunch" served at a party late in the evening. The guests select what they want to eat from a tableful of foods which the hostess has provided, and the informality of this procedure contributes much to the enjoyment of both food and company.

The Dutch lunch is easy on the hostess, too. Almost all foods are of the type which may be prepared in advance. There is no need for dashings to and from the kitchen, if everything has been well planned. And self-service eliminates much of the hard work of such a party, leaving the hostess free to mingle with the guests, as carefree as they.

These menus vary from the very informal, no-cooking kind of late lunch to the daintier kind which requires more preparation.

DUTCH LUNCHES.

I.

Cheese—Aged Swiss, Herkimer, Camembert, Process Pimiento, Cream Cheese, or Another Spread
Crackers and Bread—Soda Crackers, Rye and Whole Wheat Sandwich Breads
Relishes—Sliced Onions, Olives, Sliced Tomatoes, Sardines or Anchovies, Sweet Pickles, Celery

V.

Veal and Vegetable Salad
Cottage Cheese with Chives and Pimiento in Tomato Aspic Ring
Celery, Radishes, Sliced Pickles
Hot Buttered Rolls
Devil's Food Sandwiches
Coffee

Devil's food sandwiches are devil's food cup cakes which have been split and filled with marshmallow frosting.

The only last minute preparation involved in any of these menus is coffee making and seeing that rolls, when they are included, are well warmed. Everything else may be ready and waiting for assembly on the buffet table.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1939: By Ely Culbertson.]

Most good players realize that they must pay some attention to the bids made by the opponents. If the bids are more or less "honest" they serve to locate high cards, and that information may be invaluable during the course of the play. Only the exceptionally fine player, however, realizes the importance of the bids which the opponents didn't make! That may sound far-fetched, but note its effect on the play of today's hand.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	Pass	1 heart
Pass	1 no trump	Pass	4 hearts
Pass	Pass	Pass

South might have opened the bidding with two hearts, his hand being a borderline case, but he decided that there couldn't be a game unless his partner could respond to a one bid. At his second turn he had to choose between three no trump and four hearts. He chose the latter largely because his partner was not a very good player.

West led the king of clubs, dummy played low, and East began an echo with the ten. It was at this point that South began to think about the bids which his opponents had failed to make. His thoughts ran something like this:

"Then ten of clubs looks like a singleton or the beginning of a highlow. Uh-uh. Can't be a singleton. West never would pass over my one heart if he had six clubs to the king-queen-jack. That bird hates to pass. So West has five clubs to the king-queen-jack. That makes it a cinch that he hasn't the ace of spades. He certainly wouldn't pass twice with that.

"Holy cats! How am I going to make this hand if the ace of spades is 'wrong'? I'll never get to dummy to get discards on the diamonds . . . unless the ten of hearts drops . . . or unless I get a little help from West. Well, it's worth a try."

After this brief analysis South played a low club on West's king. West naturally continued with the queen of clubs and South won with the ace. He had achieved his first plan of exhausting East's clubs by means of the holdup. South next cashed the ace and king of trumps, but the ten stubbornly refused to drop. Now everything depended on getting West to coöperate, so South drew the last trump and cashed the ace and king of diamonds.

Declarer then led the deuce of spades and West obligingly played the six. That was exactly what South had been hoping for. Dummy played the seven of spades, forcing East to win the trick. Defense now was hopeless. East could not prevent dummy from getting the lead to cash the queen and jack of diamonds.

Of course, the contract should have been defeated. West should have put in the eight of spades. But give South credit for a logical interpretation of West's failure to bid. No mistake by West would give South his contract if South made the "normal" play of going up with the spade king.

CHICAGO U. PUTS NEW SET OF EYES ON EARTHQUAKES

Replaces Its Seismograph with Improved Unit.

Twenty-four hours a day, in a dark basement room of Rosenwald hall on the University of Chicago campus, two tiny beams of light keep a careful eye on the world's earthquake situation.

Any disturbance of the earth, from one so slight it can't be felt by residents of the disturbed area, to one which tumbles buildings and brings death to hundreds, causes one or both of the beams of light to record variations on a sheet of photographic paper.

How Instrument Operates.

The instruments were installed yesterday. They are mounted on a concrete column which runs down sixty-one feet to bed rock. The work of assembling them was directed by James H. Nelson of the coast and geodetic survey and Milton Swenson, in charge of the United States weather bureau at the university. Swenson has been in charge of previous seismographs which this one will replace.

The seismograph includes a recording device and two seismometers, one to register east and west disturbances, the other for north and south tremors.

From beneath the recording device, which is a revolving drum carrying a sheet of light-sensitive paper, shine two tiny pencils of light. One strikes a small mirror mounted on top of the east-west seismometer. It is reflected downward and strikes a mirror delicately balanced atop a paddle immersed in oil. This oil bath is fixed to a heavy weight which hangs like a pendulum on a jeweled pivot.

Both Operate Alike.

When the earth is rocked by an earthquake, the sixty-one foot concrete column and the instruments mounted on it rock, but the inertia of the heavy weight keeps it from moving. As the rest of the instrument moves the tiny mirror and its paddlelike support are agitated against the unmoving weight, which supports the oil bath, and the mirror moves, deflecting the ray of light which falls on the mirror. Ordinarily this mirror throws the beam back to the mirror from which it was reflected, and thence through a long lens which focuses it onto the photosensitive paper, where it traces an even line. But when the mirror is agitated the line becomes uneven, in proportion to the severity and length of the earthquake shocks.

The second ray of light strikes a mirror midway, which turns it at an angle, and reflects it into the north-south seismometer, which operates exactly like the other device.

The instrument has a magnification of 350 times beyond that felt by the instrument. The photographic sheet is developed once each twenty-four hours. Any tremor registered is sent to Washington, where scientists compare the Chicago record with others and locate the quake. Swenson, however, can sometimes determine the source of the disturbance himself.

Previous seismographs at the university have recorded about twenty or twenty-five quakes a year.

Objects to Fish

MRS. ELIZABETH TELL.

Judge Stanley H. Klarkowski yesterday said he is opposed to the payment of alimony or separate maintenance for any length of time. Then he granted $3 a week separate maintenance to Mrs. Elizabeth Tell, 24 years old, 1722 Hudson avenue. She complained that her husband, Paul, a hairdresser, struck her when she objected to his bringing home a tank of fish. Mrs. Tell said she didn't like fish.

FRAUD CHARGED IN PENDERGAST INSURANCE DEAL

Cry Raised in Wake of Tax Indictments.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 10.—[Special.]—Charges of fraud were raised in federal court here today in the settlement of Missouri's $9,500,000 fire insurance rate controversy.

The charges came as an aftermath of the income tax indictment Friday of Thomas J. Pendergast, Democratic boss of Kansas City, and R. E. O'Malley, former state insurance superintendent. The two were accused of having evaded income tax payments on large sums of money they received in the division of a mysterious fund following the widely criticized insurance compromise.

The $9,500,000 was a cash fund. It consisted of a portion of fire insurance premiums in dispute between the policyholders and the companies and impounded by court order during thirty years of litigation over rate changes ordered by O'Malley in 1922.

Compromised in 1935.

O'Malley and the insurance companies involved finally came to an agreement in 1935. Under their compromise policyholders got 20 per cent of the impounded money and the insurance companies 80 per cent. The income tax indictments charged that Pendergast received $315,000 and O'Malley $62,000 as a result of the settlement.

A suit contesting the compromise was filed in the federal court here three months ago by the policyholders. They based their original plea on the contention that O'Malley had no right to represent them. They asked that the insurance companies surrender the entire fund to them.

Following the Pendergast and O'Malley indictments last week, a new brief was filed in behalf of the policyholders by their attorney, James Blair, former Supreme court judge. It charged that the 20-80 compromise was entered into in bad faith and tainted with fraud.

Push War on Pendergast.

The new court action focused attention on the fact that the war against Pendergast is being pushed on every conceivable front. Opponents of the Democratic dictator in his own party have promised that no stone will be left unturned to bring about the downfall of Pendergast's long powerful machine.

Gov. Lloyd C. Stark, who is engaged in a war with Pendergast for Democratic control of Missouri, is credited with leading or instigating the attacks which now threaten the existence of one of the most powerful political organizations in the country.

Democratic leaders say it is quite possible the factional party war may result in the extinction of the Pendergast machine, which is one of the three omnipotent personal political machines remaining in the United States. Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City and Ed Crump of Memphis are the other examples of this rapidly disappearing type of dictatorship.

Administration Aid Given.

The indictments of Pendergast and O'Malley were obtained by a Democratic United States attorney, Maurice M. Milligan, an appointee of President Roosevelt. It is reported he received considerable help from Washington in the matter.

Another indication that national Democratic party leaders may have turned against Pendergast was found in the visit of Attorney General Frank Murphy to Kansas City just before the indictments were returned. He apparently had knowledge of the forthcoming action.

There have been reports that Stark consulted President Roosevelt before the start of the investigation which resulted in Pendergast's indicement. The governor is a staunch supporter of the President and is believed to have the friendship of the White House.

Republicans Hopeful.

The wrecking of the Pendergast machine, which in past years could always be counted upon to produce 100,000 votes for any Democratic candidates, coupled with the likelihood of Democratic factional contests in many parts of the state, have given hope to Republicans that Missouri's electoral vote may go to the Republican nominee for President in 1940. They admit this is only a hope at present, but they believe it will be justified by future developments.

BRITISH DESTROYER SENT TO AID OF SHIP SEIZED BY JAPANESE

HONGKONG, April 10.—(AP)—British authorities today dispatched the destroyer Thracian to Swatow to seek release of the Sagres, a vessel seized by the Japanese while flying the British flag. The Japanese took the Sagres near the port of Swatow, which is approximately 200 miles northeast of Hongkong.

British officials were trying to determine the actual present nationality of the vessel. When stopped, the Sagres was operating on the schedule of the British Douglas company, but her ownership was involved by previous Japanese, Portuguese, and Chinese registries.

Lloyd's register lists the Sagres as a vessel of 2,333 tons, owned by the Kin Hong Steamship Company, Ltd., and registered at Hongkong.

QUIZ 20 WITHOUT GETTING CLEW TO HAYDEN KILLERS

Police questioned more than twenty persons yesterday in the investigation of the slaying of Charles Hayden, walkathon promoter, who was shot and fatally wounded Sunday morning near the Park Casino ballroom, 3825 Madison street. None was able to give a clew to the identity of the killers.

It is believed Hayden was the victim of bandits who attempted to rob him. George Caponi, manager of a lunch room in the ballroom, told detectives that Hayden appeared to be worrying "about something" for the last three weeks.

Hayden left the casino shortly before the shooting wearing a $1,500 diamond ring. He had the ring and a small amount of money when he was found wounded. He said two men, who drove away in a green car, shot him.

I KNOW FOUR ROSES IS ALL WHISKEY AT LEAST 4 YEARS OLD— WHY ISN'T IT BOTTLED-IN-BOND?

THE ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION, DICK, TELLS YOU WHY FOUR ROSES IS CALLED AMERICA'S FINEST WHISKEY!

HERE IS THE ANSWER

1 All of the whiskies that go into Four Roses are at least 4 years old—old enough to be bottled in bond. But we don't bottle them in bond because...

2 We think it better to make these whiskies lighter and milder by reducing them to 90 proof (instead of the stronger 100 proof which bottled-in-bond whiskies must be)—and because...

3 Our 74 years' experience has taught us that the finest whiskey is made by combining several fine whiskies into one whiskey that's finer still.

4 Aging improves a good whiskey, but it can't make a poor whiskey good. So all the whiskies in Four Roses are outstandingly good to start with.

5 Four Roses is ALL whiskey—with the mellowness of age, and the greatness that only generations of distilling skill can give. Compare it with any other whiskey made!

PIRATES RALLY AGAINST LYONS, THUMP HERRING

Rookie Yields 6 Hits in Three Innings.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Shreveport, La., April 10.—The 38 year old Ted Lyons sparkled today with the cunning born of experience, but it proved a wasted effort. For five innings he cracked a stinging whip, weakened a bit in the sixth and then departed with no worse than a tie charged against him. But his successor, Art Herring, the bald rookie, had nothing with which to annoy Pittsburgh's Pirates and the National leaguers scampered off with a 7 to 3 triumph over the White Sox.

Lyons, who wouldn't admit it but probably wanted to prove he was as logical an opening day candidate as John Rigney, who on Saturday held Cleveland's Indians to four hits in seven innings, simply remained on the job too long. For five innings he was such a master that only one hit and pass delayed his methodical progress. In the sixth he was victimized by Lloyd Waner, Johnny Rizzo, Gus Suhr, and Floyd Young and the peppering from this quartet netted three runs as well as a slight lead which the Sox promptly equalized into a tie. But six hits off Herring in the last three innings proved disastrous.

Walker Gets Pair Again.

The Sox weren't exactly backward about their hitting, but they didn't get maximum results from their efforts. The one exception to this was in the second when they inaugurated the day's production to give Lyons a two run lead. A triple, single, and double made up this foray. It represented the bulk of five hits off Russ Bauers in as many innings. In the sixth when Truett Sewell relieved Bauers, the Sox fashioned two passes and a safe bunt with none out and later a double, but this batch netted only the run needed to tie. Two more hits and a pass in the seventh produced nothing and that was their concluding display.

Gerald Walker, whose hitting earlier in the swing through the Uncle Tom's Cabin circuit aroused fears that Manager James Dykes had placed too much faith in the former Tiger fly chaser, had another satisfactory afternoon, although he did fade out twice with mates on the bases. His day's contribution was a pair of doubles, neither of which figured in the rungetting. But he has had a pair of hits for each of the last five games, so perhaps he is gradually approaching a state of effectiveness.

Send Connors Away.

Mervin Connors, the muscular boy who hit three homers in one game against the Athletics last fall, was released under option today to the Shreveport team with which he played in 1936. Manager Jimmy Dykes still believes Connors has unusual hitting possibilities, but that he has much to learn about fielding around first base and that he hasn't the pep demanded of big leaguers.

Al Bejma was at second base for the Sox, Eric McNair having been awarded a vacation for his noble efforts in the spring games. McNair went to his home in Meridian, Miss., for a couple of days.

Tomorrow's Sox-Pirates game will be played in Texarkana, with John Whitehead starting for Chicago and Bill Clemenson for Pittsburgh.

The Sox opened production by taking a two run lead in the second. Kuhel caromed a triple off the fence in the right center field corner. Bejma produced a single which Vaughan couldn't head off and Kuhel scored. Rensa flied to L. Waner, but Lyons gave assistance to his own cause by doubling to left center, Bejma scoring from first. Owen popped to Suhr, then a pass to Steinbacher filled the bases. The best Walker could do under these conditions was to ground to Vaughan to force Steinbacher at second.

Rensa Has No Luck.

Lyons' one hit performance ended in the sixth when L. Waner singled to right to launch the three run episode. After Waner had been forced by Manush, Rizzo singled to left. Lyons almost got into the clear when Vaughan popped to Kuhel, but Suhr cluttered up the proceedings by doubling to right, scoring Manush. Then Young singled to center, sending both Rizzo and Suhr home to give the Pirates a 3 to 2 lead.

The first thing Sewell did when he took over the Pirate pitching in the sixth was to walk Rosenthal and Kuhel, Bejma bunted, but Sewell was so surprised over this maneuver that he let the ball roll for a hit, filling the bases. Rensa gave the ball a wicked ride, but it sailed straight into the hands of Brubaker, who stepped on third to double Rosenthal. Radcliff, batting for Lyons, doubled to left to score Kuhel with the tying run. Bejma also would have scored on the hit, but fell flat on his face after rounding third and had to return to that base. This splurge ended when Owen fanned.

Berres was the first man to face Herring in the seventh and he pro-

Wham! And the Ball Sailed 400 Feet for a Home Run

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

This baseball, pitched by the Cubs' Bill Lee in Dallas yesterday, looked big to Harlond Clift and the Browns' third baseman slugged it 400 feet for a home run, one of two hits in the fourth inning that robbed the Chicago ace of a shutout. Gus Mancuso is the catcher.

Stratton Game Advance Sale Nears $10,000

Advance sale for the Monty Stratton benefit game Monday in Comiskey park between the White Sox and the Cubs is nearing $10,000, Harry Grabiner, vice president of the Sox, said last night.

But the strong box can hold much more than that, he added. All receipts will be presented to Stratton, White Sox pitching star, who lost his right leg in a hunting accident last fall. There still are 1,000 box seats unsold and an unlimited number of grandstand seats is available. Children will be admitted to the grandstand for 55 cents.

Stratton will arrive here Friday. That night he will be honored by the Forty-seventh and Drexel street Businessmen's association.

The Ford Motor company has purchased a block of 500 tickets, presenting them to employés as gifts. Other firms also have bought tickets for their employés, Grabiner said.

Tickets are on sale at Comiskey park, the Cubs' offices in the Wrigley building, the Hub and the Goldblatt stores. Box seats are $1.65, grandstands $1.10.

Chipped Bone Removed from LaMaster's Arm

St. Louis, Mo., April 10.—[Special.]—Dr. Robert Hyland today removed a piece of chipped bone from the left elbow of Wayne LaMaster, and stated that the Brooklyn southpaw pitcher would be forced to remain idle for a month or six weeks.

Rain Postpones All High School Games

All games scheduled in the Chicago Public High School Baseball league yesterday were postponed because of wet grounds. Washburne will play at Steinmetz today.

Toronto Out to Take Cup Lead Tonight

TORONTO, Ont., April 10.—(AP)—The Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs, accompanied into town by a blizzard, tonight looked forward to playing before a capacity house of about 15,000 when they renew their struggle for the National Hockey league's Stanley cup in Maple Leaf Gardens tomorrow.

The snowstorm kept all but a handful of fans from greeting the players at the railway station, but the chilly reception didn't prevent Manager Conny Smythe of Toronto from issuing a confident statement.

"We're on the upgrade and the Bruins are going down," said Smythe. "We've each got one victory now but our boys were only getting into stride when we left Boston."

The Leafs backed up their pilot. Having squared the series with a 3 to 2 overtime triumph Sunday night, they predicted they would take the two games here tomorrow and Thursday nights, then finish the best-of-seven game series in Boston next Sunday.

Manager Art Ross of the Bruins expressed satisfaction with his club's showing so far and said he was counting on no worse than an even break in the two Toronto games.

Canzoneri Boxes Vaughn in New York Tonight

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Tony Canzoneri, former world lightweight champion, now engaged in a comeback, will oppose Jimmy Vaughn of Cleveland, in an eight round feature bout in the New York Coliseum tomorrow night.

No Operation Necessary on Galan's Knee

Augie Galan's knee injury was revealed yesterday as being so similar to Dick Bartell's ankle ailment that the identical method of treatment was prescribed by Dr. John F. Davis after he had studied X-rays of the little outfielder's knee.

In definitly stating there was no need for surgery, Dr. Davis ordered daily sessions of heat, hot water, and diathermic treatments. He said pictures revealed irritation of soft tissues around the knee joint. The most explicit statement he would make on the length of Augie's hospital tenure was:

"I think he'll be out of there pretty quick. There is no bone involvement. Surgery definitly is not waranted. Rest and the course of treatment we are using on Bartell should take care of the knee."

Meanwhile, both of the hospitalized Cubs are carrying on like a pair of caged lions. Bartell pleaded to be released yesterday.

There is a possibility the shortstop will be released today or tomorrow. He has been walking around the hospital the last two days. It is still doubtful, though, whether either Bartell or Galan will get into a uniform during the series with the White Sox starting Friday.

"I asked Dr. Davis how long I would have to stay in here," said Galan, "but he just gave me a kind of silly grin."

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Dallas, Tex., April 10.—Bill Lee, ace of the National league hurling gentlemen, today gracefully advanced in his preparation for the season opener in Wrigley field a week from tomorrow by presiding, more or less leisurely, at a 10 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Bill fanned six and walked the first batsman only and yielded eight hits.

Lee for a time found himself on the short end of the score. The first three runs of the game were homers. Phil Cavarretta knocked one in the second inning, but Big Bill and his associates went behind when Harlond Clift and Johnny Berardino smacked the ball out of the park in the fourth inning.

Cubs Knock Out Van Atta.

The 2 to 1 tabulation against the league's No. 1 pitcher infuriated the Cubs, so, in their end of the fourth the Cubs put six runs across the plate, only two of which were needed for victory. Gus Mancuso started things with a single off Russ Van Atta, but was forced by Steve Mesner. Lee walked, after which Stan Hack doubled to right center, scoring Mesner with the tying run. Bill Herman followed with a homer over the left field screen, scoring behind Lee and Hack.

Jim Gleeson walked and Van Atta was replaced by Bob Muncrief. Hank Leiber singled to center and Joe Marty doubled, scoring Gleeson and Leiber. Cavarretta walked, but Mancuso, up the second time, ended the rioting by hitting into a double play.

If Bill had any worries early in the game, they vanished after the big fourth inning. He allowed only four hits thereafter.

Cubs Continue Scoring.

The Cubs, on the other hand, kept right on going after their splurge. They made a run in the fifth on doubles by Mesner and Herman, another without the aid of a hit in the sixth and their final counter in the seventh on a single by Mesner and Woody English's double, this eight inning production being at the expense of Pitcher Fred Johnson.

The outcome gave the Cubs a 2 to 1 edge over the Browns and an 8 to 5 advantage in competition with American league foes, which probably makes National League President Ford Frick very, very happy. The champions have won 13 and lost 7 in American, National, and Pacific Coast league competition this spring.

Play in Wichita Today.

The Cubs and Browns will play in Wichita, Kas., tomorrow. Gene Lillard and Buck Newsom, starting pitchers in last Friday's 2 to 2 tie in Corpus Christi, Tex., will pitch. Buck allowed the Cubs only one hit in six innings on that occasion, but was trailing 2 to 0 when he left the arena. Gabby Hartnett will catch tomorrow.

This being Dizzy Dean's home town, he was not readily available for interviews until he appeared at the ball park. Diz felt no ill effects from his two inning workout yesterday.

Since Diz's performance yesterday every Cub has passed an opinion on his status. Most significant of the observers, perhaps, was Gus Mancuso, who caught him. Gus said he was much faster than at any time he saw him last year and had more stuff otherwise. He predicted a complete comeback for the great man.

VETERAN JOCKEY AND FLORIDA HAVE BIG DAY TOGETHER

Ensor Has Triple on Fair Fund Tropical Card.

Coral Gables, Fla., April 10.—(AP)—Tropical Park's day of post-season racing was a day of triumph for Lavelle [Buddy] Ensor, the veteran jockey who has been making a gallant but not particularly successful comeback effort this year.

Today's card of claiming races was put on to raise funds for the Florida exhibit at the New York World's Fair. The regular meeting closed last Saturday.

Wins Three Races.

Ensor, who had brought in only a couple of winners this winter, came through with a triple, which included a victory with the Snow White stable's Bubblesome in the featured E. J. Sparks purse. He also won the opening race on High Treason and the third event on Ivy X.

Bubblesome, an 8 year old gelding, broke on top and just lasted to nose out the Riverby farm's Worpoise at the end of the mile and 70 yards. Free Child was third. Worpoise ran third most of the way, but came with a rush through the stretch. The winner ran the distance in 1:43 2-5 and paid $16 for $2.

OROS WINS TWO MORE.

Bowie, Md., April 10.—(AP)—Apprentice Johnny Oros, the nation's leading rider, again drew most of the attention at Bowie as he gained his 97th and 98th victories of the year. After taking the opener with Lee S., Oros scored a smart triumph aboard Saving Grace in the Anne Arundell purse which topped the card. It was the first victory for the 3 year old filly.

Saving Grace, paying $11.20 for $2, broke fast from the inside and led by two lengths going into the turn. J. M. Welch's Evening Light, a threat all the way, spurted in the last furlong, but Oros used his whip and brought the McKay filly home in front by a nose. H. P. Metcalf's Ebony Blue, the favorite, was third.

State Normal, Millikin Nines to Meet Today

Bloomington, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Illinois State Normal, a member of the Little Nineteen conference which permits varsity competition by freshmen and Millikin, a member of the Illinois College conference which supports the rule against freshmen, will clash on the Normal diamond here tomorrow. However, freshmen will appear in the Millikin lineup, for its athletic authorities have decided that first year men are eligible for all contests except those played against I. C. C. rivals.

Freshmen have won three positions on the Millikin varsity. Ed Zachary, second base, and Roger Merker and Joe Douglass, outfielders; Earle Buse and John Stephan, freshmen, probably will be used on the mound.

Coach Howard Hancock of Normal has two veteran hurlers ready. Co-Capt. Dave Read will start and Earl Sprau will pitch in the closing innings. Joe Garnero, letterman, will be behind the plate. The infield is virtually set with two freshmen, Howard Martin, first, and Larry Kindred, third, working with Co-Capt. George Mathews, second and Pete Palumbo, short. The outfield, entirely veteran, consists of Don Reynolds, George Spirduso, and Mervin Hainline.

The De Kalb Teachers baseball squad, now on a spring training trip, meets Southwestern Louisiana college in Lafayette, La., tomorrow.

Successful in its opening outdoor meet Saturday when it defeated Macomb Teachers, 87 to 25, the Carbondale Teachers track team tries for its second triumph of the season against Cape Girardeau, Mo., Teachers tomorrow in Cape Girardeau.

BREWERS RETURN HOME WITH FIVE INJURED PLAYERS

The Manhattan soccer team returned to Chicago yesterday from Pittsburgh, Pa., where Sunday it won the western championship and a place in the finals of the national challenge cup competition.

The Brewers brought five injured players back with them. Jimmy Lillie was the most seriously hurt and was taken to a hospital for an examination and X-rays.

The Manhattans' goals in their 3 to 1 victory over the Morgan Sport club were scored by Clem Cuthburt and Billy Gonsalves, the latter getting two. Art Garcia gave away the penalty, which enabled Felix Mitchell to score Morgan's goal. The Morgans had won the first game of the series, 3 to 2, leaving the Brewers with a 5 to 4 edge on total goals.

The western titleholders will meet the winner of the First Germans Sports club of Philadelphia vs. St Marys Celtics of Brooklyn, N. Y. game for the national championship held last year by Sparta of Chicago.

Illinois Amateur League to Hold Meeting Tonight

Organization of the Illinois State Amateur Baseball league will be completed tonight at a meeting in room 401, 127 North Dearborn street. Neill Carson, league secretary, reports there are openings for a few additional teams and that managers interested in joining should attend the meeting. It will start at 8 o'clock.

Tarkio Edges Out Butler in Track Meet, 69 to 66

Tarkio, Mo., April 10.—(AP)—Tarkio college defeated Butler university of Indianapolis, 69 to 66, in a dual track meet today. Marshall of Butler scored 14 points, each team won eight events.

BOUNDING COUNT, moved up fast around turn, took lead and drew away easily at end. BILL BLEIWEISS ran back to his previous good race. CHIMNEY TOP had plenty of speed for six furlongs, then quit. ROYAL FLIGHT finished fast. INTERPRETER ran a poor race, being outrun from the start.

HINSDALE HORSE SHOW SCHEDULED FOR JUNE 17-18

June 17 and 18 were announced yesterday by Walter P. Saunders, president of the Hinsdale Horse Show association, as dates for this year's annual horse show.

Through arrangements with James A. Hannah, president of the Oak Brook Polo club, and Paul Butler, chairman of the Central Polo association, one of the Oak Brook polo fields, located at York road and 31st street, will be the scene of the Hinsdale show.

Proceeds of the show are to be devoted to junior infant welfare charity activities.

The schedule of ring competition calls for performances each morning and afternoon of the two day show. Saunders stated that entry blanks will be mailed soon to leading showmen in the middle west.

Get Your Nets, Men, the Smelt Are With Us

The appearance of smelt in Lake Michigan and in the Calumet river in South Chicago indicates that local fishermen may not have to go far from home to catch these silvery fish this spring. Verner Rydell, Carl Ringman, and Edward Bergstrom, all of Chicago, caught 110 pounds of smelt in two hours Sunday night. The fish were dipped from Lake Michigan near the mouth of the Calumet river.

Sport Gains Popularity.

The sport of dipping smelt has caught the fancy of thousands of fishermen during the last few years, but Chicagoans have had to travel more than 300 miles to towns along Lake Michigan and Green Bay in order to find smelt in sufficient numbers.

The smelt are spreading so fast, however, that they now are being taken in the southern end of the lake.

Seek Spawning Places.

At this time of the year smelt leave the lake and swim up streams and rivers to spawn. It is then that the dip nets see action. The smelt caught by Rydell, Ringman, and Bergstrom were in Lake Michigan, probably looking for a river outlet from the lake. On previous smelt expeditions they caught smelt in the Calumet river about fifty feet from the lake shore. They have been fishing from a boat.

OLD DIRIGIBLE HANGAR OPENS AS SPORT ARENA

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—An unusual sports arena will be opened to the public Wednesday on the grounds of the Pegasus club, Rockleigh, N. J., with an indoor polo match.

Eager to construct an indoor field to quarter his Pegasus polo team, Douglas G. Hertz six months ago purchased from the United States government a dirigible hangar at Curtiss field, N. Y. Hertz immediately put to work an enormous crew to transfer it to Rockleigh. This was no easy task. The hangar was divided into two main sections, then cut into eleven small parts weighing 800 pounds each. It took three weeks to cart the seventy-five truckloads from Long Island to New Jersey.

Hartnek Works Out in Loop for Coliseum Bout

Paul Hartnek, Omaha heavyweight, and Milo Theodrescu, welterweight topnotcher of Rumania, arrived yesterday for their ten round bouts in the Coliseum Thursday. Hartnek meets Henry Wacker, hard hitting slugger from Taylorville, Ill., and Theodrescu faces Milt Aron, Illinois' No. 1 challenger.

Hartnek appeared in good form in his opening workout. It was his first Chicago appearance since he outboxed Lem Franklin to win the Golden Gloves heavyweight title in Chicago Stadium two years ago.

Hartnek Can Box.

The consensus is that Wacker will knock out Hartnek, though Paul's backers dispute this by pointing to Paul's record since he turned professional on Dec. 10, 1937. On that occasion Hartnek scored a one round knockout over Max Graham in Minneapolis. He has scored ten additional victories, his victims including Gunar Barlund, also in Minneapolis, on March 24.

This is a noteworthy achievement. Barlund ruined the march of Buddy Baer a year ago.

There is a possibility that Wacker may win, but his ability to stop Hartnek is questioned. Paul is a shifty boxer who seldom leaves himself open for a damaging blow.

Musto Continues Work.

Meanwhile, Tony Musto continued workouts in Kid Howard's gymnasium at 73 West Randolph street yesterday for his ten round bout with Franklin. Musto will be in quest of his twenty-sixth triumph in twenty-eight starts. He made three futile attempts to win a diamond studded Golden Glove—in 1934, 1935, and 1936.

In 1936 Musto won a championship in a tournament sponsored by the 33d Division of the Illinois National Guard.

Co-Promoters Irving Schoenwald and James C. Mullen predict the show will attract more than 8,000 fans who will pay in excess of $12,000.

Jimmy Adamick, Midland, Mich., heavyweight, who was handed a one year suspension last June for participating in a questionable bout with Jack Trammell, appeared at yesterday's meeting of the state athletic commission seeking reinstatement. The commission postponed a decision until Thursday. . . . Application was made to promote a boxing show in the Coliseum April 27 or May 3. . . . Joe Triner and Sheldon Clark are making preparations to attend the world featherweight championship encounter between Leo Rodak and Joey Archibald in Providence, R. I., April 18 as guests of the National Boxing association. . . . Cairo Hodge will meet Joe Robinson, New Orleans heavyweight, in a five round amateur contest this evening in Savoy arena, 47th street and South parkway.

PROS WILL HOLD CLINIC TO CURE GOLFERS' ILLS

Those Who Can Will Aid Those Who Can't.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Golf professionals of the central states are going back to school according to plans announced yesterday for a general clinic on the game by the Illinois section of the Professional Golfers' Association of America. No definite site or dates have been set yet, but tentative arrangements call for the clinic to be conducted in the Morrison hotel on the first two, possibly three, Mondays of May.

The clinic, according to Alex Cunningham of North Shore, president of the Illinois, P. G. A., and Jerry Glynn of Knollwood, chairman of the educational committee, is designed to bring about a closer working knowledge of every branch of the game among members, pros and their assistants, particularly the latter. Teaching and playing are naturally uppermost in the minds of the majority of professionals, but the clinic will endeavor to acquaint them with all other departments.

Series of Lectures.

The present curriculum of the clinic calls for a series of lectures dealing with every phase of golf. It will not be confined to members of the Illinois P. G. A., since the section is inviting pros and their assistants from Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan, and Iowa. Every club in the Chicago district also will be asked to send its president, grounds and greens chairman, and sports and pastimes chairman to the clinic.

Dr. Robert E. Dyer of North Shore will explain the relation between golf and the human body. Chick Bangs, manager of Oak Park, will speak on the contacts between manager and professional, and Alec Pirie of Old Elm will take up the same theme from the standpoint of greenskeeping. Frank Sprogell of Grand Rapids, Mich., national P. G. A. vice president and chairman of publicity, has publicity as his topic and Tom Walsh of Westgate Valley, national secretary, will explain the P. G. A. as an organization. Harry H. Wolf of North Shore will tell the clinic what the average member expects of his pro.

Armour to Speak.

Tommy Armour of Medinah will talk as a professional, stressing tournament play. Bruce Herd of Flossmoor will take the floor on club making, Jerry Glynn on shop sales, and John Miller on ordering equipment. Among the Illinois professionals who will deliver brief talks on teaching are Cunningham, Walsh, Jock Anderson of Techny Fields, Jock Hutchison of Glen View, Al Lesperance of Westmoreland, Eddie Loos of Lake Shore, George Smith of Onwentsia, John Revolta of Evanston, Eddie Gayer of Twin Orchards, Matt Matteson of Ridge, Bob Stupple of Skokie, Lew Waldron of Mohawk, Tom Kelly of Sunset Valley, and Bob MacDonald. Spencer Meister of Aurora, first vice president of the section, will speak on winter activities at golf clubs.

The first 1939 one day handicap of the Chicago District Golf association is scheduled for May 12 at Westmoreland. Secretary Joe G. Davis also announces that the following invitational tournament dates have been set: Midlothian Derby, May 20 and 21; Flossmore Frolic, June 15; Ruth Lake's Tallyho day, June 24; Exmoor Jamboree and Kildeer Karnival on July 19; Itasca Salt Creek day, Aug. 2; Park Ridge Plae Dae, Aug. 17, and Glen Oak Roundup, Aug. 18 and 19.

Officers of west side member clubs of the Chicago Women's District Golf association will meet in the La Salle hotel Friday to make plans for the annual team matches.

McMillen Beats Talun in White City Wrestilng

Jim McMillen defeated Waldyslaw Talun in their thirty minute wrestling match last night in White City. The bout was a handicap match in which Talun had agreed to toss McMillen twice within the time limit. King Kong and Pete Schu both fell from the ring and were counted out in their bout. Mattie Matsura, Japanese heavyweight, threw Jack Claybourn in 26:00; Dick Sampson and Young Hackenschmidt wrestled to a thirty minute draw, and Ray Clements defeated Lefty Pacer in 32 seconds.

Pick Dehner Will Speak at Belvidere Prep Banquet

Belvidere, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Lewis [Pick] Dehner, University of Illinois star who was second to Jimmy Hull of Ohio in point scoring during the Big Ten season, will be the speaker at the annual Belvidere High school basketball banquet on Monday, April 24, it was announced today.

Johnny Dickshot Sold to Jersey City by Bees

Boston, Mass., April 10.—(AP)—President Bob Quinn of the Boston Bees today announced the sale of Outfielder Johnny Dickshot to the Jersey City International league club. Dickshot came to the Bees last fall from Pittsburgh, where the Pirates used him as a utility outfielder for three seasons.

DICK KIST KEEPS TRYING, FINALLY STOPS ESPENSEN

Dick Kist, former Danville, Ill., sectional Golden Gloves welterweight champion, knocked out Don Espensen of Minneapolis in the fifth round of an eight round bout in Marigold Gardens last night.

After throwing scores of punches in the direction of his elusive foe for four rounds without striking a vulnerable spot, Kist found the range with a left hook to the solar plexus shortly after the fifth started. The blow sent Espensen down for a nine count. When Don regained his feet another left to the stomach floored him for the full count. Referee Frank Sikora completed the count at two minutes forty seconds. Kist weighed 153 pounds and Espensen 149½.

Kist's 17th Victory.

It was their second meeting, Espensen holding Kist to a six round draw two weeks ago. Last night's achievement accounted for Kist's seventeenth victory in nineteen starts. It kept Dick's record clear of defeats.

The attendance was 904 and gross receipts were $1,038.

In a secondary feature of eight rounds Buddy Scott, Dallas, 177 pound boxer, hammered out a decision over Al Reiss of Detroit. Despite this setback Reiss showed promise of developing into a top notch heavyweight.

Nicholson, Valente Draw.

Nick Nicholson, Indianapolis 177 pound fighter, and Ernie Valente, Milwaukee, slugged their way to an eight round draw in the second match. Tommy Pallatin, South Bend 148 pounder, scored a two round technical knockout over Fernie Bacca of El Paso, Tex., in the opening bout.

Chairman Joe Triner and Commissioner Sheldon Clark of the Illinois boxing board yesterday approved Promoter Sam Abruscato's application to extend the bout between Nate Bolden and Oscar Rankin to twelve rounds. The match will be held in White City Friday.

The commissioners rejected the promoter's request to recognize the encounter as for the colored middleweight title. Instead they voted to recognize the winner as this state's No. 1 160 pound challenger.

Wladek Zbyszko will wrestle Victor Soldat in Columbia hall, 1700 West 48th street, Friday. . . . Pete Lello and Willie Joyce, stablemates from Gary, will accompany Max Baer Saturday when he leaves for New York where he fights Lou Nova in a fifteen round heavyweight elimination engagement June 1. . . . Billy Martin, San Francisco middleweight, and Norman Roth, local 155 pounder, have joined Kid Howard's loop gymnasium. . . . Jim McMillen and Ruffy Silverstein have been matched to head the wrestling program in the Coliseum April 21. . . . John [Bull] Doehring will depend on flying tackles in his attempt to conquer Wladyslaw Talun in a mat headliner in Cicero stadium tomorrow. . . . Al Quaill, Pittsburgh middleweight, and Billy Celebron of Rockford yesterday were signed to clash for ten rounds in Marigold Gardens next Monday. . . .—F. M.

Meade Hails Newest Jockey Ace

Don Meade (right), veteran jockey whose riding was the sensation of the winter tracks, meets the 17 year old boy who passed him in winners recently at Bowie, Johnny Oros of Aurora.

MEADE'S LICENSE UP TO NEW YORK TURF BODY TODAY

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—The application of Jockey Don Meade for a license to ride on New York tracks will come up tomorrow at a meeting of the stewards of the jockey club. Although Meade was barred in March of 1936 for what is regarded as a grievous offense in racing, it is the general opinion that he will receive his license and be among the riders when the metropolitan season opens at Jamaica Saturday.

The case of Meade has attracted attention, probably out of proportion to its real importance, largely because of his sensational riding during the recent meeting at Hialeah Park.

Meade was set down at Hialeah Park March 3, 1936, when it was found he was betting on horses that were running against his own mounts. He was reinstated by the Florida commission last December, the same commission that had barred him.

His application will go through the routine with a number of others. It will first be viewed by the license committee, which will make recommendations to the stewards.

JACOBS DROPS IN ON LOS ANGELES TO HANDLE BOUT

Los Angeles, Cal., April 10.—(AP)—Michael Jacobs, promoter of the Joe Louis-Jack Roper fight April 17, arrived today to see that all is in order.

He said he would be satisfied if the gate reached $125,000, and when one of his yes-men assured him it would be $155,000 Mike beamed.

"There's nothing doing in New York in April, so I might make a permanent arrangement for a big fight in Los Angeles every April," Jacobs said.

He expressed belief Roper would turn in a good fight. But, Mike added, "I hope he isn't too good, because I have Louis booked up for the balance of the year. But if Roper can win, more power to him."

Iowa Defeats St. Louis U. Nine, 10 to 1

St. Louis, Mo., April 10.—(AP)—University of Iowa's baseball team walloped St. Louis university, 10 to 1, here today.

Iowa used three pitchers and between them they held the Billikens to four hits, while the visiting batters were pounding Bill Scott for nine hits. In the big second inning Iowa scored six runs on two hits, three bases on balls, a hit batsman, and an error.

CHICAGO CLASSIC TEAM TAKES 4TH IN A. B. C. MEET

Cleveland, O., April 10.—[Special.]—The Monarch Beers of Chicago's Classic league rolled into fourth place tonight in the American Bowling congress five men standings with a 3,008 total. They opened with 978, soared to 1,069, and finished with 961. Thompson Restaurants of Chicago made the prize list with 2,968 on games of 946, 1,022, and 1,000.

Frank Benkovic of Milwaukee, who teamed with the late Gilbert Zunger in 1933 to set an all-time American Bowling congress doubles record of 1,415, finished well down the list today when he paired with Michael Malouf to score 1,207.

Pirates Rally to Triumph Over Sox, 7-3

duced a double which led to the breaking of the tie. Sewell grounded to Kuhel, Berres moving to third. L. Waner also grounded to Kuhel, who threw to the plate too late to nail Berres. The remainder of the inning was made up of Manush's force of Waner and Rizzo's fly to Rosenthal.

Sox Miss Chance Again.

With one out in the eighth Suhr picked out one of Herring's pitches and lined it into center for a single. Young walked and Brubaker, playing third in place of Lee Handley, who was beaned by tempestuous Johnny Allen of the Indians yesterday, singled to left to score Suhr.

Herring was in difficulties as soon as the ninth got under way. L. Waner doubled to left and scored on Manush's double to right. Herring enjoyed a breathing spell on Rizzo's pop to Vaughan, but a moment later there was a double to right by Vaughan, Manush counting. Vaughan was nipped going into third on Suhr's bounder to Owen. Young walked, but Brubaker flied to Steinbacher.

NEW NAMES DOT MANAGER ROSTER IN ASSOCIATION

The American Association baseball season will open Thursday with four teams under new managers. The first day's schedule brings together St. Paul and Toledo, Minneapolis and Columbus, Kansas City and Indianapolis, and Milwaukee and Louisville.

Donie Bush gave up his job as manager of Minneapolis to take charge of the Louisville club, succeeding Bert Niehoff. Tom Sheehan took his place with Minneapolis.

Mickey Heath succeeded Al Sothoron at Milwaukee and Myles Thomas took the job vacated by Fred Haney, Toledo manager. Haney moved up to manage the St. Louis Browns of the American league.

The other four teams will go into the campaign with their same managers—Foster Ganzel of St. Paul, Burt Shotton of Columbus, Bill Meyer of Kansas City, and Ray Schalk of Indianapolis.

St. Paul was champion at the end of the regular season last year but was beaten by Kansas City in the Shaughnessy playoff.

HANDLEY, VICTIM OF BEAN BALL, IS REPORTED BETTER

New Orleans, La., April 10.—(AP)—President William Renswanger of the Pittsburgh Pirates said today Lee Handley, Pirate third baseman, who was beaned in an exhibition game yesterday, "seemed much better."

Hospital attachés said Handley probably would be released from the hospital some time this week but Benswanger said he would receive every care until his condition was determined definitely.

"He seemed much better today," Benswanger said, "but he is still in a dangerous condition. The doctors told me the X-rays showed no evidence of a fracture but we are taking no chances.

"I should be with the club but this is important and I remained behind to be with Handley. I will remain here for two or three days before rejoining the club."

EIGHTY REPORT FOR MARQUETTE FOOTBALL DRILLS

Milwaukee, Wis., April 10.—Spring football practice, following the Easter holidays, will be resumed at Marquette university tomorrow and the roster of eighty will be completed as Gil Thomsen, sophomore end from Kenosha, Wis., reports for the first time. Thomsen has been excused because of spring basketball workouts. The only absentee will be Von Vosberg, another sophomore end from Dubuque, Ia. He is on the Marquette track squad as a javelin thrower and member of the one mile relay team.

NEW BASEBALL ERA DAWNS; NO 1939 HOLDOUTS!

Signing of Heffner and Waner Clears Slate.

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—The opening of the major league baseball season is still a week off but already one new record has been written into the books—there are no holdouts.

The last of the dissatisfied athletes, Don Heffner, former Yankee now with the St. Louis Browns, and Paul Waner, veteran Pittsburgh outfielder, signed up last week-end.

Even the old timers of the national pastime can't recall the last time the season opened with every player signed. Some of the more determined carried their financial disputes through the opening weeks of play and one of them, Ed Roush, held out an entire season.

Last year Joe Di Maggio missed the opener and Red Ruffing waited until May one year to annoy the Yankees.

Waner's new contract is said to call for $12,000, an increase of $3,000 over the Pirates' "final offer" made several weeks ago. Waner, who wintered in Sarasota, went to New Orleans yesterday, conferred with President Bill Benswanger of the Pirates and finally signed.

Terms were not disclosed in the Heffner case, but he capitulated after traveling the southern route with the Browns for several weeks.

BOXERS REACH SAN FRANCISCO FOR A. A. U. MEET

San Francisco, Cal., April 10.—(AP)—Eight man boxing teams representing Cleveland and Omaha, the vanguard of amateur fighters en route to San Francisco from all sections of the country, arrived today for the three day National A. A. U. tournament, which opens Wednesday.

A special train carrying boxers from New Orleans, Buffalo, Boston, New York City, Syracuse, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Denver, and Salt Lake City, is due tomorrow.

"THE BEER"
Richard Seibold invites you to try Meister Bräu Draft Beer—Made with the same care—Ask at your favorite Bar

When veterans of the 3rd U. S. Cavalry regiment gathered to renew friendships and to relive the stirring past, they were asked to taste Meister Bräu bottled beer and compare it with other brands. Veterans of this famous regiment which dates back to the Mexican War and frontier Indian uprisings, are today scattered 'round the World. The officers of the association shown here reside in Toronto, Canada; Cumberland, Maryland; Ottumwa, Iowa; Alma, Michigan; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Wilmette, and Chicago, Illinois.

Coming from near and far and remembering what beer used to be, 4 out of every 5 of these veterans said, "I prefer Meister Bräu to any other bottled beer."

Independent Investigator Stages Showdown Tests on Public Preference in Beer

To learn what brand of bottled beer leads in sales, Chicago newspapers secured figures from beer retailers. These reports showed Meister Bräu the leader by from 2 to 1 to 10 to 1. The Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation was asked to check on this amazing popularity and determine the reason for it, by holding taste-and-compare tests where groups of men and women gather.

These tests show that the old-time, all-grain flavor of Meister Bräu gives it this astonishing preference both with those who remember back to the old days and with those who appreciate top quality.

DISSATISFACTION PERILS COUNCIL REORGANIZATION

Lindell Resents Lack of Posts for South Side.

BY WILLIAM STRAND.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

French Lick Springs, Ind., April 10.—[Special.]—Less than two hours before its departure for Chicago, the city council committee on committees, in session here since Friday, tonight was faced with the collapse of the major share of its work of reorganizing the Chicago council for the next four years. Dissension over the dealing out of committee chairmanships developed among the aldermen just when they believed the end of their work was in sight.

Ald. J. M. Arvey [24th], chairman of the organization group, left for home by plane earlier in the day to take part in conferences on a successor to be appointed by Gov. Henry Horner to the seat of Senator James Hamilton Lewis, who died in Washington yesterday. Arvey sent back word that he was forced down at Lafayette and would continue by automobile.

New Committee Set Up.

The trouble over the chairmanships revolved around the railway terminals committee. After a stormy half hour it was announced the session would be resumed tonight on the train which will take the committee back to Chicago.

Ald. James F. Kovarik [15th] had been chosen chairman of terminals committee this morning although Ald. William A. Rowan [10th] had been regarded as an almost sure choice for the post. At the time it was explained a committee on labor and industry was set up especially for him.

The joker was that Rowan got a chairmanship but no money to work with. Meanwhile Ald. Kovarik had received the terminals committee with its appropriation of $18,000, one of the largest among the committees.

Threatens Not to Sign.

There was trouble in the organizing committee because no major chairmanship was allotted to the south side, represented on the organizing committee by Ald. Arthur G. Lindell [9th], the Republican minority member. The northwest, southwest, and west sides each got four chairmanships, north five and south two.

It is reported that Lindell has threatened not to sign the committee's report, which council rules provide must be unanimous. In this way he can block further proceedings until there are some revisions. But if Kovarik is taken off the terminal group he must be placed somewhere else. The aldermen are trying to agree upon a compromise.

The committee this morning agreed to limit the membership on all council working groups to eighteen aldermen, not counting Ald. James B. Bowler [25th], who is ex-officio member of all committees. It made the final selection of chairmen and vice chairmen of the five groups.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Those Who Come After

SMITTY—PASSING THE BUCK

MR. LEMUR'S BIG SECRET IS OUT—HE'S A PAPA NOW

He's Shy, for It's Rare in His Family.

Mrs. Lemur has nothing to say at this time. Her sister, Miss Lemur, never grants interviews. Mr. Lemur does not care to see reporters—unless they bring oranges, bananas, or an egg. In that case, he will receive them—the things to eat, not the reporters—and scramble back to the family huddle on the perch of the lemur cage at the Brookfield zoo.

Dr. Stork is not authorized to make a statement.

But despite the secrecy, it was definitly established yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Lemur have a baby. It was born Saturday, and if it's anything like its relatives it has a gentle disposition, a close mouth, and tufted ears.

They Never Told a Soul.

The Lemurs never told a soul they were expecting a little lemur. But when Director Edward Bean and Assistan Director Robert Bean noticed all the Lemurs sitting in a group on the perch they suspected something unusual had occurred. Eventually they saw that Mrs. Lemur had something in her arms that looked like a baby lemur.

They tried in vain to coax her down. The only one of the family who would budge was Mr. Lemur, who clambered down to pick up fruit and eggs which he solemnly portioned out when he returned to the perch.

You can't make a monkey out of a lemur, you see, although the lemurs are closely related to monkeys. Adult lemurs [pronounced like dreamers] are about the size of a half grown cat, come from Madagascar, and rarely have children in captivity.

Lincoln Park Excited, Too.

Lincoln park zoo officials were quite as excited yesterday over the baby black leopard they have been bringing up by hand. It's going to live, although Director Floyd Young thought for a long time it would be a miracle if it did.

The little leopard was born two months ago to Ebony and Tar. There were twins, but one died within a few hours. The mother, Ebony, then refused to feed the other.

Young tuorned it over to Keepers Andrew Guagenpi and Steven Williamson, who began feeding it milk and haliver oil with an eye dropper. Eventually it got big enough to drink out of a bottle. Before long it will be eating raw meat. Just now it's the gentlest looking kitty you ever saw.

IRON OUT KINKS IN AGREEMENT TO MERGE CAR LINES

Announcement is expected in federal court today that the last details in a plan for merging the surface lines and elevated railways have been ironed out. The final agreement, it was reported yesterday, will be made known in a report to Judge James H. Wilkerson by his traction adviser, Walter A. Shaw. Major provisions of the merger plan already have been agreed to by representatives of securities holders of the companies.

Judge Wilkerson, it is expected, will instruct the traction representatives to make immediate application for a city franchise for the proposed consolidated company.

The merger plan provides for the reorganization of the elevated and surface lines into a single company to take over the properties of the two systems. The new company also would acquire the Chicago Motor Coach company.

Davis B. Folrath, Decatur's Oldest Business Man, Dies

Decatur, Ill., April 10.—[Special.]—Davis B. Folrath, 82 years old, a veteran of 70 years in the shoe business and Decatur's oldest active business man, died in a hospital here yesterday from pneumonia. Mr. Folrath's hobby was his large farm which he maintained near Cerro Gordo. He raised prize Aberdeen-Angus cattle and on one occasion paid $3,200 for a cow. He leaves his widow, a son, and three brothers. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Edgar Middleton, Author and Playwright, Is Dead

LONDON, April 10.—(AP)—Edgar Middleton, 44 years old, author and playwright, who wrote "Potiphar's Wife," died here today after a long illness. For a time Middleton was London correspondent of the New York Sun and had contributed to many London newspapers. He also was the author of the first talking picture biography of the official life of the duke of Windsor, then the prince of Wales.

Painter for Rockefeller Dies at Age of 100 Years

North Tarrytown, N. Y., April 10.—(AP)—Alfred G. Randall always said he would live to be a hundred years old and he had many a joke about it with the late John D. Rockefeller, on whose estate he worked as a painting contractor. Randall died today. He was 100 last September. Rockefeller was 97 when he died in 1937.

Two Young Thieves Admit Stripping 50 Automobiles

Two young men who admitted stripping more than fifty automobiles in Chicago and the western suburbs were in custody of state's attorney's police last night. They are Raymond Snaetek, 20 years old, 1708 Cermak road, and Laddie Baklit, 21, of 1801 South Ashland avenue.

OBITUARIES

Dr. Adolf Carl Noe.

Funeral services for Dr. Adolf Carl Noé, 65 years old, an associate professor of paleobotany at the University of Chicago, will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in St. Thomas the Apostle church, 55th street and Kimbark avenue. Dr. Noé died yesterday in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Robert S. Mulliken, at 5807 Dorchester avenue. He was born in Austria and completed his graduate studies in science at the University of Gottingen. He became an instructor in German literature at the University of Chicago in 1903, and continued in that field until the university's geology department was enlarged in 1923, when he returned to work in the field of fossilized plants. Besides Mrs. Mulliken, his widow, Mary, and another daughter, Valerie, survive.

Mrs. Eva Skarin.

Funeral services for Mrs. Eva Skarin, a former Chicago resident, will be held at 2 p. m. today in Bethany Lutheran church in Lemont. Mrs. Skarin, the widow of John A. Skarin, Lemont grocer, died Sunday night in her home in the suburb. She was 76 years old.

Harry H. Cerf.

Harry H. Cerf, chief draftsman for the engineering department of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, died last evening in his home at 4435 Washington street, Gary. He was 58 years old. His widow, Inez, and a daughter, Edith, survive.

DAUGHTER, SON SHARE ESTATE OF EDW. KATZINGER

Most of the $350,000 estate left by Edward Katzinger, steel manufacturer, is divided in his will between his son, Arthur, 92 Dell place, Glencoe, and his daughter, Mrs. Laura Jane Marder, 228 Vine avenue, Highland Park. The document was filed yesterday with Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court. He died March 29 at the age of 75.

An estate of $205,000 was left by Herbert H. Riddle, architect, who drew the plans for the Chicago Theological seminary and Mather Tower. He died Feb. 27. Most of the estate is to be divided between his widow, Martha, 5626 Woodlawn avenue; a sister and a brother.

Red Cross First Aid Tests Given to Park Policemen

Sixty park district policemen yesterday were given Red Cross first aid tests in the United States naval armory at Randolph street and the lake. About 670 park policemen will have been given tests by the end of the week. More than 250 already have taken the examination, and there were no failures among the eighty whose work has been graded to date. Fred Guilbert, director of safety for the park district, said the tests include a written examination and an oral quiz on various aspects of first aid work.

Gilbert E. Porter III., a stock broker and member of a socially prominent family, died yesterday in Passavant hospital after a long illness. He was 46 years old and lived at 650 Lake road, Lake Forest.

Mr. Porter was associated with Winthrop Mitchell & Co. His father, now retired, formerly was senior partner in the law firm of Isham, Lincoln & Beale. Gilbert Porter III. was graduated from Yale university in 1916. He was a member of the Onwentsia Country club.

His widow, Anne, and three daughters, Edith, Mary, and Anne, survive. Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest.

Admiral Sir Stanley Colville.

CRAWLEY DOWN, Sussex, England, April 10.—(AP)—Admiral Sir Stanley Colville, 78 years old, veteran of Britain's wars since 1879, died yesterday. He had served in the Zulu war of 1879, the Egyptian campaign of 1882, the Nile expedition of 1884-'85, and was wounded in the Dongola expedition of 1896. During the world war Sir Stanley served with the grand fleet and in 1917 and 1918 was commander in chief at Portsmouth.

Benjamin Hamlin.

Funeral services for Benjamin Hamlin, 91 years old, a veteran of the civil war, will be held at 2 p. m. today in his home at Lake Villa, Ill. Burial will be in Angola cemetery at Lake Villa. Mr. Hamlin, a retired contractor, died Saturday in St. Therese hospital, Waukegan. He was one of three surviving civil war veterans in Lake county. Three sons, all residents of Lake Villa, survive.

William M. Raftree.

Funeral services for William M. Raftree, secretary of the Kane County Title company at Geneva, will be held at 2 p. m. today in the chapel at 201 James street, in the suburb. Burial will be in Bronswood cemetery, Hinsdale. Mr. Raftree died Sunday night at the age of 61. He had been associated with Kane county land title firms since 1906. His widow, Louise, and two children survive.

Mrs. Hattie Friedman Mitchell.

Mrs. Hattie Friedman Mitchell, wife of Lee Mitchell, an executive of the Universal Film company, died Sunday in Hollywood, Cal., where she had lived for the last eight years. Mrs. Mitchell was born in Chicago. Her husband, two daughters, Marcelle and Edna; a son, Stanley, and a sister, Mrs. Leopold Saltiel, survive. Services will be held at Glendale, Cal.

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD
Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts
The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly—your stomach often pours out too much fluid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over. Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bell-ans for Indigestion to make the excess stomach fluids harmless, relieve distress in no time and put you back on your feet. Relief is so quick it is amazing and one 25c package proves it. Ask for Bell-ans for Indigestion.

B. F. BAKER, 74, FORMER STATE SENATOR, DIES

Kewanee, Ill., April 10.—(AP)—B. F. Baker, former state senator from the 37th district and chairman of the board of directors of the Kewanee Boiler corporation, died late today. He was 74 years old.

Baker underwent an emergency appendicitis operation last Wednesday night. Saturday he suffered a relapse, and failed to rally despite a blood transfusion yesterday.

His widow and two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Brooks of Kewanee and Mrs. Henry C. Hollenbeck of Salt Lake City, Utah, survive.

Long prominent in Illinois Republican politics, Baker was state senator from 1906 to 1910, and was elected mayor of Kewanee in 1911, a post he held for eight years. Baker was head of the Illinois delegation on the "Pittsburgh plus" commission, which worked out a schedule of steel rates from eastern points.

Born at Aurora, Ill., he attended the public schools in Sheffield. He came to Kewanee in 1883. The funeral will be held Thursday.

BRIDE TRIPS ON 14 PAIRS OF SHOES BOUGHT IN WEEK

A wife who buys fourteen pairs of shoes in a week might be considered extravagant, Judge Oscar Nelson agreed yesterday. He lifted an injunction which had tied up the bank accounts of Morris Lagoni, Peoria night club owner. Mrs. Ruth Lagoni, 23 years old, obtained the injunction when she filed suit for separate maintenance against her husband ten days ago.

Attorney Maxwell Landes, representing Lagoni, who is 49, said that Lagoni has been unable to pay his employés because of the injunction. He also told the court that this was Lagoni's first marriage and Mrs. Lagoni's third. Mrs. Lagoni, he added, bought the fourteen pairs of shoes during one week of the month she lived with Lagoni after their marriage.

Mrs. Lagoni came to Chicago in January and has been dancing in a west side night club. She lives at 6724 Stony Island avenue.

Flush Kidneys of Acid and Poisons
Gain In Health And Stop Getting Up Nights
When kidneys are continually overburdened they often become weak—the bladder is irritated—often passage is scanty and smarts and burns—sleep is restless and nightly visits to the bathroom are frequent.
A safe, harmless and inexpensive way to relieve this trouble and help restore more healthy action to kidneys and bladder is to get from any druggist a 35 cent box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules and take as directed—don't be disappointed.
Don't be an EASY MARK and accept a substitute. Ask for Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules—right from Haarlem in Holland. Get GOLD MEDAL—the original—the genuine. Look for the Gold Medal on the box—35 cents.
Remember—other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble may be backache, puffy eyes, nervousness and leg cramps.

THROWS OUT HEIRESS' SUIT CHARGING FRAUD IN 14 MILLION ESTATE

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—The complaint of Mrs. Dorothy Ledyard Knight, accusing a trust company officer of conspiring to defraud her and her two infant daughters of a part of her father's 14 million dollar fortune, was dismissed today by Magistrate August Dreyer in Tombs court.

Mrs. Knight charged that Thomas H. Wilson, vice president of the United States Trust company, committed perjury and falsified state income tax reports in the alleged conspiracy revolving about the estate of her father, Lewis Cass Ledyard Jr.

Without comment, Magistrate Dreyer granted the motion of Wilson's attorneys that the complaint be dismissed. Mrs. Knight has been involved in much litigation over the huge estate. She has made similar charges in several suits.

HULL APPROVES COTTON SWAP TO GET TIN, RUBBER

Shifts Stand; Joins Wallace in Move.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 10.—The state department tonight announced approval of a plan to barter about 150 million dollars' worth of surplus cotton and wheat for British, Dutch, and Belgian rubber and tin.

Secretary Wallace.

Senator James F. Byrnes [D., S. C.], author of the barter plan, announced that it was approved also by Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace.

Approval of the Byrnes proposal by Secretary Hull caused great surprise. Hull has repeatedly condemned the barter trade practices of Nazi Germany. Heretofore he has resisted all barter and export subsidy proposals on the ground that they would undermine this country's reciprocal trade agreements. These agreements are based on the unconditional most favored nation principle, by which concessions made to one country under such agreements are available to all other countries that do not discriminate against United States goods.

Dictator Influences Seen.

The administration's flirtation with the barter system of foreign trade indicates a surrender to the methods of the European dictatorships in order to fight them on their own terms.

In a formal statement, however, the state department qualified its approval of the barter proposal, saying it contemplated only the exchange of certain raw materials reciprocally desired for emergency stock purposes.

"Such arrangements would fall completely outside of the sphere of ordinary commercial interchange and would not affect the sphere of operation of the trade agreements program or any of our general policies," said the statement.

If the President desires, the statement added, negotiations for treaties to effectuate the Byrnes plan will be undertaken.

Formal Submission Near.

[The barter proposal will be formally submitted to the foreign governments in a few days. It was hinted in some quarters that preliminary negotiations have been completed and that the proposal has the promise of acceptance, but there was no official comment on this point.]

[Byrnes did not emphasize the political aspects of the deal. It was pointed out, however, that if carried out the swap would strengthen the position of the European democracies preparing for a crisis. Byrnes indicated that the United States might be willing to make such exchanges with other countries, but it was pointed out in Washington that Germany and Italy have few surplus products which are noncompetitive with United States goods.]

Under the Byrnes plan, wheat and cotton to which the government has title, or might acquire title, through loans, would be exchanged for rubber and tin under a treaty arrangement.

Would Hold Goods Five Years.

"The treaty would provide that the cotton or wheat should be held by the purchasing government for

U. S. Increases Winter Wheat Crop Estimate

The department of agriculture reported yesterday that favorable growing conditions have raised the prospective 1939 winter wheat crop to 549 million bushels. Favorable moisture conditions in the southwest, the department said, are chiefly responsible for the improved prospects.

The department's previous report [issued in December] reckoned the harvest at 485 million bushels. Since that time, the government's statisticians say, conditions favorable for growing have added 64 million bushels to the indicated yield.

This year's harvest will fall well below the 1938 yield of winter wheat. Last summer's harvest of winter wheat totaled 687 million bushels, one of the largest crops that has ever been produced in the United States.

Based on April 1 Conditions.

The government's production estimate is based on April 1 conditions. Reports are collected by the department from agents in all sections of the wheat producing belt. Data are also supplied to the federal bureau by coöperating state and county farm agencies. The government will not make a forecast of spring wheat production until next month.

The government's forecast exceeds by 10 million bushels the average of the estimates of the leading private crop statisticians which were disclosed ten days ago.

Of the 46,173,000 acres seeded last fall, the government estimates that 16 per cent will not be harvested. The acreage seeded was 18.1 per cent below the 56,355,000 acres planted in the preceding year.

Grain Reserves Are High.

The condition of the crop on Dec. 1 was rated by the government's statisticians as "72 per cent of normal." Such ratings are made on the basis of the potential producing capacity of the seeded acreage under favorable growing conditions, not on an average of production in previous years. The government did not make a condition rating for April 1.

Farm reserves of wheat and corn were materially above the average holdings for April 1, the department estimates. Supplies of corn aggregate 1,204,000,000 bushels, the largest on record, and are 136,000,000 bushels in excess of a year ago. Stocks of wheat on farms of 189,000,000 bushels are 64,000,000 bushels more than last year.

Corn Consumption Up.

Consumption of corn during the January-April 1 period, including exports, was about 604,000,000 bushels, or 6,000,000 bushels more than during the like period in 1938. However, the consumption fell far short of the record of 701,000,000 bushels established in 1929.

Stocks of grain or farms in millions of bushels, as estimated by the department of agriculture, follow:

	Apr. 1, 1939.	Jan. 1. 1939.	Apr. 1, 1938.	Avge. '27-'36.
Wheat	189	281	125	124
Corn	1,204	1,797	1,068	793
Oats	409	686	416	379

COAL DEADLOCK ENTERS 2D WEEK; TALKS FAIL AGAIN

New York, April 10.—(AP)—The shutdown of the soft coal industry in the Appalachian area entered its second week today as negotiators talked for five hours in a vain effort to agree on a new wage and hour contract that would send 338,000 miners back to the pits.

A subcommittee representing the operators and the United Mine Workers of America [C. I. O.] opened the fifth week of negotiations. Failing to agree the conferees recessed their meeting until tomorrow. The contract expired March 31.

STOCKS MOUNT ON 'BREATHING SPELL' ABROAD

Demand Improves as Foreigners Buy.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 10.—The absence of threatening developments in Europe over the week-end and a moderate amount of new demand lifted stock market prices fractions to about 3 points today. Some fast moving issues made gains running to 6 points.

Volume totaled 1,646,080 shares. After a hesitant opening a rush of buying taxed the ticker tape and enabled many issues to rally. Trading then quieted until the final hour, when another rally brought prices to the best levels of the day.

A substantial portion of the early demand was attributed to orders from foreign sources. Markets abroad were still closed for the Easter holiday.

Traders Buy Warily.

Despite the market's better performance, observers noted an undertone of caution owing to the European situation. Although foreign cables were regarded as providing a "breathing spell," traders were reported to be making commitments warily.

Domestic business news, including an estimated drop in steel operations, was largely disregarded.

Today was the first time since last Wednesday that the list showed more plus than minus signs. A total of 909 issues were traded, of which 451 advanced, 273 declined, and 185 closed unchanged.

Motors, steels, and rubbers were in the forefront of the advance. Gains of between 1 and 3 points were registered by General Motors, United States Rubber, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Goodrich, Goodyear, and Chrysler.

Loft Is Volume Leader.

Volume honors went to Loft, which spurted 1¾ points. The revival of interest in this stock was traced to a report that a final court decision on the Pepsi-Cola case was about to be announced.

Rail shares reflected improved demand. Santa Fe, Great Northern, Southern Railway, and Union Pacific each advanced a point or more.

Curtiss-Wright in the aviations turned active and fractionally higher. Douglas was another bright spot, added 1¼ points.

Most power and light shares worked fractionally higher. Columbia Gas and Electric, Consolidated Edison, Electric Power and Light, and American Water Works were among the leaders. Engineers Public Service spurted 1 point.

In the tractions Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit common jumped 2¼ points and the preferred 9¾ points on reports that details of transfer of the properties to New York City had been arranged.

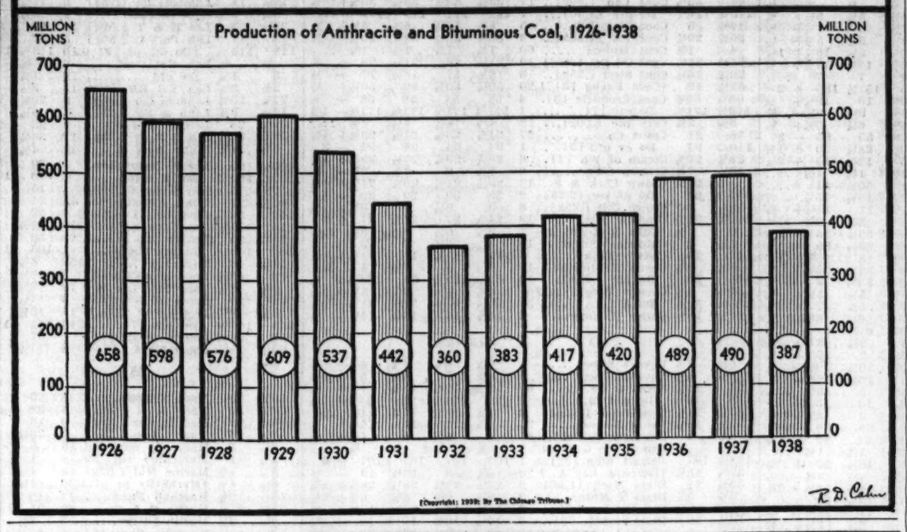
CONGRESS SENDS RECIPROCAL TAX BILL TO PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., April 10.—(AP)—Congress sent to the White House today a bill providing for federal taxation of the incomes of state and municipal employés and state taxation of the salaries of federal workers.

Since a Supreme court decision established the right of reciprocal taxation of salaries of government employés the bill merely gives legislative force to that decision.

The measure prevents retroactive taxation of governmental salaries.

Coal Demand Last Year Was Smallest Since 1933



$1,075,000 All Cash Building Sale Is Closed

BY AL CHASE.

One of Chicago's largest all cash real estate deals in years was closed yesterday. Two checks—one for $1,075,000 and the other for $200,000—were paid by the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States to Twenty-nine South La Salle, Inc., for the thirteen story office building at 29 South La Salle street.

Pass Checks Across Table.

According to Arthur Rubloff & Co., sole brokers, this is the first time in many years that a big eastern life insurance company has bought a Chicago office building for its own use. Herbert Becker and Sherwood K. Platt of Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt were attorneys for Equitable.

An unusual feature of the transaction was that there was no deposit money and no placing of the property in escrow, as is usually the case. The cash payments, totaling $1,275,000, were made by passing the checks across the table in the office of Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt.

Once Held by National Life.

For many years the building at 29 South La Salle, built thirty-eight years ago, was owned and occupied by the National Life Insurance Company of the U. S. A. as its headquarters.

The Equitable will consolidate its various Chicago offices, at present scattered along La Salle street, in the building just paid for. It will be renamed the Equitable Life building.

North American System Power Output Improves

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—James F. Fogarty, president, announced today that electric output of the North American company system in the first quarter of 1939 continued the improvement which began in the latter part of 1938. Production was approximately 1,645,000,000 kilowatt hours, or 10.5 per cent above that of the first quarter of 1938. Output was exceeded in only one other quarter in the company's history, he said.

NOMINATE BARTLETT FOR RE-ELECTION AS EXCHANGE CHAIRMAN

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Edward E. Bartlett Jr., a partner in E. A. Pierce & Co., was nominated to succeed himself as chairman of the board of governors of the New York Stock exchange today. The nominating committee, in listing nominations for ten governors whose terms expire May 8, named seven persons who are not now connected with the exchange administration. Four of the retiring governors were not eligible for reëlection.

Edw. E. Bartlett Jr.

Under exchange rules, five of the nominees must be members of the exchange. Named in this group were Robert J. Hamerschlag, George R. Kantzler, Harry H. Moore, John Rutherford, and H. Allen Wardle.

Nominees who must be nonmembers and live in the New York metropolitan area are J. Gould Remick, Howard B. Dean, and John M. Hancock.

Drop in Steel Rate Largest Since January

Steel making in the nation this week is scheduled at 52.1 per cent of theoretical capacity, the American Iron and Steel institute reported yesterday. This represented declines of 2.6 points from 54.7 per cent in the preceding week and 3.6 points from 55.7 per cent a month ago. The setback, largest for any week this year, carried operations to the lowest level since January.

The industry a year ago was operating at 32.7 per cent.

The United States Steel corporation announced it shipped 767,910 tons of finished steel products in March. This volume represented increases of 89,916 tons over 677,994 in February and 195,711 tons over 572,199 in March, 1938. The corporation shipped 1,414,399 tons in March, 1937, and 783,552 in March, 1936.

In the first quarter this year, shipments of the leading steel producer totaled 2,235,209 tons, compared with 1,565,244 in the first quarter of 1938.

The Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, subsidiary of United States Steel, has booked 6,500 tons of heavy steel for the Delaware aqueduct in Ulster county, N. Y., and 1,800 tons for pilings for a Cleveland river project.

$3.01 a Share Profit Shown by Creamery

Earnings of Beatrice Creamery company in the fiscal year ended Feb. 28, 1939, were the largest since 1932, the company reported yesterday. Many of the other reports made public during the day showed declining income.

Beatrice's net income was $1,623,140, equal to $3.01 a common share, against $1,444,815, equal to $2.52 in the preceding fiscal year. The advance came in face of declining dollar sales. Sales amounted to $59,324,236, a decrease of 7.6 per cent from $64,223,669 in the fiscal year ended Feb. 28, 1938.

C. H. Haskell, president, in discussing the creamery and produce departments, said that losses both to the dairy trade and the producer would probably have been large if the government had not pegged the butter price during most of the year. "However, there is still a large surplus to be disposed of," he said, "and we hope the market will be allowed to operate on a basis of supply and demand this year."

Reports Income Gain.

American Telephone and Telegraph company reported February net income of $449,329, sharply higher than the net income of $73,711 reported for the like month last year. For the first two months earnings totaled $1,012,938 against $824,374 in the like 1938 months.

Dividends received from subsidiaries and other companies, the major part of American Telephone's income, are not included in the monthly reports. They are usually included quarterly.

Net income of Richfield Oil corporation for 1938 totaled $2,042,955. This is the first full year's report for the company.

CHARGE VALUES MARKED UP IN 2 FHA PROJECTS

"Overnight" Boosts Cited in Congress.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—[Special.]—The "overnight writeup" of land values in connection with the construction of apartment buildings under the federal housing act was the object of a bipartisan attack in the house today.

Representatives John J. Cochran [D. Mo.] and Charles L. Gifford [R., Mass.] joined in a condemnation of the tactics of promoters of two apartment projects in St. Louis.

Charles L. Gifford.

Gifford told the house that the land for these two projects was purchased for approximately $106,000 in the name of a corporation clerk. The land was immediately marked up and transferred to the corporation for approximately $471,000, he disclosed.

FHA "Condones" Markup.

"This markup was allowed and even condoned by the Federal Housing administration," said Gifford. "It counted heavily toward the 20 per cent equity contribution which the corporation had to have to get a federal loan under the FHA.

"One of these projects for $2,000,000 originally paid a fee for a building permit on the basis of $1,000,000. It is shown that the plumber holding large contracts was paid by the city to approve his own work. I have a statement that the electrical inspector had to kick back one-half his fee to the promoter."

Gifford remarked that the matter appeared to be "too hot a potato" for a St. Louis congressman to handle and that he therefore was bringing it to the attention of the house, which tomorrow takes up consideration of amendments to the housing act.

Cochran Joins Attack.

Cochran, a representative from St. Louis, immediately gained the floor to join in Gifford's attack.

"I do not condone writing up of

One Best Gift

The one best gift you can give your children is their mother's time. The one best gift you can give your wife is a guarantee . . . come what may . . . that it will be her privilege to bring up the children as you have planned.

Just one thing is needed . . . money. Not just a "clean-up" fund . . . but a regular monthly income . . . to replace in part the income you always provided.

You can guarantee your family that security through a Continental Family Income plan or Family Security Agreement . . . one of the many services offered by this strong Chicago institution. Ask your agent or broker to explain how a modest outlay will insure that protection.

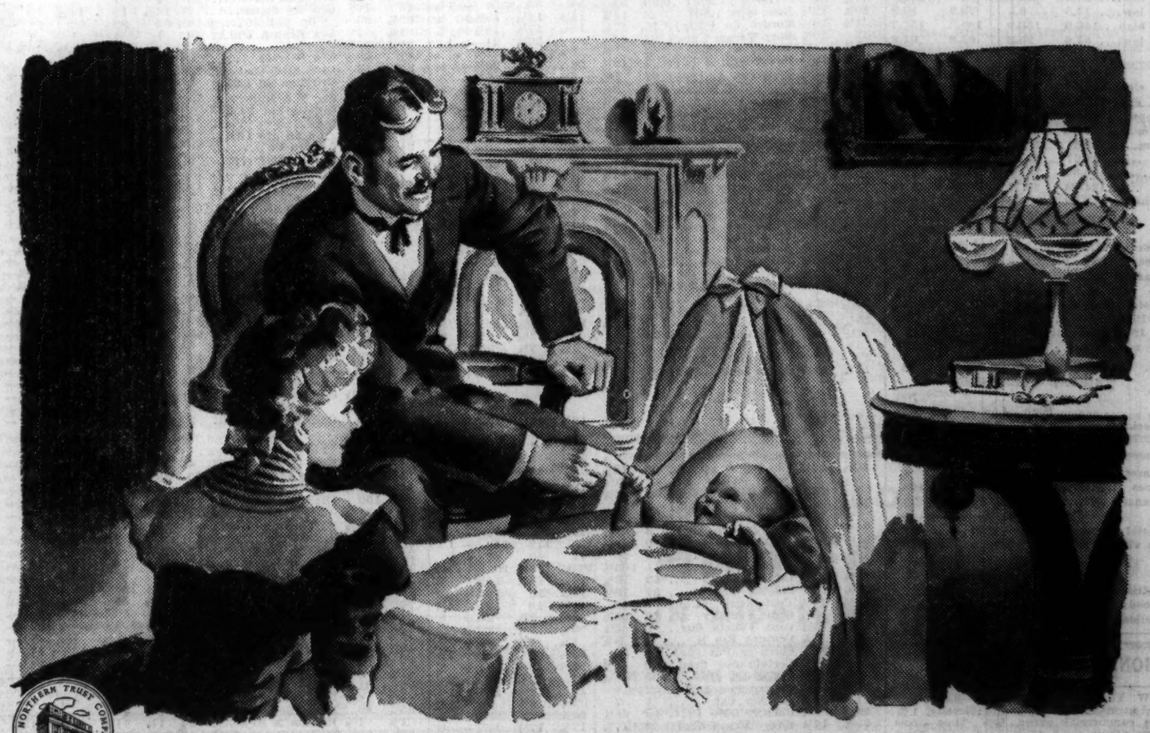
A CHICAGOAN OF THE '90's sought a new plan for the future of his infant son



"Lump sum" was the customary method of payment of life insurance to beneficiaries when the '90's began. But one Chicagoan felt that his insurance could be most effective only if it provided his son with a regular monthly income. He called on The Northern Trust Company for assistance.

Under the guidance of this young, rapidly growing institution a solution was found in an Insurance Trust, said to be one of the first the nation had known.

Decades have passed. At The Northern Trust Company insurance trusts and all other trust arrangements have been capably handled many times. Facilities have been expanded in step with the growth of city and institution. And today, The Northern Trust Company, which this year celebrates its fiftieth anniversary, is as eager as always to help individuals find special solutions for their trust needs.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, April 10.—[Special.]—Recovering from its war fright of last week, the bond market edged higher today. The most actively traded issues advanced, but these gains were balanced by losses in less actively traded bonds.

The market's uneven character was symbolized by Bethlehem Steel funds, the 3½s of 1952, advancing ¾ to 97, while the 3¼s of 1986 declined a like fraction to 100¾.

Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit bonds, with advances ranging to more than 11 points, provided the day's most spectacular move.

Such international issues as those of American Foreign Power, International Hydro-Electric, and International Telephone made moderate advances. These loans were particularly weak during last week's war scare.

Italian bonds showed strength at the close, while advances and declines in the loans of other nations were about even. United States treasuries were irregular, with closing prices ranging from gains of as much as 9-32ds point to declines of the same amount.

Chicago Stocks.

Leading issues on the Chicago Stock exchange edged fractionally higher yesterday in an active session. Turnover was 54,000 shares and 57,000 Commonwealth Edison rights. THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE average of twenty stocks closed at 8.93, unchanged from the Saturday level.

Mickelberry Food, volume leader, closed fractionally higher, along with Great Lakes Dredge, Zenith Radio, and Northwest Bancorporation, other active issues. Middle West, Chicago corporation, Central and South West, and Commonwealth Edison finished unchanged. Rollins Hosiery and Butler Brothers lost ¼. Midland Utilities 7 per cent prior lien set a new 1939 high at 3⅜, up ¾.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks were fairly steady yesterday in quiet trading, dealers said. Normal closing bids were $1 lower to $3 higher. City National shares declined $1. Continental Illinois and First National stocks gained $1 and Harris Trust $3.

CHICAGO ROAD SUBMITS PLAN TO REORGANIZE

C. & E. I. Program Would Wipe Out Junior Stock.

A plan for the reorganization of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad was taken under advisement yesterday by Federal Judge John F. Barnes. The interstate commerce commission had previously given tentative approval to the plan. Judge Barnes is scheduled to rule on the proposal May 16.

If the court approves the plan, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois will be the first major railroad in the United States to be reorganized under the new federal bankruptcy laws. The C. & E. I. has been in bankruptcy since April 18, 1933.

The C. & E. I.'s plan would reduce the debt of the carrier from about $85,000,000 to $61,000,000 and would wipe out the existing common stock. The par value of the common stock is $23,845,300. Fixed interest charges would be reduced $1,772,810 to about $509,104 annually.

Need Two-Thirds Approval.

Charles M. Thomson, trusteee for the road, presented the plan and R. L. Williams, executive vice president, testified as to its status. If approved the plan will be submitted to the security holders. Two-thirds vote of approval by security holders would make the plan operative.

Kenneth D. Steere, chairman of the board, told the court that the Reconstruction Finance corporation had assured him that it is not possible to obtain public financing necessary to make the plan operative the RFC will make a loan.

Stockholders Object.

The hearing yesterday had been set for objections to the plan. Three of four objections received were from common stockholders who objected to the wiping out of their equity. The ICC in its recommendation held that the wiping out of the old common stock equity was necessary for the operation of the plan.

The fourth objection was a brief filed by the Central Hanover Bank of New York, raising several technical objections.

NICKEL NOT NICKEL?

Investors' Guide: Is a nickel really nickel? The other night on the radio some announcer on one of these quiz programs ruled out a contestant because he said a nickel was made mostly of nickel. I didn't get the announcer's reason. Can you tell me about this? Also, what metals are in a penny?—H. J. M.

Answer: The announcer knew his nickels. Our five cent pieces are made of 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel. A penny is rightly called a "copper" because it contains 95 per cent copper and 5 per cent tin and zinc.

SUFFOCATED.

Investors' Guide: One of my clients bought some stock of the Fresh Air Cab corporation of New York several years ago. He tells me that the company, despite its name, wasn't a joking matter and that it had excellent earning possibilities. No dividend returns have ever been made on the stock, however, and I am inclined to believe the company is dead. What do you know about it?—J. V.

Answer: The company apparently suffocated. Its New York charter was forfeited in 1935. The stock is worthless.

"EARMARKED" GOLD.

Investors' Guide: Recently I have read several different articles about shipments of gold sent from England to the United States and being "earmarked." What I would like to know is: What does this term mean? Why is the gold shipped from one country to another? Is it in gold ore or bullion? All this may be plain to some people, but it's confusing to me. Please explain.—C. E.

Answer: "Earmarked" gold is that metal stored or set aside in a special account for the country or bank which owns it. This gold differs from that representing official purchases of the treasury only in its label or destination and it is not included in the United States' official gold stock.

In recent months an exceptionally heavy stream of gold has poured into New York from foreign countries and so called central banks. Some of this consists of official purchases by the treasury, which pays $35 an ounce for it. The rest is stored for foreign account in New York. Shipments are made in bullion form.

Fear of war in Europe is one of the reasons vast amounts of the yellow metal have been sent to this country in recent months for safe keeping. With gold stored here, for example, foreign countries could more easily and safely finance the purchase of foodstuffs and supplies without seeking credit in case of war abroad. The United States' favorable trade balance for 1937 to the first of this year is another factor in the gold shipments. Shipment was made to pay for goods purchased here.

LAMB PRICES UP TO PEAK LEVELS SINCE JUNE, 1938

Short Supply Brings Rise Ranging to 50 Cents.

Sharply higher prices were paid for lambs at the Chicago stock yards yesterday. Values surged upward 35 to 50 cents, with top wool stock up 45 cents, at $10.35, the highest sale since June, 1938.

The sudden increase in lamb prices was attributed to the abrupt decline in supplies. Twenty leading markets received only 47,000 sheep and lambs, compared with 69,000 a week ago and 82,000 a year ago.

Trading in other branches of live stock dragged.

Most hogs brought about the same prices as at the close of last week.

After a limited supply of steers had changed hands on a steady basis, a generally weak to 25 cents lower trade developed for the rank and file of stock.

DAY by DAY on the FARM

EDWARD A. HOMER and ARTHUR NEISZ

How Pastures Are Made.

MOST of the corn and part of the oats to be planted at the Du Page county farm this spring will be put on land that was plowed last fall and left in the rough over winter. This is mostly sod ground that has been in bluegrass pasture. It was plowed up because the stands of grass were getting thin. After being cultivated one or two years it will be put back into pasture.

Only fields level enough not to wash were plowed last fall. Freezing and thawing during the winter have helped to mellow the soil and put it in good condition for working into seed beds. Most of the grass roots have decayed. Sod land is difficult to work when plowed in the spring.

Curbs Cut Worms.

Fall plowing of pastures and meadows also helps to eliminate cut worms and other insect pests. Cut worms often cause much trouble when corn is planted on sod land that has been plowed in the spring.

Another advantage of fall plowing is that it checks the surface flow of water from rains and melting snows and tends to store up more moisture in the subsoil that may be used during the spring and early summer by young crops.

Other fields are being worked back into pasture to take the place of those that have been plowed up. Mixtures of red and alsike clovers and timothy were seeded on these fields a year ago. They will be cut for hay this summer and probably again next year. Then the meadows will be left for pasture.

By following this practice blue grass pastures eventually are established, although no blue grass seeds are sown. Here is how it works. Most of the red clover disappears by the end of the second summer. Blue grass begins to take its place. The timothy gradually dies out and is replaced by blue grass. Some of the alsike clover usually remains.

Wind Sows Seed.

Apparently some blue grass seeds blow in from surrounding fields and some are carried onto the land by live stock. Blue grass is a perennial plant and once it gets a start it spreads, sending up new shoots from the long roots that branch out underneath the surface of the soil and reproducing from seeds.

This has proved a practical and relatively easy and inexpensive way to establish blue grass pastures. It usually takes four or five years to get a good sod with high percentage of blue grass. The proceeds can be hastened by showing some blue grass seeds with the clover and timothy.

Last Many Years.

When established on good soil and carefully managed, blue grass pactures usually last for many years unless injured by unfavorable weather. The severe drouths of 1934 and 1936 damaged some of the pastures at the farm. These gradually are being replaced by new ones.

While over grazing is one of the most common causes of trouble with pastures, farmers find that stands of grass sometimes are injured by not being grazed enough. When a rank growth of blue grass stands ungrazed for a long time there is a tendency for the sod to become weakened by supporting too much top growth. This gives weeds a chance to start.

Pastures at the farm are gone over regularly during the summer and weeds are cut before they produce seed.

CHARGE VALUES MARKED UP IN 2 FHA PROJECTS

"Overnight" Boosts Cited in Congress.

land values over night such as was done in these two instances," he declared.

He said that Stewart McDonald, FHA administrator, had told him that the agency was not interested in the price paid for "raw land" on which such developments are built.

Cochran Tells View.

"I told McDonald he had a right to be interested in the price of the 'raw land,'" Cochran said. "I told him the promoters should be allowed to add only the cost of the improvements such as streets and sewers to the land cost in establishing their 20 per cent equity. In insuring lands of this character the FHA should have 20 per cent of money and not of watered stock."

Cochran said he had discussed with Gifford the need of strengthening the FHA to prevent a recurrence of what had happened in connection with the St. Louis projects. He called upon Gifford to propose corrective amendments to the act when it comes before the house tomorrow.

A Paradox, He Says.

"It seems a paradox," said Gifford, "that in order to revive building operations and furnish employment for this class of workmen it must be carried on in places already overbuilt. It becomes the real cause of the idleness of this class of workers.

"These projects are proof that there is little or no justification for continuance of the FHA.

"The markup in these cases was allowed and even condoned by the FHA and, of course, counted heavily toward the 20 per cent equity contribution. Not much suspicion is needed to decide that other write-ups furnished the stock necessary for the 20 per cent contribution."

The government insures private loans on housing projects when the promoter shows a 20 per cent equity.

HELP WANTED—MEN.

Salesmen.

IMPORTANT:

To those seeking income enlargement opportunity.

MEN—1939

What is your future? Are you getting ahead? Are you on the road to independence? In your trade or profession, can you expect to make $2,500.00 $5,000.00, or $10,000.00 or more in 1939? If not, investigate this offer of free instruction and immediate opportunity for substantial earnings.

WE WILL TAKE ON 25 ADDITIONAL MEN WHO SERIOUSLY DESIRE TO LEARN THIS BUSINESS AND WHO CAN GET ALONG ON SOMEWHAT LOWER EARNINGS FOR A FEW WEEKS WHILE STUDYING AND PRACTICING. WE FURNISH FULL EQUIPMENT WITH NO DEPOSIT REQUIRED. THERE IS NO EXPENSE.

No previous experience in any kind of selling is necessary. If you are intelligent and capable; if you are one who likes to practice to gain skill and judgment in what he does, and if you are a worker willing to pay a working price for success, then we will give you an opportunity. We cannot guarantee you will be a star, but we do guarantee you opportunity with sincere, earnest, practical guidance.

Are you ready for success? Electrolux is just entering its greatest period of success, with the 1939 announcement of its greatest value in history. This is an established institution with powerful resources—one of the largest of its kind in the world. We are very successfully introducing this product representing the greatest value we ever offered, which already enjoys an enviable world-wide reputation. For example:

A young married chap, F. S., who was formerly a farmer and came here to Chicago, joining us just recently, drew $89.37 for his first week here. M. A., a lady of all trades who started a little earlier than F. S., had immediate cash earnings of $183.58 for the first month, while P. P. who used to be a furrier, made $167.53 for the month. L. K. T., a former steel worker, who has been with us for 14 months, drew $404.64 for the month, while V. J. C., previously a restaurant owner, earned over $696.93 for the month, while R. B. former milk salesman, made over $500 for the month, compared with his average of $100 per week for last year. A clothing salesman named C. L. drew $401.58 after about 8 months experience in this business. P. B., who has nearly 4 years' experience with us, earned over $767.78 one month. One month increase over his average of $106 per week in 1938, including one month's vacation. He was formerly a stock broker.

Examples of the higher earnings in this business, as indicated by their earnings last month, include:

H. S., former hotel proprietor..	$ 811.10
N. M., former dentist	1,024.56
R. L., former mechanic	1,127.62
B. W., former teacher	902.73
F. G., former chauffeur	795.89
Y. H., former auto mechanic	740.02
I. R., former ready to wear	778.19
M. H., former real estate man..	1,121.78
V. G., former draftsman	1,135.09
F. P., former filling station	966.31

Do not misunderstand. This is no get-rich-quick scheme. You cannot make money here unless you earn it, and some men who apply to us are not ready to meet the requirements. But we have found also that many men who never previously thought they could do work of this kind have found it to be the opportunity they have sought for years and are now making more money in commissions alone than they ever previously dreamed of making.

Here is J. R., who had been working a butter and egg route in the suburbs—his first 3 days with us he made $65.32; also B. B., inspector in an automotive parts plant, $65.83 for his first 3 days. L. L. started with us within the last couple of months and for March had immediate cash earnings of $237.32, although this work was entirely new to him. F. T., also new in this business, received $197.35. For instance, a former printer, W. J., started just a few weeks ago and made 30 showings, receiving in cash $120.10 net by April 1. G. F., who recently arrived in this country and who has taken out his first papers, made 40 showings to draw $224.14. He was previously in the heavy machinery business in Europe.

A. M. D. from his first 31 demonstrations netted 104.15 paid over to him.

W. F., like Mr. D., was formerly a bookkeeper. He started on March 24 and by March 31 had gotten in 24 showings of the new Electrolux value, receiving in immediate cash earnings $88.06.

This is a genuine opportunity. It costs nothing to try. If you can do what other men here have done you can make real money and have the assurance of its permanency, together with splendid future possibilities.

If you are of good reputation, active, alert, willing to learn, and to work hard every day to make a genuine opportunity on a permanent basis with good people who will deeply interest themselves in helping you to get started and to get along, make your application Tuesday, April 11, 10 to 10:30 a. m.

We have tried to state the facts and requirements clearly. Applicants will be personally interviewed at La Salle Hotel. Inquire at desk for Mr. Page.

This is a straightforward offer of sincere intent to worthy men who are in need of a good substantial connection. Please do not apply for these openings unless you feel you can meet the requirements.

The local men mentioned above may be met and consulted by any one interested in the full details.
